

The Wilmington Post.

Library of Congress

VOLUME XI.

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1880.

Single Copies 5 Cents

NUMBER 40.

WILMINGTON POST

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT WILMINGTON, N. C., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER

RATES OF ADVERTISING. Fifty cents per line for the first insertion and twenty-five cents per line for each additional insertion.

The subscription price to THE WILMINGTON POST is $1 00 per year; six months 75 cents.

County Ticket. For the Senate, HENRY E. SCOTT. For the House, WILLIAM H. WADDELL, JAMES WILSON.

General Robert B. Elliott of South Carolina, will address the citizens of New Hanover county, on the political issues of the day on Wednesday Evening, October 13th, 1880, at the head of the old market house.

There will be a GRAND TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION by the Boys in Blue and Ward Clubs, under command of Col. Mabson.

Attention Republicans!! General Robert B. Elliott of South Carolina, will address the citizens of New Hanover county, on the political issues of the day on

First Ward, Upper Division, residence of T. J. Herring, on west side of Sixth between Bladen and Harriet streets.

Second Ward, J. C. Munn's store on Front until about 10th, then at residence of J. C. Lunsford, Front street.

Third Ward, on Princess, second door from corner of Fourth street.

Fourth Ward, at W. P. Oldham's Mill, on Dock street.

Fifth Ward, J. M. Brown's store, corner Fifth and Castle streets.

Books to be open including the last day before election.

Canada and Shickelford, candidates for Congress, respectively, for this District, will speak jointly as follows:

Finner's Turnout, Brunswick county, on Wednesday, October 13th, at 12 o'clock noon.

J. S. Harrington announces himself as an independent candidate for the House of Representatives, in the State Legislature, for Harriet county.

F. S. Lutterloh of Cumberland county, is announced as an independent candidate for the House of Representatives from Cumberland.

William B. Duncan is announced as the independent candidate for the Senate from Carteret, Onslow and Jones counties.

John Noe, is the independent Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives, from Carteret county.

David S. Saunders of Beaufort, is the independent candidate for Sheriff for Carteret county.

Mr. John C. Becker is the independent candidate for Senator from Cumberland and Harriet counties.

GENERAL GARFIELD AND THE FREEMEN.

Mr. Smalley the Tribune Ohio correspondent gives a graphic account of the visit of the Jubilee Singers of the Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee.

He tells a simple and touching story which we copy nearly as it is told: I was at General Garfield's home in Mentor yesterday.

The family, with a few friends, were gathered in the parlor after breakfast, when two carriages drove up, filled with colored people.

They proved to be the Jubilee Singers from the Fisk University in Nashville, Tenn. Of course, they were all Republicans, and finding themselves, when in Painesville, so near the home of the Republican candidate, they came to call upon him.

General Allan Rutherford, now residing at Washington, where he is engaged largely in the practice of law, is on a visit to our city, and is a guest at the residence of J. H. Neff, Esq.

The Republican majority in Vermont, official, is 25,012, and Davis' majority, (Rep.) in Maine, 151.

Those people who have at any time moved in Army circles cannot fail to know what was the opinion of General Grant concerning Hancock.

The Tilston School, Miss Amy M. Bradley, Principal, opened its fall term on last Monday, with rather more than the usual number of scholars, and with the usual corps of teachers.

The Northern Times - 1st. Assistant Engineer Webber, of the U. S. R. M., has been detached from the Colfax at Wilmington, and ordered to temporary duty on the Rev. Cutter Stevens, on this station.

The yellow fever is at Key West a course, as it almost always is.

LATEST FACTS AND COMMENTS.

The hebdomadal slowness with which the Post can compete with the third editions of dailies, aided by wires which reach to the remote regions of Turkey...

A friend writes from Rock Hill, York county, S. C., that the Republicans met on the night of Oct. 1st, and after informal organization, couched up and found no organ.

In an article in the Post of last week entitled "Violation of Arrangements" we spoke of Major J. C. McKay when it should have been "Major J. C. MacRae."

The signal correspondent of Judge Baxton's speech in Casswell. After Judge Baxton's able speech, many of the old citizens gave him their warm hand of friendship.

Never, since the organization of the Republican party in Randolph county, was the prospect for a Republican victory better than now.

John B. Respess, candidate for election, has made a good speech in Beaufort county.

