DR. DUFFY'S TONIC MIXTURE. THE CURE OF AGUE AND FEVER,

Dr. Duffy's Anti-Bilious Pills,

PREPARED BY

F. S. DUFFY, NEWBERN, N. C., May be had at the Drug Stores of Dr. R. S. PRIMROSF, H. McLIN, GODING, WAT INS & CO.

LICH, N. DUFF , People's Market, Newbern, N. 6.

Be lox. Sept 1-2m

COTTON SEED WANTED.

BE ANY QUARTITY IN ENTY CENTS PER BUSHEL. all laid, and bage formshed when required. Apply to S. G. FAIRCHILD, Rewbern Journal of Commerce.

PUBLISHED DAILY BY STEPHEN D. POOL, IN THE BRICK BLOCK, EAST SIDE OF CRAVEN STREET.

VOL. III.--XO. 1.

NEWBERN, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1867.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

Journal of Commerce.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT. HENRY C. PODA House.

Reading Matter on every page.

Index to New Advertisements. MITCHELL, ALLEN & Co., No. 22 Pollok St.

Builders Materiais. MITCHELL. ALLEN & Co .- Price of Cotton Gins

HELLEN & WILLIAMS. - Canned Fruits, Sifters

J. E. AMYETT, -Bacon and Lard. J. E. Nash. - Bankers' Cases, &c. J. M. AGOSTINE. - House for Rent.

CHESS CLUB .-- Meeting at new rooms. W. F. ATRINSON.—Oak Lumber. FOUND, -Jet Breast Pin.

Religious Service Catholic Church. Nov. 1st, Frast of all Saints-Mass 7, A. M. At 7, P. M., discourse on the invocation of sainte and respect due to their images and relica. H. P. NORTHBOP, Pastor.

The omission of a line in our local columns yesterday made us say what we did not intend. What we intend to say was "native citizens, or those who sympathize and affiliate with them. The omission of the latter clause of the sentence would lead to the opinion that we favored notice North Carolinians slone, for office. This is not true and we there. re make the correction.

We have received from our friend, J. E. Nash, Book Seller and Stationer, a copy of "The Lan we Love," for the month of November. This valuable magazine is, as usual, filled with choice literature, and "The Haversack" is of especial interest. Let all who have not provided themselves with this No., call on Nash immediately.

We went into the rooms of the Newbern Chess | on the 29th inst. Club yesterday afternoon, by invitation of one Spranted Testandar.—After the adjournment ly erroneous in every single statement. Its au-Club yesterday afternoon, by invitation of one of the members of the Club, and found them atted up in a very comfertable manner. The the square to hear speeches from Gov. Vance, of newspaper paragraphs, (never, as he profes desire. Under Schenck's poverful eloquence on rooms will be opened to-night for the first time, Judge Osborne and Col. Wm. Johnston. The es, editor of the Richmond Examiner) careless the wrong side we should not be surprised if the Common.

Black, sweet. (% fis. in caddies.

566 65 and we predict a large increase to the present "Daiby's" Bright 6's.

75@ 80 number of members, 22 SOOH as it is known to number of members, 22 Noon as it is known to Gov. Vance handled the Radicals with gloves off, be a permanent affair, which is a settled fact.

> Some months ago, the Editor of the Republican called us a juvenile, and advised us to look inte our dictionary. We took his advice, and in grateful remembrance of his kindness, we would suggest the propriety of his furnishing himself with Webster's Elementary Spelling Book, as we think that he would derive great benefit thereflom. In our opinion the mel-len-ium (Mil-lennium, according to Webster) is about to com-

We would call the attention of the city author-filled up may cause some one's leg or neck to tion of taste. - Rat. Sentinel. be broken, and cost the city a lawsuit. We learn that a prominent citizen fell in one of them a night or two since, fortunately without injury, and we came near going in ourself night

The Synod of North Carolina was organized ou

Rev. A. Curry, of Graham, Moderator. Ber. J. P. McPherson, Rev. D. D. McBrids, Temper-ORDER OF SERVICES ON FEIDAY.

