PIUS IX.

The Pope who has held his position on the Papal throne longer than any of his predecessors died on the 7th of February in the 86th year of his age and the 32d of his occupancy of the chair of St. Peter. He was born at Sinigaglia and his name was Giovanni-Maria Mastai-Ferretti, and was of noble blood. He was at first educated to the profession of arms and entered the Papal Guards, but afterwards studied theology and entered the priesthood. He was elected Pope on the 16th of June, 1846. He commenced his reign with deeds of charity and liberality. He gave to the Jews in his domain all the privileges of Christian fathers and masters. He paid the Papal debt. And devoted himself to the intellectual and material improvement of the working classes. He created a free press. He caused the marshes on the Tiber to be drained. He made free ports. He became so popular that he could not go into the streets of Rome without receiving ovations. He enforced discipline among his dignitaries.

When the state of Europe became disturbed by the progress of liberal principles Pius Nono fell into a more conservative course. At last he was obliged to flee from Rome in disguise, and lived a while an exile. He returned and resumed his functions at Rome, but soon found himself stripped of all temporal power, and Rome the capital of the new kingdom of Italy.

He was on the whole one of the best of all who have sat on the Papal throne, and it will be difficult to fill this office which exercises such a vast influence on mankind with a man as able and kind as he has been.

There is a sort of retributive justice in the election of Mr. Fishblate, a Democratic Jew, Mayor of this city. When the Democrats got up the gerrymandering bill, under which a city which was Republican by 1,500 majority, was saddled with a Democratic government, the rascality was defended on the ground that the city must be in the control of "our own people." There is consequently now a great deal of squirming and cursing among the faithful. Until the Constitutions made by the Republican in 1868 a Jew could neither hold office nor even vote in this state. Now, "the stone that was rejected by the builders has become the head of the corner."

Mr. Fishblate's politics is the only thing against him. Though a Democrat, we believe that he has liberality enough to do his duty by all classes of our citizens. We take pleasure in congratulating our Israelitish fellow-citizens, particularly on the elevation of an Israelite to the chief magistracy of the city. He is the first Jew that has ever been elected to any official position in North Carolina, therefore the honor is more to be appreciated by him.

Two Ways to Matrimony; or Is This Love, or False Pride. A book for ladies and gentlemen, as well as for mothers, fathers, and for all those contemplating matrimony, or in wedlock, is published this day by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, and makes the fourteenth volume issued of "Peterson's Dollar Series of new and good books," which are the largest, the best, and handsomest, as well as the cheapest books ever published and sold at one dollar each, for they are as large and as handsome as any books issued at $1.75 or $2.00 each. This is a book that should be read by all ladies and gentlemen, by all mothers and fathers, and by all those contemplating matrimony or now in wedlock. "Two ways to matrimony; or is it love, or is it false pride," as well as all other volumes in the series, are published in one large duodecimo volume elegantly and substantially bound in velum and embossed in gold and black, price one dollar each, and will be found for sale by all booksellers. For sale at Heinsberger's Live Book and Music Store, Wilmington, N. C.

The more scientific medicine frees itself from the false theories of the past, the brighter appear the virtues of Dr. Harter's Liver Pills and Dr. Harter's Fever and Ague Specific.

Military—Washington's Birthday.—Companies A and B of the 5th Battalion N. C. S. Guard, will have dress parade at the base ball ground, corner of Sixth and Orange streets, on the 22d of February, at 2 p. m., that being Washington's birthday, Lieut. Col. George L. Mabson commanding.

The Health Reformer for February is replete with useful information on a variety of topics in addition to invaluable instruction on the subject of health. The articles in the present number on the treatment and prevention of diphtheria are worth many times the subscription price, which is only $1.00 a year. Published at Battle Creek, Mich.

In a portion of our Wilmington play-going audiences, instead of showing their appreciation by the clapping of hands, resort to thumping on the floor with canes and boot heels, and occasionally some fellow whistles with an indecency worthy of the old Bowery.—Can't we get rid of these ill-mannered demonstrations? When that evil is cured it is possible that those occupying seats in the rear of the orchestra may be induced to take their hats off during the play.

Sudden Death of a Prominent Citizen of Beaufort, N. C.—Mr. Isaac Ramsey died very suddenly at his residence in Beaufort, N. C., on Wednesday last, so his son-in-law, Rev. E. A. Yates, was informed by telegraph. Mr. Ramsey was one of the leading citizens of Carteret county, and one of the wealthiest. He was at the time of his death about 80 years of age; notwithstanding his great age he was the most active business man in the town of Beaufort. Being one of the founders of the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad, he served as one of its directors from the time the company organized up to a few months of his death. He was the father of nine children, but they all died before him, except Mrs. Yates, wife of the honored pastor of Front Street M. E. Church of this city.

