LATE GENERAL NEWS.

The news from the California election comes in slowly on account of the large number of tickets, and the length of time it takes to count them. But it is good so far as it comes. Perkins, Rep. for Governor leads Gwin, Democratic, 25,000 votes in San Francisco. The Republicans are believed to have elected all their Congressmen and the legislature, and the Governor.

It is reported that Prof. Nordenskiold's expedition to the Arctic has reached Yokohama in Japan, via Behring Straits.

Probably some one of the "North Carolina policy men" can inform us when the stage of the Western & C. Railroad is to be changed to fixed foot, as to force the breaking of bulk.

There is said to have been but 42,000 New England in New Orleans, and only one now. In Memphis the fire is subsiding, but neither is showing any diminishing mark. They are out of money and are calling loudly for help.

Kings Cityways is reduced to terrible straits. His prime minister, two of his sons and three of his brothers have surrendered, and his head has been buried. King has only two or three followers with him.

A violent storm took place in New Orleans and Louisiana doing great damage.

The American Association for the Advancement of Science is in session at Saratoga. Tolson has given a detailed account of his involutions, and other important discussions have been held.

Mr. Sprague on Saturday week left Canoechit with her three daughters. It is not known where she is but it is rumored that she has taken refuge with some friends of her father in New England.

A illicit whiskey still has been discovered in the first ward in Washington city right under the nose of the treasury. They have arrested the owners, and they will be punished.

Sent the news to Uncle Sam in California has done and said this shall be a nation and not a confederation.

Send the news to the Red Shirts of South Carolina that California says no longer to the ballot box, stalling and shall stop forever.

Send the news to the Mississippi shot gun murderers. California declares in voice of Horner that every American shall have a right to vote in accordance with his own political opinion.

Interest to Tax Payers.

If any person fails to be charged with tax shall return to his tax and question respecting his property, or shall refuse to fill up and swear to his return, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be punished by fine not exceeding fifty dollars, imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, and it shall be the duty of the assessors to have the persons prosecuted. And every assessor and county commissioner shall have power to send for persons and experts and to examine witnesses and administer oaths.

The county commissioners shall meet in the abstract of the tax-list for each township the description and valuation of all property not given in, with the name of the persons supposed to be liable for a poll tax who failed to give themselves in, and shall charge all such persons with double the tax with which they would otherwise be chargeable, unless satisfactory excuse be rendered; and all persons who are liable for a poll tax and fail to give themselves in, and all persons who own property and wilfully fail to list it within the time allowed before the list taken and the county commissioners shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days.

Sec. 22. In all cases where the county commissioners shall have omitted to enter upon the duplicate of their county any land or town lots situated within their county, subject to taxation, it shall be their duty, when they enter the same on the duplicate of the next succeeding year, to add to the taxes of the current year the same taxes of every and every proceeding year in which such land or town lots shall

CALIFORNIA ELECTS A REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR BY 20,000 MAJORITY OVER DEMOCRAT GREENBACK AN "HONORABLE PILGRIM."

CALIFORNIA SENDS A FULL REPUBLICAN DELEGATION TO CONGRESS.

California elects a Republican Legislature. A grand and complete victory over the Greenback Democracy.

DEMOCRACY AND GREENBACK AGAIN SICK.

Only one child interred in Oakdale Cemetery during the week.

Marriage licenses were issued to one white and one colored couple during the week.

One, the famous correspondent of the N. S., is a beautiful blonde we understand.

Two children and one adult were interred in Pine Forest Cemetery during the past week.

We understand that Mr. J. L. O'Macks has sent in his application to become a member of the Elks Club.

HAKI COLLECTION.—A collection of very rare and beautiful ferns, shells, moss, bird wing and thistles shells have been on exhibition at Heinsberger's bookstore. It was made on the Pacific coast by Mr. Q. B. Davis of this city, who now is in the employ of the Government on the Shores of War Tidings on the Pacific.

There was no City Court Thursday morning in consequence of the indisposition of Mayor McFadden. Two cases only await trial, one the little vagrant Mike Foster, for disorderly conduct and the other, the case of a colored man who was arrested for being drunk.

Friday the Mayor interviewed Mike Peden, the little vagrant scamp and had him locked up for thirty days.

The case of drunk was dismissed.

BUCKLAWY.—The residence of H. W. J. Scott on the corner of Ninth and Red Cross streets was successfully burglarized on Sunday morning last. An entrance was effected through a back window. Mr. Scott has announced his intention to sue for damages in the U.S. for ten days, upon the charge of wearing apparel of less value. No property could be recovered.