11, A. M. -Addresses on the subject of Eduestion by Rev. G. W. McPhail, D. D., President of Davidson College, N. C., Rev. C. H. Wiley, School Commissioner for N. C., Prof B. Ster-

71, P. M. -Sermon by Rev. D. Fairley, o Fayetteville Presbytery. The Seats are free the public are invited.

WANTED-Three respectable men to act as Conservative candidates in Craven county for the N. B. -No reference required. The above delectable morceau we clipped from the Newbern Republican of yesterday. We d vertise for us, if we had we should have said at the office of the Jouenal of Commence, and we fear much that that amount of his valuable space (?) will not pay him a great deal.

We know of many more than three persons in the Conservative party of the description advertised for; but after racking our brains for some hours, wecament say that we can think of that number in the radical ranks.

Many years ago a minister in Scotland spoke to his congregation of the impolitiness of calling es hother liars. Said he "when any thing is take of her matutinal repast. Her clothes were time at all. I may well illustrate my point by told that you suspect of being false just say, gone, her room in disorder, and a note found a biographical anecdote of a man whose life was wh-e-e-e-ew," and then went on to preach to them about the feeding of the multitude on the feeding of the multitude on the feeding of the multitude on the feeding of the feeding of the multitude on the feeding of the feeding of the multitude on the feeding of the five loaves and few fishes, stating that the mira- Cincinnati, and, fast as the iron steel could bear of his early youth, at a dinner where the cloth Smith, Jones, to.; B. F. Bartholow, Baltimore, Cher cle consisted, not in the number, but the size of the loaves, that they were made as large as the and relations to mount their loss." It is supposed scholar, jurist and statement, Benjamin Watkins Thomas P. Johnson, Euleigh; George V. Strong. largest mountain in Scotland. Just then some the gent explained his sudden and protrac.ed Leigh, one of the urest, brightest, bravest, W. T. Dortch, W. K. Lane, J. J. Baker, John T. one in the congregation said wh-e-e-e-w. The minister inquired who it was that said no lied. his honeyed words, and again admitted his image upon, among others, to make a speech. His ward, Green, Co.; iE. T. Faison, Sampson; to the innermost recess of her toe trusting heart. who said he merely wished to know what kind of ovens were they in which those loaves were

Here is a specimen of wh-e-e-e-ew: The defenders of slavery and the disunionists are with the Conservative or Democratic par- after a minister came in, and took a seat before Every colored man who votes the Conserva- ensued: tive or Democratic ticket invites the return of North Carolina will follow the example of Lon siana, Alabama and Virginia. Do you desire peace and prosperity in North Carolina? Then vote "for a Convention" and Union Republican Candidates. Every laboring man who votes for a Convention and the Republican candidates, votes against the oligarchy that for years has oppressed him. -

Extracts from the Republican.

Mesers Hall and West give notice that all persons having books out of their circulating Library, are expected to return them immediately.

JOHN HUTCHIESON, General Insurance Agent. Middle Street, opposite the Baptist Church, Newbern, N. C.

STATE ITEMS.

On the night of the 27th inst, Mr. Geo. W McCade, while returning from Raleigh to his home in Johnston county, was attacked by two negroes, and robbed of everything he had. The next day the robbers were arrested and the stolen property recovered. — Wilson Carolinia n.

Ditagaras to the County Convention. — We understand that it is asserted that some of the delegates to the County Convention, to-morrow, who were appointed by the Conservative meeting in this City, on Saturday night, do not sympathize with the movement in its opposition to Radicalism. We do not believe this. If, however, it is so, it will be very easy for any thus circumstanced to let it be known. We hope they will do so. We want no doubtful support. This is a time for every man to speak out and show untaistakably, where he stands .- Ral. Sentinel.

