See every vote!

Mechanics and laboring men, if the Democrats carry the Convention the law by which you can force payment for your work, will be abolished.

The Committee then went into the selection of a suitable person to fill the vacancy, and it was unanimously resolved that the name of George Z. French, Esq., of Pender County be substituted for that of Judge Russell.

A MECHANIC.

We commend to the mechanics and laboring men of Wilmington the communication to be found in another column signed "Mechanic". The truths that are there told cannot be controverted, and are such that the serious attention of every poor man must be arrested.

We are personally acquainted with this writer, and know him to be one of the most sensible, industrious, and thoughtful men in this community. A man who works at his business every day, and a constant reader of the Post and other papers, and is thoroughly posted in the politics of the day. Read what he says.

The Convention of 1861 cost the people of North Carolina over twenty thousand lives. Hundreds of poor men are now holding slaves over the land, some with a few, others with out an arm, and many broken down in health.

Widows and orphans are to be found in every neighborhood.

All this is the result of Democratic rule.

Their cry is "peculiar secession."

The same spirit that animated the Democratic party in 1861 is now rampant in their ranks.

They led us through seas of blood for four years, and it allowed will lead us again to destruction.

They threatened in 1861 to tear down the pillars of the Federal Constitution, they now put forth the same threat in regard to our State Constitution. There is only one way to defeat them, and that is by a bold and determined resistance to their tyranny. Let the last try be "Poor Constitutional."

The cost to the people of the State of the Democratic party control of the Convention will be enormous. To do it now amounts to millions.

It should be remembered that in the first place, the election of delegates, besides involving a considerable expense, will cause much loss of time to our farmers in this busy season. If the Convention is not controlled by Republicans

the body will probably be so soon as we well see that the Supreme Court remains undisturbed.

Our Department in the concession has voted a sum of $5,000 instead of $10,000 for the consideration of the Democrats in their concession.

They have however, thus completely expressed themselves against all the provisions.

Be sure of electing at the polls.

We think you do not know enough to elect your own representatives, and judge, vote for the Convention, and if you do, you will give this work to the Democrats. The candidates of the Democratic party in Wake county openly advocate this doctrine, and they would have it if they thought the people would sustain them.

When the Democratic speakers (who are mostly lawyers) undertake to prove they are Honest men, ask them if the Homestead is good against old debts, and of such is the opinion of the Democratic lawyers. Pin them to the answer. Do not let them dodge. The trick is to reorganize the Supreme Court

and then have it decide that the Homestead

is not good against debts contracted prior to 1868.

OUR CANDIDATES.

The Executive Committee of the Republican party of New Hanover and Pender counties met yesterday morning to take action on the matter of the resignation of Judge Russell as a candidate from this county for the Convention.

Judge Russell's letter (which was published in the Post of last Sunday) was read, and, on motion, his resignation was accepted.

The Committee then went into the selection of a suitable person to fill the vacancy, and it was unanimously resolved that the name of George Z. French, Esq., of Pender County be substituted for that of Judge Russell.
