Third Congressional District.

FOR MEMBER OF CONGRESS.

WILLIAM P. CANADAY.

Selected by the Republican Congressional Committee, at their meeting held at Fayetteville, Sept. 18th, 1878.

O. H. BLOCKER, Chairman Dist. Republican Com.

The WILMINGTON POST is opposed to a poll tax except for educational purposes.

The WILMINGTON POST is the organ of the laboring men, and will always stand up for their rights.

The WILMINGTON POST is in favor of State Banks like those which existed in North Carolina before the rebellion.

The WILMINGTON POST is in favor of the wealth of the country supporting the government by paying the taxes.

The WILMINGTON POST is the organ of the true Greenback party, and will always stand up for the honor of the greenbacks and all other obligations of the United States Government.

The WILMINGTON POST is in favor of repealing the tax on State Banks, so that we can have private corporations banks every city and town in the state. Then we will have prosperity in the land.

The WILMINGTON POST is in favor of the wealth of the country supporting the government, and paying its debts by paying the taxes. It is opposed to the laboring men paying exorbitant poll taxes for the purpose of relieving wealthy property owners. No poll tax should be levied except for educational purposes.

The platform of the Wilmington Post, as published above, is the proper one for every working man in the district. We have received a great many letters endorsing it, from the laboring men.

GREENBACK CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS—WHAT CAPT. FRANK WOOTEN SAYS—REPUBLICANS WHO ARE JOINING THE GREENBACK PARTY WILL DO WELL TO EXAMINE.

From the Raleigh Observer.

FRANK WOOTEN—COL. WADSWORTH'S DISTRICT.

The following gained circulation that Col. Frank Wooten intends to oppose Col. A. M. Waddell for Congress in the third District on the greenback platform, and knowing the deep interest manifested in him by the large number of his personal and political friends, not only in the third District, but throughout the State, a reporter of the Observer interviewed the Captain in order, if possible, to get the facts in the case.

The interview took place in the city of Wilmington, Monday morning, and in reply to the question: Have you any objection to an interview with reference to the report of your probable becoming a candidate for Congress against Col. Waddell? Capt. Wooten answered that he had no objection whatever, and was glad of an opportunity to set himself right, as the many reports about him were doubtless put in circulation in order to bring reproach upon him.

Without going into questions and answers in detail, Capt. Wooten said he was not a candidate, neither did he expect to be, that he was too true to the principles of others in defeating the Democratic candidate, whose party, personally and paragon were so nearly identical with the so-called greenback party. He said that he had been urged to become a candidate, and while a seat in Congress was a position of great honor and distinction, it is not his principle above all this, and would not by any act of his jeopardize the interests of the Democratic party with which he had identified himself.

This announcement will be received with pleasure and delight throughout the entire district.

What Republicans after reading the above can continue longer in the greenback party? Capt. Wooten, the President of the Greenback organization, says it is Democratic in principles. Can you go that, Republicans?

HARBOUR MASTER'S REPORT.—From Capt. Joseph Price, Harbour Master, we have the following report of the arrival of vessels at this port, &c., for the month of September:

At the Mozart Saloon, Capt. J. M. McGowan, is dispensing with his usual skill and politeness, the latest drinks of the season. The windows are attracting attention. We visited the saloon during the past week, on business, and know whereof we speak. The proprietor, Mr. Har, says he will add additional attractions and will let the readers of the Post hear from him through their columns.

From dispatches received in this city on Friday, from Memphis, we regret to learn of the death of Mr. Jas. Archibald McCallum, who our readers will recollect left our city last month for Memphis, as a volunteer nurse. A letter received by his mother about a week ago, stated that he was enjoying good health, and the announcement of his death on Thursday, was as unexpected as sudden. We tender our sincere sympathy to his bereaved mother and sister.

