T'D,-Owing to the press of advertisements we were unavoidably debarred space tor the mention of the presentation of a china tea service to Capt. J. Fitzgerald, of the Police department in our last. The following remarks were made by Capt. Fitzgerald in reply to those of officer Wilson in presentation:

GENTLEMEN : - Whether I take T. with t or leave it out, it is imma te-rial. I thank you for this china tea set; and why should tion to a second vote. The vote was I not, for sir, does not tes come from China, ergo, sir, this is a china sett. Which looks as if it will always set, whether I am determined so or not. Your spokesman sir, has rightly said I am impartial. For, I ever sir have strove to secure two prisoners, when I knew one would answer, thereby giving them fits ! Gentlemen I again thank you, hoping that in the future it shall be as in the past.

The committee returned and reported manimously in favor of Silas N. Martln. After the adoption of the committee report, and thereby virtually nominating Mr. Martin, Mr. Sweat moved for a reconsideration of the vote, as he misunderstood the vote and thereby did not vote understand ingly. Seconded by Mr. Hill and submitted to the House, and here arising an inadvertence, Mr. Rourk declared the Secretary had incorrectly reported the vote, upon which Mr. Hill readily submitted the acSTATE
