WHEN YOU WRITE TO A PARTY WHO ADVERTISES IN THIS PAPER, PLEASE SAY THAT YOU SAW HIS ADVERTISEMENT IN THE MURFREESBORO ENQUIRER.

LOCAL.
ENQUIRIES.
 Our Rozobel letter came too late for this issue.
 Rev. R. R. Savage was in town Sunday last.
 A drunken woman disgraced our streets Saturday last.
 Send us the news. Correspondence is always appreciated by the ENQUIRER.
 Gov. Wade Hampton delivers the address at the State Fair on Thursday next.
 Mrs. Uriah Vaughan returned last week after several weeks visit in Norfolk, Va.
 Subscriptions still come in, and job printing and advertisements accordingly—next!
 Capt. W. S. Tolar, of Robeson county, has been visiting E. W. Noltey Esq., of our town.
 Mr. Rolfe, our town constable is having the street improvements to continue in progress.
 Dorsey Battle is the most peace loving man we ever saw, for a man of such warlike name.
 The Editor will give an account of the Northampton, Hertford and Bertie Local Fair in our next.
 Tully Joyne, Esq., and mother, of Eastern Shore Va., were visiting Dr. J. C. Lawrence last week.
 We have this week placed our professional cards on the first page to make room for other advertisements.
 "Don'ts for Husbands," on our first page should have been credited to our appreciated exchange, the Greensboro Patriot.
 If you wish a nice, good fitting, first-class shoe, have them made at A. A. Spivey's of our town. We know whereof we speak.
 Magistrate's Blanks, Sheriff's receipts, Notices, Letter Heads, Bill Heads, Envelopes, &c., printed at low figures at this office.
 The Editor is in attendance at the Rich Square Fair. No telling what we may have to chronicle when our 'Ed.' goes off this way!
 Sevenly five cents is not the subscription price of the ENQUIRER for six months. Understand that, and send us $1.50 for twelve months.
 We learn from the Norfolk Virginian that Mr. Gordon, a former section master of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad, fell dead at Seaboard, from apoplexy last week.
 Rev. Wallace Duncan, of Wofford College, S. C., has been elected President of Randolph Macon College in the place of his brother, Rev. Dr. James A. Duncan, recently deceased.
 Mr. C. E. Myrick, of our town, who married Miss S. B. Colton, of St. Mary's City Md., on Tuesday Oct. 2nd, returned with his happy bride on Saturday last, and are now stopping at the Atlas Hotel. May long lives and much happiness be their fortune.
 Brother Dorsey Battle of our much appreciated exchange, the Tarboro, Southerner says:
 The Murfreeboro ENQUIRER is publishing a series of "Piney Woods Lyrics." If it's piney woods lyrics you want bro. we have a friend who will furnish them 'cheap at cost for cash.'
 Sheriff Has'e paid us a visit—but not an 'unpleasant' visit that sherrifs sometimes pay, but a pleasant call—on Saturday last. He is a zealous worker in behalf of the county's interest and is now preparing to collect his taxes. Be prepared gentlemen to pay your taxes. It has to be done sometime, and don't put the sheriff to unnecessary trouble—Pay up.
DIRECTORS APPOINTED.—Gov. Vance has appointed the following directors on the part of the State for the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company: P. H. Winston, Jr., Bertie; Col. E. C. Yellowley, Pitt, and J. B. Morgan, Currituck. W. F. Martin of Pasquotank, was appointed State proxy.

It then was joy unto us both—
 Now, misery
 To me you were so passing fair;
 So mingled with my visions dear;
 So worshipped on from year to year;
 'E'en now in sleep;
 I often see the present drear,
 At midnight deep.
 You may not always wrong your heart;
 It yet feels deep its ancient smart,
 The golden dreams will not depart
 From chime worn;
 Sometimes I see your wild eyes start
 At thought forlorn.
 You seek to hide the faded flower,
 Which ghost like lingers on your bower,
 But still it hath its chosen hour
 With even you;
 You can't escape its deathless power,
 How'er untrue.
 Oh vain and shallow-hearted maid!
 On thee still rests the hopeless shade
 Of Love, which once Elysium made,
 And all was fair;
 Till hope and joy, were both betrayed
 Unto Despair. Plus.

ONE WAY TO GET RICH.—Nothing is more easy than to grow rich. It is only to trust nobody—to befriend none—to get all you can, and save all you get—to stint yourself and everybody belonging to you—to be the friend of no man, and have no man for your friend—to heap interest upon interest, cent upon cent—to be mean, miser-able and despised for some twenty or thirty years—and riches will come as sure as disease and disappointment. And when pretty nearly enough wealth is collected, by a disregard of all the charities of the human heart, and at the expense of every enjoyment, death comes to finish the work—the body is buried in a hole, the heirs dance over it, and the spirit goes—where?—New York Commercial Advertiser.

OUR STRAMBOAT LINES.—The steamer Lota was put on our line last week by the Albemarle Steam Navigation Co., and was unable to bring the freights at its schedule trips, and had to make an extra trip on Saturday last. Last week it carried away thirty-five bales of cotton besides having all the freights it could bring, and much other produce besides cotton to carry. We already hear that there is a project on hand to place on an opposition boat. Now this has been proved an entire failure several times. The fact of it is the Seaboard railroad should have protected their interest long since by building a railroad to this point but since they have not, we think the A. S. N. Co. should give us a boat three times a week during the Spring and Summer, regularly, and upon their obligating to do so our people should patronize their line and only theirs.

THE STORM.—The damage of the recent storm was considerable. In many sections travel was entirely stopped, and in several places the bridges and ferries have not yet been put in passable condition. By the heavy rains, and the strong easterly blow which effected the tide and backed the water, caused little streams to be torrents, the creeks to be almost rivers, and the rivers to be almost seas. In Bertie, much damage was done, several mill dams were swept away and the streams were filled to overflowing. In Northampton the damage was not so great. In Hertford it was considerable. Besides the general destruction to crops &c., the mill dams of Jackson Hare and of Liverman & Brown were washed away, with considerable damage done to others. In Gates, Chowan, Tyrrell, Perquimans and Washington counties, the storm was terrible, and it is said that almost every bridge, mill dam and embankment were almost entirely washed away. The damage to the fisheries on the rivers and sound is said to be considerable.