Fines, Forfeitures and Penalties.—We learn from official showing that Joseph C. Hill, Justice of the Peace, has collected from fines in petty cases, adjudicated by him during the last eighteen months, the sum of $171.48, to use of the school fund, and has paid the same over the proper officials. We are informed that this amount is nearly equal to that of all the other Justices combined, for the same period. A good showing.

DR. WILSON'S SERMON ON HELL.—The First Presbyterian Church was completely packed on last Sunday evening by an audience gathered to listen to the views of the Pastor upon eternal punishment. The sermon occupied an hour and ten minutes, and its reasonings, not venturing into the regions of philosophical speculation, vindicated the declarations of the Bible, as leaving no shadow of doubt as to the existence of a Hell as well as a Heaven, both being of equal duration, and each equally well defined. All this was enforced with an accuracy of exegetical scholarship, a grace of rhetoric, and a fertility of illustration which lifted the speaker upon the most elevated plane of lofty speech. The old Calvinistic fortress seemed to have opened from all its embrasures and ramparts, and to have thundered defiance at the modern heresies which were investing it.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—The Board of Aldermen met at the City Hall on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock, pursuant to motion made by Alderman Hill at the last meeting, to elect an Alderman and Mayor, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. John Dawson, which had been accepted to take effect last evening.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.
Alderman Volders moved to reconsider the acceptance of Mayor Dawson's resignation.

Alderman Hill moved to lay the motion on the table. Lost.
Mayor Dawson asked leave to make a statement in connection with the motion, to the effect that only the demands of his private business affairs had caused him to resign, and that although he regretted very much being compelled so to act, he must adhere to his original intention, and would insist on the acceptance of his resignation.

The motion was accordingly withdrawn.
Alderman Myers offered the following resolutions, which were carried unanimously:

WHEREAS, The Executive Chair of the city having been made vacant by the resignation of the Hon. John Dawson,

Resolved, That we, the members of this Board, desire to express our regrets at his leaving us, and to place upon record our high appreciation of his official services and his uniform kindness and courtesy to the members of this Board.

Resolved, That we accept his resignation unwillingly, feeling that we should miss his counsel and experience in managing the affairs of our debt-ridden city.

Resolved, That these resolutions be placed among the city records, and that the City Clerk present a copy to the retiring Mayor.

Alderman King moved that the Board now proceed to elect an Alderman. Carried.
Alderman Volders nominated Mr. Chas. H. Robinson; Alderman Foster, Mr. Geo. Chadbourne; Alderman Myers, Mr. Owen Fennell; Alderman Bowden, Mr. W. P. Oldham; Alderman King, Mr. S. H. Fishblate; and Alderman Hill, Mr. Edward Kidder.

The Mayor appointed Alderman Bowden and Foster tellers, and directed the Board to prepare their ballots.
The first ballot resulting as follows: Robinson 2, Fennell 1, Chadbourne 4, Oldham 2.
No one candidate having received a majority of all the votes cast, the Chair declared there had been no election and instructed the tellers to proceed to another ballot.
The second ballot resulted: Robinson 3, Oldham 1, Fishblate 1, Kidder 4. No election.
Preparations were then made for the third ballot and the following result announced: Fishblate 5, Fennell 1, Robinson 2, Foster 1.

Mr. S. H. Fishblate having received the necessary majority was declared an Alderman of the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Dawson then spoke, briefly reviewing the history of his administration and complimenting the officials under him, and after again thanking the members of the Board for their uniform courtesy, withdrew.
Alderman Foster moved that Alderman Flanner be made temporary Chairman. Carried.

Alderman Volders and Lowery, on motion of the latter, were appointed a committee to escort the newly elected Alderman to his seat.
The oath of office was then administered to Alderman Fishblate by Justice C. D. Myers and he was qualified. The Chair announced the election of a Mayor next in order.

Alderman King nominated Alderman Flanner, Alderman Volders nominated Alderman Bowden, Alderman Lowery nominated Alderman Fishblate, and Alderman Hill nominated Alderman Foster.

Alderman Bowden declined the nomination.
Three ballots were held as follows: First—Flanner, 3; Fishblate, 1; Foster, 4; Bowden, 2.
Alderman Bowden insisted that his name be withdrawn.

Second—Fishblate, 4; Flanner, 4; Bowden, 2.
Third—Fishblate, 6; Flanner, 3; Bowden, 1.
Alderman Fishblate was declared elected Mayor, and he was sworn in by Justice Myers.

On taking his seat the newly elected Mayor spoke briefly, thanking the gentlemen for the honor conferred.
On motion of Alderman Flanner, the Board then adjourned, subject to the call of the Chair.

A Gentle Hint.
In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Bosche's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing consumption, hemorrhages, pneumonia, severe coughs, croup or any disease of the throat or lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. German Syrup is now in stock in every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles for trial, 10c; regular size, 75c.