BUFFALO BILL.—The appearance of the Buffalo Bill Combination at the Opera House on Friday and last evening drew forth large and appreciative audiences. The performances were excellent and the different parts in the play, "May Cody; or, Lost and Won," well sustained. The hero, Buffalo Bill, shows, by his acting, that he "has been there," and that upon the mimic stage he is but re-enacting what he has experienced in real life. His exhibitions of skill in handling the rifle were really remarkable, and we would not give much for the life of man or beast that he "put up at" and pulled trigger upon. The real Indians gave an insight into their home customs which was alone worth the price of admission. The troupe is one of the very best, and well deserving of patronage.

COMMERCE OF THE PORT.—The following items of interest, giving an idea of the business of Wilmington with foreign ports for the month of September just closed, are compiled from the books in the Custom House:

Duty on imports, in gold $3,639 62
Duty on tonnage, in currency 2,903 85
Currency from other sources 451 00

Total collections $6,994 47

Exports.—The exports for the month include 80,570 barrels rosins, 700,070 gallons spirits turpentine, 217 barrels tar, 286,218 feet lumber, 613,888 shingles, and miscellaneous articles to the value of $255,399.

During the same period sixty foreign vessels have been entered as arriving at this port, and forty-six have cleared for foreign ports.

This is a pretty fair exhibit for one month.

Lord Dufferin opened the Provincial Exhibition at Toronto, Canada, with an eloquent address, which he said was the last public speech he would make in this country.

The Republican papers in North Carolina, and the places they are published at, are as follows:

Register, Raleigh; Carolinian, Elizabeth City; Spirit of the South, Rockingham; American Statesman, New State, Greensboro; Pioneer, Asheville; Republican, Winston; Post, Wilmington.

The Liver is King, the imperial organ of the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the western continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

AMUSEMENTS.—The following parties are booked to appear at the Opera House this season:

Pat Templeton Alliance, Oct. 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th.

Albert W. Aiken, in the "Witches of New York," Nov. 1st and 2d.

Madame Reni's Female Minstrels, Nov. 6th.

Louise Pompey, Nov. 12th and 13th.

Katie Putnam, Nov. 16th.

Ada Richmond, Dec. 9th and 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Knight, Dec. 12th.

Lotha, Dec. 13th and 14th.

Mrs. Chantrel, Jan. 8th.

Fifth Avenue Combination, Jan. 23d and 24th.

Mrs. Jas. A. Oats, Feb. 8th.

Others will probably name dates and make engagements in a short time. Contrary to a published rumor, we learn that no engagements South have been made by Miss Mary Anderson as yet.

Several companies have cancelled their engagements on account of the prevalence of yellow fever on the Southern circuit.

The following statistics will show the difference between the business of this Port and that of Norfolk, Va.:

Norfolk: Sept., 1877, 763 bales Cotton received.

Norfolk: Sept., 1878, 2,916 bales Cotton received.

An increase of 2,153 bales.

Wilmington: Sept., 1877, 2,464 bales Cotton received.

Wilmington: Sept., 1878, 9,728 bales Cotton received.

An increase of 6,264 bales.

In September, 1877, 3 vessels cleared for foreign ports, with cargoes valued at $35,887 77.

In September, 1878, 1 vessels cleared for foreign ports with cargoes valued at $9,190, a decrease of $26,738 77.

In September, 1877, 19 vessels cleared for foreign ports from Wilmington, with cargoes valued at $168,992.

In September, 1878, 46 vessels cleared for foreign ports, with cargoes valued at $336,968, an increase of $267,976.

In September, 1877, there were 15 entries of vessels with an aggregate tonnage of 4,923 tons, at the Custom House, in this city, and 19 clearances, with an aggregate tonnage of 6,038 tons. In September, 1878, there were 57 entries, with an aggregate tonnage of 17,791 tons, and 46 clearances with an aggregate tonnage of 13,875 tons, an increase of 42 entries and 12,998 tons, and 27 clearances and 7,837 tons. We are unable to give the number of arrivals and clearances in the port of Norfolk for the same time.

