GREENBACKERS.

Why any Republican should join the Greenbackers we are unable to see. The Republican party is the Greenback party. They issued the greenbacks. The Democrats have always voted against greenbacks.

The Democrats nominated Greeley for the purpose of getting the colored votes. They tried many other plans but they have failed in each. Now they are trying the Laboring Greenback dodge. We'tell them they cannot fool the colored people, for the veil that covers their new undertakening is too thin, notwithstanding the fact that they are using persons who heretofore belonged to the Republican party. We again warn the colored people to be careful of their old enemies.

MORE FINE PROMISES FROM SENATOR LAMAR -THE SHOT GUN POLICY POLITICS.

[Special Correspondent to the Post ]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16th, 1878. Judge Tarbell, First Comtroller of the Treasury, is one of the northern born men who found it healthful to leave Mississippi after the shot gun election of 1875. The story now comes that Senator Lamar has assured Mr. Tarbell and other prominent Mississippians that his course henceforward will be in opposition to what is known as the "shot gun policy" in that state, and against all violence at clertions and persecution of voters. He is also represented as saying that be occupies this attitude in the mind of the north and he means to stand by it. The same people of no little faith who put for h this story also believe that a division of the the Democratic party is inevitable soon. All that is needed is to have somebody take the lend. This sounds well. It is no new thing for Scuato Lamar to talk for the ears of the north and he has heretofore found them re-markably large and as open as large.

It really means war on Gov. ernor Hampton and his policy. As an offset to this, Governor Hampton has aused the arrest of Kimpton, the Treasurer of the state during Republi caus rule. This step really means renewal of the war on Senator Patteron, whom General Butler is pledged to defend At the same time the most solemn pledges of future protection and preferment have been made to the Republicans, and every effort was ma to secure from the conservative portion of the late state republican convention in endorsement of Governor Hampto who wants to be Senator Patternon accessor. This gentleman was at lane May with his family when he was ulvised of Kimpton's arrest in Westjold, Massachusetts. He at once took somewhat hasty leave of his family.