A FUGITIVE PROM JUSTICE ARREST FD. - Yesterday a negro named Clarence Hall was arrested by officers Peterson and Hewlett, in this city, on a warrant issued by Justice Conoley on the affidavit of a gentleman in this place to the effect that the party was a fugitive from justice. In the affidavit of the gentleman referred to, it is stated that the negre was arrested in Sampson county some two months since on a charge of larceny and the case was investigated before a Magistrate. On being conveyed to the jail, the pegro made his escape from the officers of law and came to this city. He will be retained in custody until the proper officials claim his person -Wil. Journal.

The Charlotte News, gives us the following ac.

speeches were received with much applause. much to the amusement of the crowd. Even the negroes seemed much impressed with the plain the one case maglignant, and in both cases mis- revolutionary and desperate men" who he says common sense talk of the speakers. We hope for their sakes, that they will ponder the acts RETURNS FROM WAKE -- Our neighbor of the Standard has furnished as with returns from the with sensational rumors or discolored by violent and desperate men" who are to be feared and, conventional election in this county. Old Wake prejudices; in this condition they are not only guarded against are those who would bring about puts on the African yoke and returns four radi- not history, but false schools of present public a war of races, and who are now, by their pelicy, cals. Great heavens!

ing of Gen. Cox and the Standard's estimate of it, and declined the trouble of correcting it, so far danger that threatens the peace of the country him as a truly resonstructed citizen, we used the as I was concerned. This letter he never pub- and to the unional credit, and against this the ities to the deplorable state of the sidewalk, in word "impelled," as implying something more lished in the public journals, nor in his card of people of New York will record their verdict testimonials; but put his "Lost Cause" forth as next month, as the people of California, Ohio honorable than "compelled," and nothing more. having been "approved by the most distinguish- and Pennsylvania have already done. The free These holes a e very dangerous, and unless We turn the matter over to Font—it is a ques- et Confederate leaders." The consequence of circulation of Schenck's audress is all that is u, on her hopes of a happy union availed not. "his discoveries."

Went to Bee a Man-

For a Convention." For further particulars apply to the Office of the Newbern Journal of Com- giveness and blessing of the parents and relaturn to the paternal mansion, to seek the for- moral nature.

and thus end the drama. But the drama did'at end thus. Her swain ed, and she restered to her maiden name. But false. recently a gent, having the garb of a well-to-do in the purchase of stationery and postage stamps. in substance and coloring that I should have to One morning, shortly after his arrival, the maiden was not forthooming when called to parthe usual credulity of womankind, listened to

A SHARP Boy. -Tue Watertown (N. Y.) Ke ormer tells this story: A few days since, a small. fine-looking, bright boy, came into the cars and took a seat. Shortly and facing him, when the following conversation "Well, my little lad, what is your name? asked the minister. "My name is James Foot, What is your name? William Hand," was the answer. "Where are you going?" asked the minister. "To Rome, sir; and where are you going?" was the response of the boy.

(From the Enquirer and Axaminer.) LEC AND HIS LIEUTENANTS.

Correspondence Between the Publishers and

Brig. Gen. Henry A. Wisc.

NEW YORK. Sept. 24, 1867. Brig. Gen. H. A. Wise, Richmond, Va ; DEAR SIR-Herewith please find a copy of our new work, which we forwarded you at the request of the author, Mr. E. A. Pollard. In so doing, we take the liberty of asking a favor for ourselves. That you write us, in a few words, your opinion as to the merits and value of the mention, that we may correct in time for the second edition. We do not wish this expression of opinion in order to publish it in the public journals. It will be of great service to us with our agents in circulating the work, for which purpose alone it will be used. Yours respectfully, E. B. Tarat & Co.,

work, and should you notice any errors please

LETTER OF GENERAL WISE. RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 8th, 1867. To Messrs, E. B. Treat & Co., Publishers, 654 Broadway, New York:

GENTLEMAN-Yours, dated September 24th. 867, and post-marked October 5th, was received by me yesterday, and the book entitled "Lee and his Lieutenants," by E. A. Pollard, author, pubrn Biographies of the War," forwarded by you to his "Lost Cause." America have been at the mercy of many tempo- in the government without the curse of negro rary agents, they have been either confounded supremacy. The only "viclent, revolutionary

If the anthor meant a kindness, he don't know hat insuit and injurry are ; it a compliment, he of the professed history with which I was con- that it has no better weapons than violence and nected or acquainted, it was inaccurate or gross- slang with which to fight its buttle. of a para ite of patrounge, a pander of prejudice.

I directly applied these, his own words, to his take up arms against the whites and drive them In this connection, we may say that in speak- own book; expressed my decided disap, royal of out of the Snothern States. This is the real this candid disapproval of his "Lost Cans" (and needed to see are a radical defeat in this State by I have never seen the first leader who does ap- at least thinty thousand majority. - N. Y. Herald. prove it) is his biography of myself among the Lieutenauts of Lee. He now expres ly, and Not many centuries ago, in the goodly county most justly, excepts me from the class of the of Anthens, Onio, resided a maiden, who, hav- most distinguished;" but his right to make the ing reached the mature age of eigteen suremers exception; truly even, don't excu e his founding became desperately enamored of a wandering a just judgement upon false statements from mo-Beheiuian, a demoralised disciple of the "art tives of pique or prejudice. He has, in the lan- lished in regard to the audacious warnings of the preservative of arts." A cruel "parient," an unrelenting "big basther," a host of unsympathising friends were all unavailing to stem the current of "ye maiden's love." Cold water dashed in re-search and has misused and abused in regard to the addictory megro vigilance committee. We repeat that notices to leave have been served several citizens, and a comparison of them shows that they emficient in re-search and has misused and abused in regard to the addictory megro vigilance committee. We repeat that notices to leave have been served several citizens, and a comparison of them shows that they emficient in re-search and has misused and abused in regard to the addictory megro vigilance committee. We repeat that no-

Nothing could quench the fires of loas but an Ot my public life and its motives and meaning application of the pertion known as 'marriagebus licensibus," and recourse was forthwith had judging. and of my private life he literally knows

on the pertion known as 'marriagebus licensibus," and recourse was forthwith had judging. and of my private life he literally knows

on the pertion known as 'marriagebus licensibus," and recourse was forthwith had judging. and of my private life he literally knows to the worthy probate judge for this potent relief. nothing; yet he has taken occasion of both his tirely different business pursuits. It has also bility of haman happiness. The bridegroom, published his private gossip to effect my personimmediately after the ceremony, was saized with all as well as public reputation. The motives of the desire to "see a man." He yielded to the desire. He saw the man—his interview was may have been those of partiality to some others. a prolonged one—in fact he called on several in- with whom my course came in collission; but the than that published on Saturday. dividuals. Time wore on a pace, the backs were motives of this tirade in his 'Last," upon my out for the train and still he came not. The fair personal character and private intercourse, are out for the train and still he came not. The fair personal character and private intercourse, are bride wended her disconsolate and solitary way not so ve nat, and prove that if I am "affected in on Twentieth street bet ween Main and Cary. In to the depot, hoping there to find the missing mind," bod, or estate, he is more than afflicted this case the penalty is death and flames. Mr. Constitutional Convention. They need not be groom, and wi h him take the train on their re-tives, whose authority they had set at nought, to pable of comprehending—capable of misrepre settle down into staid and sober "married folks." senting; and my private life has been so far resenting; and my private life has been so far removed aloof from his that we have been well mind, and she yielded to the solicitations of her war, and are not he biography of any part of more than us, who swore to have your life. So frequently, and expending numerous small sums are past all hope of reform—they are so erroneous ii you don't be dealt with.