It will be seen from the above, that while Norfolk had an increase of only 2,153 bales of Cotton received over 1877, that Wilmington had an increase of 6,264 bales; an increase of 1,631 bales in favor of Wilmington, and while Norfolk had a decrease of $26,738 77 in valuation of foreign exports, that Wilmington had an increase of valuation of foreign exports of $267,976, and an increase of 27 vessels that cleared for foreign ports to 1 for Norfolk. This certainly speaks volumes in favor of the business growth of our city, and is a grand refutation of the charges that our seacoast cities are declining in population and business strength.

It is a fact well established by an undeniable testimony that Half's Hair Renewer restores, cleanses, brightens, invigorates and restores to its original color and lustre, faded gray or discolored hair, cheaply, quickly and surely. The poorest people prefer to buy it and, use it, rather than to procure in a manner more forcible than words can delineate, through blanched locks or grizzly beard, that they are aged and passing to decay. A very short trial will convince the most skeptical that it does eradicate the only disease which robs the hair of its color and life.—For See (Am.) Daily Monitor.

GLOVER AS A HUNTER.

His Wonderful Success in Catching Democrats.

We clip the following from the National Republican of April 27th:

GLOVER, Congressman from Missouri last fall—Just give me a chance at these Republican robbers; I'll catch 'em as fast as you can catch minnows!

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS—Very well; there you go; lots of traps, firearms and ammunition. Now let's see you make capital for our party.

GLOVER (enthusiastically)—Oh, you bet I'll do it, gentlemen! I'll catch the Black Republican plunderers. "Set a glove to catch a thief," you know the maxim remarks. Ha! ha!

Three months pass, and finally out of the dull rumber comes a voice.

GLOVER—I've got him! I've got him! DEM. CONGRESS—Got who? Got who? GLOVER—Got a fellow! Caught him stealing.

DEM. CONGRESS—Hurrah! Hurrah! Is it Hayes?

GLOVER—No. It's one of the Clerks of the House.

DEM. CONGRESS—Re-publican?

GLOVER—No. Democrat, but unfortunately—O h!

GLOVER (two weeks later)—Here he is! I got another fellow!

DEM. CONGRESS—Hurrah! Hurrah! Stealin'!

GLOVER—Re-culation! Wasted lots of money.

DEM. CONGRESS—Hurrah! That's a good haul, Republican!

GLOVER—No—he's a Democrat—Your Doorkeeper.

DEM. CONGRESS—Approximately but not exactly. Uh—uh—uh—here, Glover—next time you catch a Republican!

GLOVER—Y—yes, I will.

GLOVER (A month later)—Ah! I got him! Ketched him stealin'! Stole $10,000 from contingent fund! I got him!

DEM. CONGRESS—Hue—Republican, Glover?

GLOVER—Uh—ah—a well—this 'un—no—he's a—he's a Democrat—a—he's a member of Congress.

DEM. CONGRESS (going for him wrathfully)—One of us you undiscriminating scoundrelly Fuke?

GLOVER—Y—yes—I—I couldn't help it! It's one of you'uns!

They shake him up till some of his teeth are heard rattling round in his pocket, and his collar bone loosens, when he gets angry.

GLOVER (Three days later)—I got him now! I ketched him in the very act of stealin' and we got the money away from him—$5,000!

DEM. CONGRESS—(Grimacing)—You infernal spy and poth—on! O h! it is a Democrat!

GLOVER (Holding the door open, ready to run, his face flushed with shame, and a great bead of perspiration standing on the outside of his hat)—Oh, good gentlemen, spare me! spare me! (turning to run and letting his prisoner go, as he holds a shower of ink-balls and cap-squibs) It's the Democratic Sergeant-at-Arms.

FOURTEEN DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS (pulling down their vests and shouting above the tumult)—I move that the office of Investigation be declared vacant!

Passed, nem. con.
