THE following extract from our extra of August 12th was intended for insertion in our last issue, but was inadvertently omitted. We cheerfully insert it, now, as we have no desire to do injustice to the gentle-

To THE PUBLIC.—The conductor of this paper issues this extra in order to make cer- ness. tain qualifications regarding the regular issue of the Post this morning.

Owing to facts which have come to his knowledge since the issue, he has been led to regret certain articles and paragraphs which appeared, and wishes them to be considered as retracted. Especially does he desire to withdraw the paragraph concerning "a Mr. Cowan," for he believes that it does great injustice to a most high minded and honorable gentleman. * * *

We think it due to the Senior Editor of the Post to state that he has gone North to procure a large stock of job material, and that were he here, he would probably have more to say upon this subject. The writer ishing all over the county this fall, that the in Chlorosis, or Retention, Irregularity, Painof this article believes that the Post has no desire or intention to injure innocent par-

The Ecumenical Council.

It is rumored, with what degree of truth it is impossible to say, states the New York Herald, that ever since the calling of the Ecumenical Council by Pope Pio Nono quite a busy correspondence has been carried on with regard to it between the Archbishops and Bishops of the Roman Catholic Church in this country. The object of this, it is said, was to come to some understanding between themselves in order to act, so far as was possible, in full co-operation during the deliberations of the Council. One point upon which these rumors have it that an agreement was arrived at is mentioned as being the relation of the State and the effect that the representatives in the Council of their Church in this country will urge for general adoption the American system of complete severance of the Church from the State, restoring to it full liberty of motion untrammeled by the political power of the country, and basing it upon the voluntary adhesion of its followers, at the same time renouncing all active interference with the political administration of government. Should these rumors be founded in fact, the American prelates may exercise a healthy influence upon the future of the Catholic world.

A meeting of German Catholic Liberals took place on July 25, at Gratz, under the presidency of Professor Davidosky. After an address from M. Uhlick, a speaker of high reputation, the assembly voted the following motion:

Considering that the Ecumenical Council, which is to meet on December 8, has been imposed on the Papal Government by the party of the Jesuits, by which it is and will that the resolutions likely to be passed by that assembly will thus be directed against intellectual and moral progress, this body accepts with extreme satisfaction the invitation addressed by the independent thinkers of Italy to those who share their opinions Naples, the object of which is to encourage civilization and charity, and to counteract the intellectual and moral degradation of humanity which Jesuitism systematically seeks to produce.

The assembly, composed of 4,000 persons, then nominated M. Zimmerman, editor of Die Freyheit, of Gratz, to represent it at Naples.

JOHN CHINAMAN has his eye on America, and is bound to come. We believe that within ten years, silks and teas will be exported from this country to Europe. While we are opposed to the coolie system, we do not see how Chinese emigrants can be prohibited from coming here. They are an inoffensive set, and many of them are skillful the 7th, our acknowledgements to those of workmen. In fact of the finest sort of our colored triends who contributed to the workmen. They come to this country to better their fortunes and if properly treated will do more to civilize and christianize the world than all the missionaries ever sent out. As the Albany Journal says: "He is the 'coming man'."

of them coming to this State, but it is a will soon disappear, and future political melancholy fact that we have not one half parties will in all probability be formed the labor we need to day in this country. Large and valuable plantations, of thousands of acres, are lying idle to-day for no lack of capital, but simply inability to get labor. We believe our labor is good, what there is of it, and now that affairs are becoming settled, we hear very few complaints of the unreliability of labor. All North Carolina needs now is immigration. Taxes will then be lighter, because there will be more to help pay them, and money will be lave rotted and now crumble at the touch. Taxes the problem of the public streets I have determined hereafter to advertise sales and publish all official notices pertaining to my office in the columns of the Post. more plenty because we will have more to sell. We welcome all who come here to settle, and assure those looking for investments and new homes, that they will be welcome, and that there is no intention of fled to speak for the Virginia Democracy, if rurnishing suits of tar and feathers to new comers, though they will be called "carpet baggers" if they are at all impregnated ted"-any insurance company would accept with Republicanism. But as for us, we the proof of decease as conclusive. Democshall be glad to see any class of good citizens coming here, we care not of what Nation, politics or religion.