tude, not prandially at least, after "wine and wassail." His tone was colloquial. He could "trickle honey" of sense and sweetness on a high court of Senate, but could not, like the cataract, outroar a tempest, even of applause. With a gleaming eye, and locks like Olympic curls, trembling to his Jove-like nod, liftfing his weight from his lame leg. and catching one wrist, as was his wont, in the opposite hand, with a soft and musical intonation, he began : "Fellow-citizens! The Higgoric Muse". The crowd immediately vociferated : "Hurrah ! hurrah!" Silence restored, he began again-"Fellow-citizens! The Historic Muse" cond time the cowd shouted louder and longer. 'Hurrah! Lurrah! hurrah!"-and with more difficulty, was hushed, when Mr. Leigh began a third a time: "Fellow-citizens! The Historic Muse — " when the multitude rose en masse leaf in the centre. The owner can have it by proving the control of the second of the box.

On Middle Street, between New Street and Judge third a time: "Fellow-citizens! The Historic Muse — " when the multitude rose en masse leaf in the centre. The owner can have it by proving the control of the box.

ntter discomfiture and despair of proceeding -He frewned, bit his lips, torned away and limped down the steps of the rostrum, saying audibly to those around him, "The lying b-h! they never would listen to her, won't now, and never

I don't know, to this day, whether Mr. Laigh meant that mankind never did and never would listen to the "Historic Muse" because she in a lying b-h; but this I know, that, if that is the reasen wuy she is never listened to and never will be, Mr. E. A. Pollard's Historic and Biographic Muses never will be heard or heeded. They will never hert any one, and no one need prompt, correct, criticise, or publish their discordant notes. Gentlemen, von will oblige me by publishing the letter, not as a correction of he errers of Mr. E. A. Pollard's "Standard Southern Biographies of the War, "entitled "Lee and his Lieutenants," in time "for the second edition " I shall hand a copy of it to the journals here, and request all, North and South, to give it an inserti n. With thanks for your courtesy as publishers, I am, gentlemen,

Most respectfully yours, HENRY A. W.SE. Address of the Rudical Congressional Executive Committee.

We putil ah elsewhere to-day the Address of the Radical Congressional Executive Committee to the people of the States that are to vote in November. It is an intemperate document, substituti g broad assertion for argument, violent in its abuse, appealing to passion in place ished by you in New York, as "Standard South of reason and seeking to revive and intenssfy sectional s r.fe. It abounds in all the hackney-'at the request of the author," came to my hand ed blackguardism that has been heaped upon the Presides of the United States by Radical politicians for the past year and a half, alluding to h.m as the "perfidious Executive," the aposlundered most awkwardly ; and. if to taunt me tate in the Presidential chair," and "the accidenwith his travesty of my biography, he is simply tal President;" and pretends that the committee insolent, and I need only expose the motives of are in receipt of intelligence of "new outrages his malignity, to account for his mendacity. - upon the Union of the South, white and black, When Mr. Pollard's book, called 'The Lost since the recen Northern reaction against rad-Cause," was re-published in 1866, he wrote to loalism which intelligence, singularly enough, is me for my approval, and correction of the parts confined to the c ministee and unknown to evclating to myself, and which embraced any im- erybode eise. Under the specious cry of proportant facts within my personal knowledge. I tection for the "Uni mists" of the South it justiread enough of it to see that it was replete with the the distranchisement of the white race and errors unpardonable in any one professing to the elevation of the Southern negroes, who were write history; and that, in respect to my own rebels during the war, to positical supremacy. part in the war, it was a lissue of misrepresenta- in short, it is an unfortunate document for the tions; and that, as to the most important facts party in whose interest it is written, and shows of his own reputation as he is of that of others; radical ticket was defeated by thirty thousand in the State of New York. His threats of repuand puffer of take plane; of a book-maker, with diation and insurrection are all balderdash, and the purpose to make money and spit spleen, in will frighten no sensible misn. The violent chievous. I accordingly wrote him a plain re- are ready to "adventure another rebellion" to ply, quoting from the first words of the preface fight their way into the Union' will be quiet and peaceable enough, and the North will see to it "The facts of the war of the Confederates in that they are restored to their proper position nciting the semi-savage negroes of the South to

[From the Richmond Dispatch.