Dr. Worth the State Treasurer had the bad taste to speak of ex-Treasurer Jenkins as follows:

Dr. Worth followed, and said a great deal about the finances of the state, and how unaccountably well they had been managed in his hands.

Gov. Jarvis has wandered over into Virginia and in a speech at Danville trotted out his favorite right arm again.

The Democratic papers are pretending that Judge Baxton avoided Jarvis because he could not meet his arguments.

Gov. Jarvis has wandered over into Virginia and in a speech at Danville trotted out his favorite right arm again.

The Democratic Party judged by its history, Emory A. Storms, the success of the Electric Light, Thos. A. Edison; The Reins of Central America, Devereaux Charney; The Observance of the Sabbath, Rev. Dr. Leonard Bacon; Campaign of 1862, Judge D. Thew Wright; Taxation of Church Property, Rev. Dr. A. W. Pitzer.

Hon. James Wilson of Wilmington was next introduced, and discussed, the business condition and prosperity of the country, and the financial issues of the day, showing up the kluge of greenbackism and fiat money.

say that he spoke is enough, for he led the crowd "from grave to grave, from lively to severe."

The enthusiasm ran high and if the indications were any evidence of the temper of the people of ancient Brunswick, Garfield, Baxton and Canada will go out of the county with flying colors, and the whole county ticket weep with an increased majority.

Political--State.

A friend writes from Rock Hill, York county, S. C., that the Republicans met on the night of Oct. 1st, and after informal organization, couched up and found no organ.

In an article in the Post of last week entitled "Violation of Arrangements" we spoke of Major J. C. McKay when it should have been "Major J. C. MacRae."

The signal correspondent of Judge Baxton's speech in Casswell. After Judge Baxton's able speech, many of the old citizens gave him their warm hand of friendship.

Never, since the organization of the Republican party in Randolph county, was the prospect for a Republican victory better than now.

John B. Respess, candidate for election, has made a good speech in Beaufort county.

Dr. Worth the State Treasurer had the bad taste to speak of ex-Treasurer Jenkins as follows:

Dr. Worth followed, and said a great deal about the finances of the state, and how unaccountably well they had been managed in his hands.

Gov. Jarvis has wandered over into Virginia and in a speech at Danville trotted out his favorite right arm again.

The Democratic papers are pretending that Judge Baxton avoided Jarvis because he could not meet his arguments.

Gov. Jarvis has wandered over into Virginia and in a speech at Danville trotted out his favorite right arm again.

The Democratic Party judged by its history, Emory A. Storms, the success of the Electric Light, Thos. A. Edison; The Reins of Central America, Devereaux Charney; The Observance of the Sabbath, Rev. Dr. Leonard Bacon; Campaign of 1862, Judge D. Thew Wright; Taxation of Church Property, Rev. Dr. A. W. Pitzer.

Hon. James Wilson of Wilmington was next introduced, and discussed, the business condition and prosperity of the country, and the financial issues of the day, showing up the kluge of greenbackism and fiat money.

LAWS ABOUT VOTING.

Number of Boxes. Voters must bear in mind that there will be nine boxes, at the election on the 2nd of November, and that each person, who desires to vote in every box must have nine different tickets as follows:

- One for Governor and State officers. One for Presidential Electors. One for Member of Congress. One for Judges of the 4th and 5th Judicial Districts. One for Senator and Members of the House of Representatives. One for County officers. One for Township Constable.

Things to be noted. 1. The registration books will be kept open for revision from the 23rd day of September, 1880, until and including the day preceding the day of election.

2. Persons entitled by law to vote, who shall have resided for twelve months in the state, and ninety days in the county, and who shall be, on election day, actual residents of any precinct or township, will be entitled to register and vote.

3. Those who shall have arrived at the age of 21 years since November 5th, 1878, will of course have to register; and all those who shall have removed from one precinct or township to another since that date, will have to register anew.

4. Persons who registered for the November election, 1878, and have since changed precinct, must, upon presenting themselves for registration, produce a certificate from the registrar in the precinct in which they registered, stating that their names had been erased from his book.

5. No one is to register or vote except in that precinct where he is an actual and bona fide resident on the day of election. This means a voter who has continuously resided in, or who has removed to, a precinct in good faith, and who produces in the latter case a certificate that his name has been erased from the books of the old precinct.

6. Certificates of registration are not to vote: - Minors, idiots and lunatics; persons who after conviction, or confession in open court, have been adjudged guilty of felony or other infamous crime, committed after January 1st, 1877, unless restored to rights of citizenship by law.

