Register! Register!! Register!!!

It is important that in the coming election we should poll every vote. We hope all our Democratic friends will see that they are properly registered. Now this is a matter that should not be postponed—a single vote might decide the election. Mr. J. M. Conley, the registrar in this township announces that he is ready to register all parties. If you do not reside in this township, find out who the registrar is in your township, and go at once and register. All persons who have heretofore registered in the township where they now live, and in which they expect to vote, need not again register. But if they have moved their residence into a different township it is necessary that they register again. Every voter must be registered in the township where he votes. No one will be allowed to register on the day of election, unless it be that he comes of age on that day.

We are getting at the true inwardness of these campaign scandals. One upon which the Republicans have relied most, was an affidavit that Mr. Tilden refused to make a contribution to the Sanitary Commission during the war, and said he would "rather see all the soldiers starve to death than give them one cent." Daniel Magone, Jr., Chairman of the New York Democratic State Committee, states that "the old man who made the affidavit is of feeble intellect and uncleanly habits," and does not understand what he has done. The old man says that "he was promised a suit of clothes for the affidavit, which has not yet been given to him." This is not the first obligation which the Republican party has repudiated.

ON TO VICTORY!

Indiana Democratic by from 5,000 to 7,000 Majority!

The Democrats Sweep West Virginia by from 8,000 to 12,000 Majority!

DEMOCRATIC GAINS IN OHIO!

It is decided. The victory is ours. In Indiana and Ohio the elections passed off quietly—without any disturbances. The Democrats have undoubtedly carried Indiana by from 5,000, to 7,000 majority. It will be remembered that Grant's majority in this State in 1872 was 21,090, and now when we behold the splendid victory achieved by the Democrats we should work but the harder to swell the number at the coming election.

In West Virginia the Democrats have a majority of from 8,000 to 12,000, and Major Henry Matthews, the Democratic Governor-elect, feels confident that the majority can be considerably increased in November. In this State the Legislature is Democratic from two-thirds to three-fourths. This secures two United States Senators.

Ohio, Hayes' own State, has been carried by the republicans with a majority of not more than 3,000—a large Democratic gain on former presidential years.

It will now be seen that in none of the preliminary elections have the radicals been able to hold their own. In less than three weeks from today the battle will be over and the grand victory won. No more wrongs and outrages—no more thieves and villains in office. The power of the foul party of political vampires will soon be at an end, and that peace, reform and honest administration, for which good men have so long prayed and hoped, will soon dawn upon a country that has been accursed, and down-trodden for more than fifteen years.

But we must not rest on oars. While there is yet time, white men—honest men of North Carolina, rouse ye! Work from now till the 7th of November as men never worked before, and the greatest Democratic victory that has ever been achieved will be ours.

Judge Mackey, one of the most distinguished judges in South Carolina, and long a leading republican in the State, is out washing his hands of radicalism. Last week, he made a great speech at a Democratic meeting in New York City. He says that even the South Carolina negroes are disgusted with the rottenness of the republican party, and that Hampton and Tilden will carry that State. Roll on the ball, and the putrid corpse of the the corrupt party will be buried so deep in November next that it never will hear of a resurrection.

Democratic watchwords:—Peace and Reform.

Republican watchwords: Discord and corruption.

The expenses of the White House under Democratic rule were $47,847 50. Under Republican rule they are $108,264.85. Is not the difference, $60,417.35, rather a high price to pay for the honor of having a Republican in the White House? Unfortunately this is only an example of the general profligacy of Republican rule. The same spirit of reckless extravagance runs through the whole service, from the President down to the lowest official.

Vote for the Amendments.

SEVEN REASONS why the Amendments should be adopted:

1. The adoption of the amendments restores the law-making power to the people—strips the rapidly growing and dangerous prerogative of the Governor, and turns over to the peoples representatives the management, supervision and control of the railroads and charitable and penal institutions of the State.

2. Restricts the sessions of the Legislature to sixty days, at $1.90 per day.

3. Reduces the number of the Supreme Court Judges from five to three.

4. Reduces the number of Superior Court Judges from five to three.

5. Exclude thieves from the ballot box.

6. Saves the tax payers of the State more than one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars a year on the Legislature and judiciary at the lowest figure they have cost since the war; and three hundred and fifty thousand (300,000) dollars on the cost of Holden's two years' administration.