PIKE of the Standard and Steams of the New Berne Times are all in a muddle. From what we can learn, the Times man carried away the Standard man's borrowed clothes, and the owner wants them. Hence the row. It ain't our funeral-go ahead.

Township Organizations.

Our township officers have been elected and qualified and it is now their duty to carefully study the laws and to organize their various townships. As this system of township organigation is one entirely new to the people of this State, it cannot be expected that it will work well at first, but when the duties are thoroughly understood and properly performed, we think the people will greatly prefer this to the old way of always traveling to the Court House to transact busi

The most important duty, of course, is the organization of schools. We urge the Boards to be very cautious and at the same time energetic, in the performance of their duties. A careful study of the laws is carnestly solicited. Without this no good can be done, and our friends may get into trouble. The duties of the Township Clerks are arduous and requires great care and study. Let them move slowly but surely, and await the arrival of the laws governing them, which will be in about a dren month. We hope to witness schools flourpoor may be enabled to give their children, what they were unable themselves to procure—an education.

Hifalutin.

The Raleigh Sentinel comes out with a great blow over the Abbott-Engelhard correspondence. That editor is the last man in the world to talk about bravery, as his fear of assassination in the Court room in a Western county plainly shows. He is not out of the woods yet, and had better be very cautious how he conducts himself.

The Abbott-Engelhard affair was settled amicably, honorably and we believe satisfactorily to both parties, and we refer to the gentlemen on both sides who signed the final correspondence for the truth of what

WE see that the New Jerseyites are again astonished and sensationed by fossils of immense size found in their marl beds. Bones eight feet long and eight inches in diameter were turned out to the wonder gazers, while ribs of immense size and two pound teeth excited the attention of the geologists. Just wait until we open some of our marl beds, and we will show larger bones, and more of continue to be controlled, and considering | them, than be piled in little New Jersey. Ac for " fossils " they are indigenous to this soil, and are daily seen stalking about the streets and looking for the Democratic party.

We greatly miss the "twinklings" of the to take part in the meeting they convoke at funny man the Star. Has the Raleigh Pike frightened him into shoal water?

With One "G."

Did we not declare that the possession of the ballot would instantly change "the lazy ignorant nigger" into an honored American citizen, in the opinion of the Democrats? Behold, it comes to pass, even as was predicted. The Virginia papers amuse us greatly by their change of tone. We find the following choice morsels in that oldfashioned advocate of States' rights, secession and a white man's government," the Richmond Whig:

"Our Colored Allies .- In the bustle and excitement of election day, and in our eagerness to collect and arrange the election news on the night of that memorable day, we could not find time to make, in our issue of success of our cause. We now thank them in the name of their white fellow citizens, They are brave and true men, who deserve our respect, confidence and affection." "From this day forward it may be confidently asserted that the white and colored people of Virginia will in the main act to-It is a question for the future about many gether. The blood line which has attempted to be drawn has left but faint traces that P. M. without reference to race or color."

Any man can see that the "white man's government" idea is effectually and forever played out." "Ole Virginny neber tire." but the Virginia Democracy are tired of being left out in the cold or voted down at elections. Thus the Richmond Examiner and Enquirer says:

"The Democratic papers at the North have committed a very grave error in ascribing this great victory to the "Virginia Democ-No resurrectionary process could bring that party to life, and its ashes he mingled with, and undistinguished from, that of the old Whig party.'

No paper in the country is better qualisuch a thing exists, than the Enquirer. When that paper declares that its party is annihilated-that "its very bones have rotracy boiled down was negro-hating. Negro following property: suffrage has made negro-hating a failure. Therefore Democracy ceases to exist, and its "very boncs now crumble at the touch, while its ashes lie mingled with those of the old Whig party." With reason the Bloomington Pantagraph cries.

vass in Virginia and the present canvass in other Southern States for proof. They no longer spell negro with two gs! There is that much gained. And it is fair to presume that the improved orthography is accompanied with a similar improvement in the enfranchised colored men. "Nigger" is a term of derision. It means a chattel, past their reply should both be dated August or present, of a genus intermediate between the human and simian races, black, lazy, and thievish, and emittinn an effluvium very offensive to Southern olfactories. But spelled with one g-negro-it means an American citizen of African descent. And this American citizen of African descent possesses the ballot: that is, he counts one in deciding who shall have the offices."-St. Louis Dem-
