NEWBERN, N. C., TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1867.

The names of the deceased was Bryan Williams known for his zeal in the cause of his country. The ball entered the lower part of the right chest, and passed through the lungs, and out of the back about two inches below the left ear.

On learning these facts Mr. Van Horn sent in a request of the warden stationed a short distance out of the city to keep watch at the jail, judging it right to think that an attempt might be made to rescue the members of the same gang who are incarcerated there.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF COMMON COUNCILS
His Honor Mayor Palmer in the chair. Present: Councilmen Foster, Menninger, Jacobs, Hubbs, Radford. Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Report of committees called for. Committee on Fire Department reported plan and specifications of Engine House for Atlantic Fire Co. $25,000. The original sum voted for the building of the Atlantic Fire Co's Engine House, which was carried.

Mr. Hubbs moved that the taxes on Bar Rooms in this city be reduced to $5 per month. On this Mr. Menninger moved that the Tax list for August shall be the same as in July. Carried.

Mr. Radford offered the following resolution: That the Mayor and other officers of the City of Newbern be authorized to accept of the offer of the Western and Northern ports of their own coast. Thereby be it resolved.

reserved powers of the States, and the establishment of military tribunals for the trial of citizens in time of war. The important reader should understand that the suspension of the habeas corpus was martial law and military jurisdiction. The act now before the Congress is that the intent was to confer such military authority, but also to confer upon the President, over all the officers of the State, legislative, executive, and judicial. Not longer to exist in the States, but to be in the States, and to be in the States, and to be in the States.

What is the character of such a military officer? The bill declares that he shall perform the duties of such officer or person so suspended or removed. In other words, he is a military officer. He is thus transformed into a military officer. He may be made a Governor, a legislator, or a judge, or a member of Congress, or a member of the State, or a member of the Union.
