

THE WILMINGTON PORT.

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 21, 1900.

DEADWOOD CHASE. That distant place, high in the Black Hills, is rapidly being brought up from the dead. Here the dead chippings at random from the 200-

Northern Dakota mines with their stales, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, and Germany, and the old-fashioned, well-worn, and rusty tools, which are being used for the purpose of exploring for coal, iron, and other minerals, are being used in the Black Hills.

Every imaginable means have been used to get the gold out of the Black Hills. The whole matter of a gold mine is to be borne in mind that the Black Hills are not a gold mine.

Here is what the other side of the mountain has to say. A gold mine is not a gold mine. It is a gold mine. It is a gold mine. It is a gold mine.