7. And settle for all times to come the agitation and danger of mixed schools for the whites and blacks—the nursery of social equality.

DEMOCRATIC ARGUMENTS.—$30,000,000 saved in annual federal expenses by the action of one branch of Congress in one Session. $65,000,000 of retrenchment proposed and the amount cut down only in consequence of the Republican Senate and Executive. $6,000,000 saved to the taxpayers of New York State in one year by Governor Tilden.

Gov. Hayes piously promised the Southern people in his letter of acceptance, that he would be their faithful friend. What sort of a man is he who, after this promise, consorts publicly with Bob Ingersoll and approves of his vile speeches made in front of his own door? Gov. Hayes may not be a perjurer, but he seems to be a good deal of a hypocrite.

Another whiskey thief comes out of jail by the grace of Grant, to vote for Hayes and Republican civil service reform. It is Jake Rehm, the partner of Hering in the Chicago whiskey Ring. Grant says that Rehm has as good a right to be released from jail as Hering, and perhaps he has. Now we may expect the reason of McKee and Avery, delayed only until after the October election, and soon the jail will deliver up the last whiskey thief to shout for Hayes and Wheeler.

Don't forget that the Salisbury Fair commences on the 24th of this month. The prospects for a grand exhibition are very flattering. This is the "Fair of Western North Carolina," which section should be well represented. Theo. F. Klutz, Secretary, has our thanks for a complimentary ticket.

Dossey Battle, editor of the Tarboro Southerner and Miss Mary Bell were married in Washington, N. C. on the 28th of September.

Bob Ingersoll says: "There is no God," and alternately reviles the Deity and the Democratic party. After the election he will wish there was no God and no Democratic party.

Every three years the government absorbs $1,000,000 from the resources of the people, whereas $660,000 would be amply sufficient to meet all demands.

To Our Subscribers and Friends.

We learn that there is some complaint among our subscribers because we have been compelled to advance the subscription rates to $2.00 a year. We think that only one word of explanation is necessary to satisfy our friends of the injustice of their views and reconcile them to a prompt renewal of their subscription. It is impossible to publish a paper of the size and character of ours for $1.50 and make expenses. It is true that the city papers can get out a weekly edition of their issue made up entirely of the contents of a daily edition and furnish it to subscribers at one dollar or even less, as the cost of such weekly issues is but little more than the price of the paper upon which it is printed. But in a country paper such as ours where all the matter is used but once, two dollars is the lowest price at which the paper can be furnished. Among the many thousands of country newspapers published in the United States there are but few with subscription prices below two dollars, and as many at a higher price as there are at the lower rates.

It is well known that the former publisher of this journal, lost money in the year in which he commenced its publication and our friends should not ask us to continue an enterprise upon a basis which has resulted in a failure. And furthermore, we confidently expect to make the paper far more valuable and interesting to our patrons and make it richly worth to them the price we have adopted. In view of this we are adding to our capital and publishing material, and in a short while will appear in an entire new dress, with large addition of interesting matter.

Fears have been expressed that the enterprise would be abandoned, and subscribers lose their subscriptions. We can dispel these fears by the announcement that the number and character of the business men of this place, who have become interested in the publication and success of the paper, forbid at once any such conclusion being warranted. And to the end that we may satisfy any doubt upon the subject, we herewith append a list of the stockholders of the company, and its officers:

- President—M. V. Moore. Secretary—R. E. Blakey. Treasurer—R. R. Wakefield. Stockholders and Directors—Major G. W. F. Harper, M. V. Moore & Bro., F. S. Harper, F. Wiesenfeld, Colonel G. N. Folk, Dr. J. Mason Spainhour, Dr. R. L. Beall, R. R. Wakefield, G. H. Harstin, R. E. Blakey and E. L. Pell.

We trust our dissatisfied friends will at once come forward and renew their subscriptions. This is a home enterprise, and we feel assured that there is no one in our community so indifferent to its welfare as to fail to give us their sympathy and support in our efforts.—Come, friends—we need your help and you will not surely desert us now.
