

Our New York Correspondence.

New York, Oct. 12th. If ever there was a prospect that Broadway would be relieved, it has now passed...

The Free Love Union still attract a multitude of new members. We learn that the original five are about to extend the higher degree of the order to a multitude of the initiates...

The Kane expedition returned last evening, to the gratification of hundreds of anxious hearts. Lieut. Harsteins expedition which had proceeded to the Arctic seas, in search of Dr. Kane's party...

Our epidemic of grand jury indictments and of investigating committees into the conduct of high officials is now afflicting this unhappy city...

Briggs and Branch are still besieging the English rotundity of the Chief of Police. The chief however leaves it out, and persists in signing his name "George Washington"...

Immense and innumerable posters called all faithful Americans to the Hippodrome last night to raise their voices in behalf of Hon. Frasmus Brooks...

There is in truth less excitement among the masses in this city, this year, than for a long time past. The contest is so entirely for mere men, and not for principles...

It is rumored that the grand jury are about to bring an indictment against the Recorder of the city. There is no foundation for this rumor...

Some of our politicians are also endeavoring to obtain an indictment against the "Senepars," a somewhat notorious American secret society...

Love in letters! Broadway in tears! "The Great Bear is dead! and Venus aphrodite has gone up in a balloon!"...

The latest sensation in Gotham is the dissolution of the "Grand Order of Free Love." The police of the 8th and 14th wards exhibited a new spasm of vigilance...

During the week we have had an exhibition of the "Dark Lantern" in the Park. A "Know Nothing" meeting was held on Wednesday evening...

The Chicago Democrat, unlike his brethren in the South, takes the true ground. "EVERY FOREIGNER WHO LANDS UPON OUR SHORES IS A FRESH ALLY OF THE FREESOLERS."

FOREIGNERS AND SLAVERY.—Noticing Mr. Berrien's letter, the Chicago Democrat Press says: "It may rest assured that Mr. Berrien's fears are not unfounded..."

THE BETHEL CONFERENCE OF THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST IN THIS STATE closed its session on Saturday last. Public Divine Services have been protracted from day to day...

The Reformers have been galvanized into life for the last time and have nominated a ticket composed of about an equal number of Whigs and Democrats. Old Peter Cooper, as usual, was made the cat's paw...

The exposure of Mayor Wood's contract for raising a ship "Joseph Walker" has been but the beginning of a series of disclosures and indictments which create much excitement at home and abroad.

Rachael is going to Boston next week and Mrs. Rophiel Felix will have an opportunity to commence in a new field, and profit by the lessons he has received here...

Amount of State Taxes for 1855. We are indebted to the politeness of the faithful and efficient Comptroller of Public Accounts, Mr. Brooks, for the following list of taxes paid by the different Counties for 1855...

A Statement of the Net Taxes as paid by each County in the State of North Carolina: 1854. 1855.

Table with 3 columns: COUNTY, 1854, 1855. Lists counties from Alamance to Yancy with corresponding tax amounts.

The re-assessment of lands had not taken place when the last summer's taxes were collected. The augmentation of the revenue from the lands and polls was owing to the increase of taxes on these sources...

FOREIGNERS AND SLAVERY.—Noticing Mr. Berrien's letter, the Chicago Democrat Press says: "It may rest assured that Mr. Berrien's fears are not unfounded..."

The Chicago Democrat, unlike his brethren in the South, takes the true ground. "EVERY FOREIGNER WHO LANDS UPON OUR SHORES IS A FRESH ALLY OF THE FREESOLERS."

THE AMERICAN ADVOCATE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1855. JOHN COLLINS, Warrenton, N. C., is our authorized Agent for the American Advocate. A. G. EUBANK, Esq., Pollockville, is our agent who will collect and receipt for us.

Mr. Barringer, the Standard, and the Nuncio Afair. The Standard of the 10th inst. after gratifying its predominant propensity, in abusing and misrepresenting Mr. Rayner, in connection with the correspondence on the Nuncio affair...

Jefferson. We ask attention to the communication in this week's paper with the above signature, in relation to Judge Mahly's recent novel [in this State] decision, rejecting Universalists as witnesses in a Court of Justice.

The American Party at the South. Have abundant cause to rejoice that although they have existed as a party but, comparatively, a few short months, they are yet in time to effect much good.

"No Mixing Religion with Politics." Such has been the stereotyped phrase of those politicians who have been seeking to array in their behalf, the large balance of power elements in the voting population...

FATAL DUEL. SAVANNAH, Oct. 10.—A duel was fought at Fort Pulaski, on Saturday last, between John Chaplin, Ex-Lieutenant in the United States Navy, and his brother-in-law Dr. Kirk, of Savannah...

IMPORTANT HINT TO PARENTS.—FEW parents realize how much their children may be taught at home, by devoting a few moments to their instruction every day. Let a parent make the experiment with his son of ten years old, for a single week...

THE AMENDE.—In a note at the end of No. 4 of the AMENDE, of "Investigator," our Spring Hill Correspondent, under a misapprehension, we made a few comments, defending Hon. E. Stanly and others...

Distressing Casualty.—Five Persons Burnt to Death. NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—A fire occurred in State Street last night, and melancholy to state, two women and three children were burned to death. Two other women escaped, with serious injuries.

COMMUNICATION. Tell it not in Gath! Publish it not in the streets of Askelon! lest the daughters of the uncircumcised rejoice in it as they do in the triumph of the "Golden Age" of religious freedom...

Read It! We ask every Southern man to read carefully the letter we publish this week from the Hon. JOHN A. WILCOX, a Democratic member of the last Congress from Mississippi...

The Carolina Cultivator and the Arator. The Carolina Cultivator and the Arator, were ignored, it seems, by the State Agricultural Society. Perhaps that was all proper enough, under the circumstances...

There has been a recent arrival of 333 tons of Railroad Iron at Beaufort, for the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad, and another arrival daily expected.

READING IN THE CARS.—Several instances are lately recorded where persons who were in the habit of reading much in railway cars had become nearly blind, and an express agent near Boston had totally lost his sight...

Mrs. E. M. JUDSON.—It is said that the executors of the estate of Mrs. Emily C. Judson have made arrangements with the Rev. Rufus W. Griswold, D. D., to prepare a memoir of her life and letters.

EPISCOPALIAN STATISTICS.—In New York city there are eighty Episcopal clergymen; in Brooklyn, N. Y., twenty eight; in Philadelphia, Pa., sixty six; in Boston, Mass., twenty two; in Baltimore, Md., twenty four; and in Charleston S. C. twenty one.

JEFFERSON. The Declaration of Rights of the people of North Carolina declares that all men have a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences...

THE FIRST PREMIUM CARRIAGE. The carriage to which was awarded the first premium at our State Fair last week was built by D. B. Blew & Co., of Kinston, N. C., and was a superb piece of work...

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—A fire occurred in State Street last night, and melancholy to state, two women and three children were burned to death. Two other women escaped, with serious injuries.

N. C. Standard.