SENATOR A. S. M ERRIMON.

As no other paper in this city has had they manliness to publish the "card" of Senator Merrimon in full, and as his own party papers will not give him a fair deal and let him be heard, we publish to-day, his "card" in full. for the benefit of our readers.

The Senator strikes out boldly, and has dealt Gov. Zeb. Vance several severe blows over his eyes that have completely blinded him. So much so, it is said, that he is unable to reply, and from present appearances, he will not receiver in time to enter the Senatorial ow in December next.

Senator Merrimon is a scientific polical fighter, and who ever undertakes to deal with him, has to receive more raining than "our Zebt" has had, We advise a careful examination the Senators defence, as he calls it.

From Our Regular Correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C.; JUNE 20TH, 1878.

Congress has adjourned for the summer. What has it accomplished ? In the days of the French revolution the convention had a custom of rewarding men who had done the state some great service by passing the resolution "He deserves well of his country." The Republican party should pass the formal resolution that this Democratic House deserves well of the Republican party. R commenced life with loud promises to do great things. It was to expose the terrible corruption of the Republicin party. Glover's committee caught only Democrats. So great was his succoss in this line that he was openly jeered at by his party friends, and the organ of the Democracy in this city bluntly told him that he was sent out to expose Republican rascality, not Democratic. But every haul he made had only this one result : More Democrats,
