GENERAL POLITICAL.

It seems that the three colored men to the Legislature of South Carolina have saved the state from a resolution which would have repudiated the entire state debt and the vote was so close that the three colored votes turned the scale. They voted against repudiation and saved the honor of the state.

Five members of the present Congress have already died—Welch, of Nebraska; Leonard, of Louisiana; Quinn of New York; Williams, and Douglass, Riddle, of Tennessee, has been taken home in a condition bordering on insanity, but his friends think he will be restored by rest and medical treatment. Another southern Congressman is under treatment for delirium tremens.

Senator Eastis, of Louisiana, stated in the Senate a few days ago that no witness who was summoned before the Blaine committee would be intimidated, but could testify with perfect safety and freedom. Now it turns out that every witness who has started for New Orleans under a subpoena has been murdered. A mob boarded the steamer Caledonia on the river, took off a batch of witness and ruthlessly murdered them. This information has been telegraphed by officers to the attorney General at Washington.

The state Canvassing board, at Tallahassee has completed the canvass, and gave a certificate to Hull (Dem.) his majority being thirteen. This result was arrived at by throwing out Brevard county, which gave a Democratic majority, on the ground that the returns were fraudulent, and Madison county, which gave a Republican majority, on the ground that one precinct was not included in the returns from that county. The Brevard county Canvassing Board has been indicted by the grand jury for making a fraudulent return, and its members are in jail in default of $300 bail each.

Judge Porter, First Comptroller of the Treasury, has decided that the appropriations contained in the second section of the act of June 10, last, entitled "An act to provide for the expenses of the select committee on alleged frauds in the late Presidential election," was, by the terms of that act, made applicable only to the expenses of such committee as might be appointed by the Senate to investigate alleged frauds in connection with the Presidential election, and not to defraying the expenses of the committee appointed under the Blaine resolution. Consequently, until Congress reassembles and makes an appropriation for defraying the expenses of the committee, but little can be done.

Having secured control of the Government of the state, the Democratic Legislature now in operation at Montgomery has enacted laws which seek directly to drive the colored people to the wall. This partisan Legislature has passed an act, applying to all the large colored counties solely, that no man shall sell a pound of seed cotton, or any lint cotton, in quantities of less than 300 pounds. In nearly all the colored counties white owners of farms have rented their lands to colored farmers, generally at very low rates, for otherwise the colored man would purchase land of his own. The object of this law is to force the colored farmers to divide their crops with the white owners from whom they have rented lands, in addition to paying in money. Under this law the colored farmer must get the white man to sell his cotton for him, for it is only the negro who is punished for selling seed-cotton—not the white man.

Colored children have virtually been driven from the public schools. Not a colored man now holds an office in the state; he is not permitted any more to sit on a jury, nor is he even allowed to participate in any manner in government. The negroes have been robbed of their right to vote by the thousands, and the increased representation in Congress allowed the colored citizens has been usurped and stolen by the Democratic party. In Alabama the Republicans are systematically oppressed by local judicial machinery to such an extent that they no longer attempt to take any part in public affairs or political contests.

LATEST NEWS.

It is reported that 600 deaths daily are occurring in north Brazil from the sun-dry pox.

Col. Fred Grant has received a leave of absence to accompany his father on his trip to Asia.

There is terrible distress in some portions of Great Britain among the laboring classes. Disturbances and riots are feared.

The government has $100,000,000 of gold in New York ready for resumption. The banks throughout the country are actually engaged in aiding the government in bringing about resumption.

There is trouble with Fitzsimons, the Democratic Marshal of Georgia, appointed on the recommendation of Senator Goggin. He is negligent in enforcing the law, and a sharp detective is on his track.

It is being ascertained that under existing law there were no funds to pay the expenses of the Blaine committee, that they have decided to await action till after the assembling of Congress, and then ask an appropriation. The cold spell at the north exerts anything known for the last twenty years. The Hudson river is nearly all closed, the Ohio is closed nearly down to Cincinnati, trains are obstructed by heavy snows, and the thermometer rapidly sinking. Several people have been frozen to death, including one ex-member of Congress.

STATE ITEMS.

They have put 30,000, California Salmon in the Yackia in Caldwell county.

State Treasurer Worth decides that cotton dealers shall pay the odious "privilege tax."

An effort is to be made to put the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line into the hands of receivers for a debt of $100,000.

Col. Kelley has been appointed supervisor of Internal Revenue of the 6th district in place of Daniel R. Goodloe removed.

Big hogs are increasing in number in this state. There are a great many reported weighing 300 pounds, one of 658 pounds, and one in Ireland weighs 1,073 pounds.

A monument to Hon. W. A. Graham has been erected in Ellboro. It is from the works of the N. E. Granite Company, Hartford Conn., and consists of five pieces of bluish white granite, resting upon a brick foundation, and is twenty feet high from the ground to the apex. Appropriate inscriptions adorn the north, east and west sides, the south side remaining smooth.

A gentleman has recently died in Eleton, named S. T. Bond, who traced his family back to the time of Queen Elizabeth, and who is connected with the Cottons and Hankins of Chowan. The Gentle says of him:

During the war he remained a firm and unwavering Union man without doing anything against his state or people, and accomplished much towards relieving the sorrows of war. There are many men in this section, who owe their release from Federal prisons to his kind offices and intercession, in many instances unknown to them; whilst on two occasions at least he was one of the principal mediators in preventing the bombardment and destruction of our beautiful town.

Gov Swain.