7. Subject to the foregoing exceptions, all males born in the United States, or naturalized, who have resided in the state twelve months next preceding the election, and ninety days in the county, are qualified to register and vote in the precincts where they reside.

8. No one is to register in any precinct to which he has removed for the mere purpose of voting therein; nor unless his residence is actual and bona fide.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

An Interior View of Gov. Scott's Career--Hamburg Butler and Corporation--Tissue Ballots--Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter--Alexander McClure, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SEPT. 22ND, 1880. A short retrospective view of political affairs in South Carolina may be instructive to some of your North Carolina readers; it will certainly be edifying to many of your readers in the Palmetto State.

I am a native South Carolinian, and it has frequently been my province to relate through the newspapers the short comings of both the Democratic and Republican parties of my state. While I have never spared the murderous conduct of such characters as Hamburg Butler, Hampton, O'Connor, et al. of course, neither have I been inclined to throw the mantle of charity over such men as Moses, Whittemore and others, who did so much to convert South Carolina Republicanism into a by-word and a reproach.

In 1868, an illustrious Union General, B. K. Scott, became Governor of South Carolina. Scott had in no sense been a carpet-bagger. At the head of his victorious division he entered the state, and was subsequently made the disburser of $21,000,000 as the agent of the Freedmen's Bureau. No one knows better than the impoverished gentry of the South Carolina seaboard how many hungry stomachs were filled by the bounty thus disbursed by Gen. Scott. All through the state, the old aristocracy vied with each other in praising Scott.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

Justice impels me to say that during the administration of Governors Scott and Moses, South Carolina had no more earnest friend and eloquent defender, than Judge Samuel Lee of Sumter, now the unanimous nominee of that district for Congress.

CITY ITEMS.

Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco. New crop peanups are coming into market.

Rev. Dr. Patterson will preach his farewell sermon at St. John's Church to-night.

Mr. J. G. Voss, who has resided at Smithville for the past year or two has returned to Wilmington.

Alex. Sprunt, Esq., British Vice Consul at this port, has returned to this city after an absence of several months in Europe.

The Laurinburg Enterprise reports Mr. Peter Joseph, who lost his leg by an accident at that place a few days ago as growing worse.

The work of shelling the turnpike is rapidly progressing. Shells are brought from the mouth of the river by schooner and then hauled out to the pike.

Bishop Atkinson is now in Baltimore, having left the Old Sweet Springs, Virginia, last week. He proposes shortly to go to Old Point, Virginia, and thence to this city.

Professor Kerr is engaged in analyzing specimens of water from different streams adjacent to this city. So far the water of Greenfield pond is the purest that has been analyzed.

Mr. John Judge, recently representing Messrs. Chess, Carley & Co., in this city, has removed to Charleston. Mr. N. F. Thompson is now the manager of this department of Chess, Carley & Co's. business.

Dr. M. J. DeRoost, formerly of this city, but now a resident of New York, was stricken with paralysis about a week ago. His condition is critical, though his symptoms are somewhat encouraging during the past two days.

The fourth and last Quarterly Meeting for the present Conference year for Fifth Street Methodist Church, south, of this city, will be held to-day by the Presiding Elder, Rev. Dr. Burkhead. The public are invited to attend. Seats free.

terprise started in this city by Messrs. Norwood Giles and Pembroke Jones has commenced operations. The mill is said to be complete in every particular, and is much better than some of those in operation at Charleston and Savannah.

DEATH OF MR. GEO. H. BRADLEY. - We copy from the New Haven Evening Register an account of the death of Mr. Bradley. He was for many years previous to, and since the close of the war, a resident of this city, and carried on the boot and shoe business in company with his brother, Charles M. Bradley. He has been in bad health for a number of years. He was about 76 years of age.

On the 7th day of October, 1879, spirits tarponette sold for 27 cents; October 7th, 1880, the same article sold for 30 cents per gallon. Strained and good strained rosin sold on the 7th of October, 1879, at 25 cents per bbl., for strained and $1 per bbl. for good strained, and October 7th, 1880, the quotations on the boards of the Produce Exchange quoted strained at $1 20 per bbl. bid and $1 25 asked; good strained $1 25 per bbl. bid and $1 30 asked. Cotton sold there at 9 cents for middling, October 7th, 1880, it sold at 10 cents for middling.