Jno. Davis and Hill James were tried the past week at Smithville for the murder of one Henry McDuffy, in Brunswick county some months ago, Hill James was acquitted, and John Davis was convicted of murder, and sentenced by the court to be hung on the 11th day of July next. Mr. E. Legg, the Ltar correspondent at Smith; ville, says in a communication to that paper that, "in the case of John Davis and Hill James, for the murder of DIED.-Mr. Benj. White, sr., one of Henry McDuffy, great interest was manifested by the people, and, while died on Friday last, in his 82 year. the main fact of the killing was not denied, the particulars of the ragedy, as detailed by witnesses, was of a mixed nature, to say the least, and, in one in. stance, not of a character to impress the public with the griefs of widowhood. Hill was acquitted, and put upon the stand, and more fully detailed the circumstances of the crime, the result being the conviction of Davis, notwithstanding he was ably and zealously defended by Messrs. Bellamy and Watts, who were assigned as counsel for the
