The Wilmington S. F. E. will celebrate their anniversary to-day.

The body of an unknown man wa found at Hospital Cove, some three miles below the city on the 17th inst. The remains have not been identified.

Thomas Turney, brickmason, a resident of this city, has disappeared and invited to his wife, Mrs. Margaret C. Turney, is meeting. distressed at his unusual absense, and exceedingly anxious to learn of his whereabouts.

ANOTHER MURDER .- The unfortunate result of a quarrel between Lewis addressed to THE WILMINGTON Davis and Samuel Robinson, on the 9th inst., has resulted in the death of Davis. The Coroner's jury found that Robinson inflicted the wound that caused the death of Davis, and he will be tried in the courts for murder.