The Negro Vigliance Committee Some incredulous citizens have expressed doubts as to the truth of the statements pubwriting of "T. B. G., Secretary."

The persons who have incurred the displeas-Leave was granted, and the happy couple was books, Lost and Last, to misrepresent my conmade "flesh of one flesh." Alas for the unsta-duct in the war, from beginning to end, and has those birth but conservative in sentiment.

at all hazards, and requests us to present his My public course in peace or war, he is inca- compliments to the chairman of the committee. "RICHMOND, VA., Oct., 28th. "Mr. J. J. McCormack:

"We the undersigned acting on impulse of. enough acquainted only to keep apart from each honesty & the feerins of uprite principels have was non est, and continued to become non est other. Yet upon both he pronounces a judg- taken this method of warnin you as to the course not recollect ever sutherizing that sheet to ad- until a long length of period had elapsed. His ment which he calls "historical !" All I desire to you now pursue. —So if you, do not stop meddlin continued and unaccounted absence for nearly a say is, that E. A. Pollard's books. 'Lest and in polytix it will be worse for you, as your dispersed doubt of his fidelity in her Last, 'are not the history of my conduct in the graceful remarks. at the poles were noticed by friends and applied for a divorce, which was grant- my life. Both are worse than fiction—they are if ever again is heard making remarks against the Republican party or Mr. Hunnicutt you will Is it asked "in what particulars?" I answer that be shot like a dog and your fithy karous thrown genus tome, with a clean shaven face glossy silk neither book, Lost or Last, is worth the time or to the crows and Buzzards. So mind and take hat, shining patent leathers, immaculate shirt trouble it would take to correct them; and if warnin, and for your better security we will give bosom, gray inexpressibles, and the demeanor of they were, I have not the time to spare from my you a week to leave town, & if you are not far off jocky, paid that community a visit. He staid daily labor for my daily bread to undertake the by Monday, you may waken in the morning and about for nearly a week, visiting the post office task. They need so much correction that they find your whole place in flames. So take care,

"N. B. D.; S. F. A.; G. D.; A. S; J. D. S.; and

them, winged their way to the Far West, "leaving behind a large and numerous circle of friends the hosts assembled was that eminent lawyer, lotte; Jas. W. Jones, John A. Richardson, city; absence to her entire satisfaction, and she, with great and good men I have ever known. After Kennedy, W. T. Faircloth, Goldsboro; Edwin BEWBERN MARKET. October 31th, 6 p. m.

Corron—(tax included) 151(2)151c. Rosm-No sales. CORN - $1.20 TURPENTINE-$3.60. TAB-$1.75.

New Adve. tisements. FOUND.

Fournal of Commerce.

1867. Rates of Advertising Revised. 1867. 1-1-m. 1 2 w. : 1 mes wam 1 3 m. 1 6 m. | 18 m

88 Old Contracts will be filled at former Raiss. Th New business must be based on the above rates, Billy re due and collectable as soon as advertisement appears anless special agreement to the contrary is made. SPRCIAL CONTRACTS for advertising in Weekly will be nade upomequitable terms.

New Advertisements.

Bankers' Cases and Money Books.

BANKERS' CA'ES bound in cloth and morocre con taining thirteen, and twenty-six compartments, updezed and arranged for months.

LARGE FAMILY BIBLES, arranged for sixteen pho tegraphs, with clasps.

BAILROAD CONDUCTORS' money, ticket and reselpt books

PATEN CHAINTACK ALBUMS, containing frem tairty to fifty places, oval and square, for photographs. Just received and for sale by

L ARGE QUANTITY OF OAK TIMBER FOR SALE.—
Apply to me af Goldsboro, N. C.
Nov 1-1m
W. F. ATKINSON.