That good old man who filled so large a space in the hearts of the people of North Carolina, in his message to the Legislature in the year 1853, uttered words that were golden. His words which are as applicable now as they were then. This was the language of the venerable and revered sage.

The effect which his words produced upon the property of the state and the character of its citizens is apparent. There is in the state no commercial metropolis at which the interest of the community requires them to meet, and hence they are strangers to each other. The citizens of the West are familiar with the laws, the institutions, the politics and the towns of Tennessee, of South Carolina and Georgia. A few of them have visited New York and other eastern cities, but the individual is rare who possesses any accurate information with respect to Wilmington or Newbern. On our eastern border, Virginia is much more extensively known than the state which should be the great object of their attention; and on the south an extensive intercourse with Augusta, Savannah and Charleston has been maintained, but the intercourse which should create at home.

A man has been arrested in Horry county, S. C., who is thought to be Tom Johnson, the outlaw and desperado, for whom a reward of $100 is offered by the state. The sheriff of Horry doubting his authority to put him in jail let him loose. Sheriff Manning has written him to seize and hold the man for identification.

Christmas day was the quietest ever known in this city by the oldest inhabitant. There was a little fun at the corner of Market and Front, but the streets at 8 a. m., looked like Sunday. However, John Kooner finally came out—and the inevitable horns, and some people drank egg nog and eat good dinners.

The Postmaster General has issued an order to the effect that after January 6th every description of matter produced by the type writer, the electric pen or papyrograph process, shall be charged letter rates of postage. TWO GREAT FIRES.—On Sunday night a fire broke out in Southland's stables and the whole building together with the hay were consumed. Fortunately the horses, carriages and harnesses were all got out and saved—the horses being turned loose in the street. The fire did not spread to any extent to other buildings, although some were a little damaged. The loss of Mr. Southland was partially covered by insurance.

On Monday morning at 3:30 an alarm was sounded from the fourth district and it turned out to be the steamer Underhill lying at Pansley's wood and coal wharf. The wind was blowing a gale from the south-west, and the fire first spread on the wharf, then across Water street, and speedily to Front, taking down everything on the south half of the block up as far as Lippitt's ice house, and doing extensive damage. At one time the roaring flames threatened to cross Front, in which case the destruction of property would have been almost incalculable, because it would have passed beyond the control of the steam fire engine.

The sparks in great flakes filled the air and passed in showers of fire as far as seventh street, and at that distance set some buildings on fire. Total losses amounted to about $70,000. The losses were the Str. Underhill, fully insured, the str. North-East partially insured, the brick building of Mr. C. Stemmerman, insured for $4,000, and all the rest of the buildings destroyed being the property of J. E. Lippitt, with a loss of $17,000, insured for $7,300. P. Cummings & Co. lost about $4,000, insured for $5,400, Kinder & Sons lost about $10,000 of molasses, insured for $5,000, Adrian & Volens, with $1,000, insured for $1,000, H. B. Eilers, Robinson & King, B. D. Merrill, and a few others lost lightly.

Mr. O. G. Pansley Jr. lost everything, including the str. Underhill, 300 cords of wood, 700 tons of coal, &c., on which there was no insurance.

Mr. Omar D. Conger and wife, of Michigan, arrived at the Purcell House on Saturday morning. He is the member of Congress from the 7th District of Michigan, and is now on his fifth term, having also been elected to the forty sixth Congress. He is a Statesman who has enjoyed a wide experience, and is recognized as one of the ablest and firmest Republicans in the present House of Representatives. We learn that he is to remain here over to-day.

George Fox, the comedian, "Humpty Dumpty" died from paralysis attributable to the "flake-white," laid upon the face for his comic makeup. Let ladies cultivate only the pink and white of health that follow the use of Dr. Harter's Liver Pills and Iron Tonic.

The study of the English language has become a passion among the intelligent natives in India. Their mastery of it is wonderful. Here is a specimen. It is a letter written by a native military official to his commanding officer: Honored Sir—Having been amputated from my family for some years, and as I have complaints of the abdomen coupled with great conflagration of the intervals, and prostration of all desire for work, with also the disorganizing of my dinner, I hope your highness will excuse me attending at orderly room for ten or nine more days, and in duty bound shall ever pray for the salubrity of your temper and the enlargement of your family.—The commanding officer.

We stand at an open window looking far over the hills. And if something hadn't happened We might have stood there still; But we reached for a banging shutter In a blinding northeast breeze. So our friends will have to be invited To join in the obsequies.

IF WE COULD ONLY HAVE KNOWN what a storm was brewing (in a season) and how far off that storm was, we should never have ventured out head outside of that window; but it is too late for regrets now, we are disappointed, disappointed, squelched, have been snubbed, and our friends and the public generally are respectfully invited to attend the obsequies.

As he slips he slides, and every time he slides he slips up most wearily. We have searched his friends to find out the meaning of the above, and while they are doing so we will ask the following questions:

Have't we the ugliest and dirtiest store in the State?

Have't we the poorest stock of goods in Wilmington?

Have't we made prices much higher than we commenced?

Have't we been very unaccommodating and impolite to you?

Have't we charged you for all the goods delivered?

Have't we made a great many mistakes and refused to correct them when our attention was called thereon?

All of our friends who answer "yes" to the above questions will please not buy from us any more. Respectfully and truly,

NOT PURITANICAL.

Although opposed to the drinking of Liquors, P. L. BRIDGERS & CO. are not puritanical enough to refuse to sell them, as they think no virtuous citizen should be denied the pleasure of a drink. They will sell them at the lowest prices, and will be glad to supply you with any quantity you may desire.
