

POLITICAL.
The Greenbackers of Maine have put up a clean ticket on a distinct platform. Dennis Kearney held his Working-men's Convention at San Francisco on Monday last.

The Iowa Greenbackers seem to be a crazy set. Brick Pomeroy is one of their chief managers, and they endorsed Dennis Kearney.

The Democrats of Ohio have nominated General Thomas Ewing for Governor, and Gen. A. V. Rice for Lt. Governor, and a full state ticket. The Greenbackers met also at Columbus on the same day, Wednesday last, and nominated Gen. S. F. Cary for Governor, and Gen. A. S. Platt for Lt. Governor, and a clean state ticket. The character of the ticket indicate cooperation between the Democrats and Greenbackers.

The National Republican says:
The job was in the keeping of Senator Whyte and Congressman Singleton, the chairman of the Committee on Printing in their respective Houses. Senator Whyte had a Baltimore ring to serve, while Singleton is susceptible to influences such as ringsters know how to wield skillfully, and he knows how to accept gracefully. In this way the job was captured and conferred upon a Mr. Bell, of Baltimore. In other words the Baltimore Bell won the prize. That the affair is crooked there can be no doubt when the facts are known. The contract has been awarded to the Bell ring at $1.25 per 1,000 ems, a rate which will aggregate all the way from $5,000 to 15,000, according to the length of the session and the voluminousness of the proceedings.

The joint Democratic caucus have agreed on passing the three appropriation bills with the following reservations:

First—The Legislative bill of last year, with no political riders, but with the MacMahon proposition for paying the arrears of pensions out of the special fund for the redemption of fractional currency.

Second—A bill for expenses of court, which provides specifically for all cases, but makes no provision for the pay of supervisors or election marshals. It will also declare that none of the money appropriated shall be used for the payment of any persons appointed under title 26 of the Revised Statutes, which refers to supervisors and marshals of elections, and that no money appropriated in the bill for one purpose shall be used for any other purpose.

Third—The Army bill, with a provision that no money appropriated shall be used for the subsistence or transportation of troops "to be used as a police force to keep the peace at the polls."

Here is the style of man whom the Democrats of Florida have sent to Congress. When he heard that his Republican opponent, Bisbee, was elected he perpetrated the following morsel:

Fort Reid, Nov. 8, 1878.

Mr. Not Paying:
MY DEAR SIR—I have a dispatch saying Bisbee's majority is 971—Orange, Volusia, Brevard, and Dale to hear from. Now, as Orange and Volusia only give me 710 majority, I need a few more over 200 to come from Brevard and Dale to give me a majority in the district. Can that 200 be had? I would give anything if this could be accomplished. I leave for Jacksonville in the morning, by steamer Bird, to look after my interests there. If anything can be done, the cost of the trip is no consideration with me. Think of it.

Your friend,
N. A. Hull.

I am very much mortified at the vote of Orange and Volusia. If they had half performed their duty I should have been all O. K.

Caring for her Mistress.
From the Columbus (Ga.) Equivator, May 21.

We were told of a noble instance of devotion of a colored woman for her former mistress. Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, aged 73 years, died yesterday. In ante-bellum days she was well-to-do, and owned a number of slaves; but, as thousands of others, lost her all by the war. Among the slaves were a family of negroes whom Mrs. Rogers raised as she would her own children, and they were very much attached to her. The case of devotion which was told us was of one of this family, Laura Mitchell, who is well known in our city as a nurse. At present she is in the employ of Mr. C. E. Hochstrasser, and is a faithful servant. For 14 long years Laura has supported her old mistress. Her wages rarely amounted to more than $10 per month, and she has always given the whole to Mrs. Rogers. When in need of money herself, she would go to the old mistress and see if she could spare it. The dying charge of Laura's mother was "care for old missus," and faithfully she has done her duty. Laura employed a girl to wait upon Mrs. Rogers, as she could not do that duty herself, which there's not a doubt would have been more than a pleasure. At the news of her death, Laura was overwhelmed with grief, and not, as would be supposed, of money herself, but of an imbecillity. In this light she was never looked upon, but with the tenderest love a child could possess for a mother the old lady's wants were administered to by this colored woman. Not only did Laura purchase the coffin and bear the funeral expenses, but she had a photographer go to the house and take a photograph of old mistress.

Sentinel Chandler's last: The Washington (D. C.) Post (Dem.) accused Senator Chandler of being drunk when he was delivering his late speech in the Senate chamber, and then circulated the story that the Senator was going to sue the editor for libel. Mr. Chandler denies that he has any such intention. He says that he once knew a boy that was going home from Sunday School and found himself in unpleasant association with a drunk. The boy threw his Bible at the drunk, but he spoilt his book and did not hurt the animal.

People getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the
MEXICAN Mustang Liniment,
FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 35 years, until now it reaches the habitable globe. The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast. To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable. A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot rot, hoof ail, hollow horn, grub, scurf, sore, shoulder rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life. It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, awning, sprains, founder, windfall, ringbone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the home, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure. Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.