FOR RENT.

THE HOUSE FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY THE SUB-J. M. ACCOSTING.

MEMBERS OF "CHESS CLUB"

Be punctual in attendance at the opening of your new rooms, over McLean's store to-night a: 7% P. M. PRICE OF COTTON GINS REDUCED.

THE GEORGIA COTTON GIN AT $4.50 PER SAW. The manufacturers of the above Gins having reduced the pri e to Four Dollars and a half per saw, we are prepared to receive orders for the coming season at this price. the r putation of this Gin which has been favorably known for many years, as the Taylor Colum-bus Georgia Gin, and now as the "seorgia Gin" is well established as being one of the best in the market. MITCHELL, ALLEN & CO.

BUILDERS' MATERIALS.

A MERICAN and ENGLISH LOCKS, LATCHES Bolts, Hinges, Screws, Nails, Iron, Paints, Oil, V.r. Bells, Paper Hankings, and a General Assortment of Hardware, AL MITCHELL, ALLEN & CO.'S Hardware Store.

CANNED FRUITS

LOBSTERS, OYSTER , SABDINES, JELLIES, PICKLES

HELLEN & WILLIAMS. Count House Building.

Sifters, Flour Buckets, Sugar Boxes

BRASS BOUND PAILS, MEASURES, BROOMS, DUSTING BRUSHES.

> At HELLEN & WILLIAMS, Court House Building.

BACON AND LARD.

AMYETT'S.

Notice. A LL PERSO'S INDEBTED TO THE LATE FIRM OF diate payment to Geo. C. Rixford, Agent, who is alone authorized to settle the debts of the said firm.

GEO, EVERSON, JR. Removal.

ECKENWALTER HAS REMOVED HIS BOOT A. and Shoe establishment from Pollok to Middle Sts. (next to Beale's Roarding House,) and flatters him-self that be can fill the orders of his old friends and the

NO MORE TAXES!

New Order Just Out!

CALL AT THE WELL-KNOWN STAND, OR SOUTH Goods in this market just opened, comprising severy va-riety usually kept in a GENERAL SUPPLY STORE,

Very Low Prices for Cash or Country Pro

Call and examine. I would be pleased to show you

BALE ROPE, BAGGING AND TWINE,

For sale in Lots to Suit Eurohasers, by the Manufactu-

H. CLUCAR Fe. 57 Pine St., New York.

Wanted.

50 BALES OF COTTON PER MONTH FOR MANU-

Sept. 14-8m

ON CONSIGNMENT.

DUBHAMS' SMOKING TOBACCO. 61/2 BARBUS,
16 Bags and 1 Case small Bags from Messrs. R.. F.
MORRIS & SONS, the original manufacturers of this Celebrated Smoking Tobacco, for Sale low. RICHARD N. TATIOR, Corner Craven & South Front Streets.

For Rent.

A DWELLING HOUSE, WITH SIX ROOMS SITUAT. ed on east side of Griffith Street. Possession given on the first day of November naxe Newbern, Oct 30-tf Shipping.

GOODSPEED'S WEEKLY STEAMSH.P

Carrying the U. S. Mail, Between New York and Newbern

MOBIE CAROLINA,

The A He. 1 Steamship FLLEN S. TERRY

CHAPIN, Master, WILL sail from this port for New York direct on FRIDAY, Rovember 1st, at 4% o'clock, P. M. All Goods directed to m' care will be ceived and forwarded Free of Commission re freight or passage, having unsurpased accomme ms, apply at WM. H. OLIVER & CO'S Brick S orc.

go. The eistance, 443 miles, is run in 20 hours and ro ared three times-three "hurrahs!" to his property and paying charges, at this office.

Go and see Maj. Dan. Hurtt, in McLean & Co.'s Clothing Department.