Because it gives proof of solvency in "vouchers and references." It gives credit for half premiums for twelve months or if you pay all cash, it gives you credit for all premiums (if you become unable to pay in future,) for as long as you paid all cash; thus it will cover years of poverty, and give the benefit of its policy, without money. It never takes what a man has paid after two payments of $10, it he applies for "paid up policies" and is unable to keep paying. It has no restriction as to residence and travel, and thus saves you from that trick by which many Life Insurance Companies force you to lose the benefit of your policy and all you have paid them. It is at less expense than any Company now in existance, and, therefore, has more to divide in profits.
