WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1880.

WILMINGTON POST ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT WILLIAMSTON, N. C., AS SECOND CLASS

RATES OF ADVERTISING. Fifty cents per line for the first insertion and twenty-five cents per line for each additional insertion. Eight (8) lines, Nonpareil type, constitute a square. The subscription price to THE WIL-MINGTON POST is $1 00 per year; six months 75 cents.

All communications on businesshould be addressed to THE WILMINGTON Post, Wilmington, N. C.

All advertisements will be charged a the above rates, except on special con

County Ticket.

For the Senate, HENRY E. SCOTT.

For the House, WILLIAM II. WADDELL. JAMES WILSON.

For Sheriff, STEPPEN H. MANNING. For Register of Deeds, JOSEPH E. SAMPSON. For Treasurer,

For Corner, EDWARD D. HEWLETT. For Constable of Wilmington Township, JOHN C. SMITH.

ELLIAH HEWLETT.

THE THIRD DISTRICT.

From the date of this issue of the Capitol out of it. Post there will be only eight days to election. The next issue will not reach readers in the District before they vote. What we have to say about the prospects of Mr. Canaday, as a last word, will be very brief.

The two candidates, W. P. Canaday and John W. Sbackelford have spoken in joint discussion in every county, and companied by Mr. Kornegay, who without much validity of title as a candidate, appeared as a Greenbacker. Nearly at the last time he spoke, he announced himself for Hancock and English, and after that beither of the candidates spoke together. The real controversy, is therefore between Canaday and Shackelford.

There were many unfortunate circomstances surrounding the nomination of Col. Shackelford. There had been bitter feeling between Col. Waddell and Major C. M. Stedman, rival Democratic candidates, and both fell victims to the fatal two-thirds rule, to say nothing about Judge McKoy, and other less prominent aspirants, among whom Col. Shackelforil was not at first thought of. The normal aspect of the canvass was bad at the very outset-the Democratic party of the Third District, loaded down with a candidate, without any considerable following. If Shackelford had showed any of the magnetism of a popular leader; or had demonstrated any capacity on the stump, or even showed any familiarity with public affairs instead of ignorance, he might have fought his way, in spite of the dull, leaden lead, the stolid apathy, which he encountered from the wrangle which he inherited from Stedman and Waddell. It is no use ever. When two large elements of a party are at loggerheads, and an indifferent man running. to undertake to patch up a sham peace, or stimulate an artificial enthusiasm. This poor, indifferent, listless candidate had a bad case on hand from the be-

With his opponent it was entirely different. He took possession of the candidature of the District, on the Republican side, without so much as the shadow of a dissent inside the party. That party comprised a volume of the population emounting to a majority of the voting force. There was a briskness, an clasticity, a generosity, a frankness and a good nature, as he made his way into the details of the canvass, which had been foreign to Shackelford. He had no enemies in his own party, but trod the field and ferest as lightsoled as a fawn. He never lost his iemper as Shackelford did, but sailed coward with a bouyant airiness, and deluged his opponent with oblequey, and covered him with good natured sarcasm, until he took the crowd away from him and rode triumphant wherever they spoke together.

Canaday has evidently had the inside track from the start. We shall be much disappointed if he is not elected high and dry. Waddeil has stampeded first to Vermont, then to Maine, and is even now enlightening those benighted support the regular ticket. We regret people north of Mason's and Dixon's line. Stedman has mostly staid near ponte, since the Cincinnati Convention, and the call on Hancock, languishing on the sea-shore, presiding at fancy occasions, and hardly going into the can-casions, and hardly going into the can-covered another large comet going turnout and swell the ranks of the old ranks with sufficient energy to keep his rather slowly in a northeasterly direc-year for the Democrats, a miscrably managed campaign, obstructed by an infinitude of blunders, until finalty came the tornado in Indiana and Ohlo, which completely took the gizzard out of the whole party north and south, and left it a melancholy, forlorn, abject, helpless and pitiable-hopeless. There is not enough vigor lett among the Democrats to indulge respectably in their favorite amusement of blackguarding.

OUR STATE TICKET.

Let us have a last word about our state ticket. It is a good one. head is a splendid fellow as compared with Jarvis, and no one of them is worthless as Jarvis. There is no one or them but has more character, more dignity of character than Jarvis. In fact, it may be said with perfect truth that Jarvis is the weakest man on the Democratic ticket- weaker than Dr. Worth, than Col. Saunders, weaker than Col. Kenan-weaker even than Lieut, Gov. Robinson. It will be a shame to us Republicans, if with a ticket as indifferent as we have opposing, and with one as good as we have of our own, we are beaten.

Our last word is, let every voter go to the polls, and vote for Buxton and all our state ticket, and bring out the lame and halt, the old and young, until the last decent man in the state is out Rise early, vote early, then get your neighbor to vote and get his neighbors to vote. And we will elect our ticket, and drive the whole crew now in the · PRESTO-CHANGE.

On Friday there turned up at Point Caswell the following gentlemen in their order- Bruce Williams, Esq., of Pender, II. E. Scott, Esq., candidate for the Senate for New Hanover and Pender, a gentleman named Pedee Brown, the inevitable Fornegay, Mr. anaday, the Republican candidate for this District, and Col. J. W. Shackelford, the Democratic candidate. They spoke in the order mentioned. We had understood that the joint canvass had broken up -- that echool had been dismissed-and each was on his own hook and account, when we were informed that Shackelford with his co-Hancock Greenback friend, Kornegay, were about to turn up again. About 9 o'clock on Friday morning Mr. Canaday was dashing across the twenty miles of sandy road to Point Caswell, and arrived in season for the show. What was about to have occurred-a joint speaking of Shackelford and his Greenback confrere, -did not occur, and this recently created Castor and Pollux of politics, got their usual drubbing from Canaday and H. E Scott, Esq., thrown in. During the speaking it leaked out that Shackelford notified Canaday that he considered the joint canvass closed at Farmer's Turnout. Canaday said so during his speech, with some comments thereon, and that afterwards he found him right under his eaves-droppings in Pender, with his twin brother Kornegay, ready for gymnastics. It would be interesting to know what Shackelford intends to do. As it-was, Canaday made an earnest speech of an hour showing good reasons why he ought to represent this Congressional District.

TO THE PEOPLE OF BLADEN COUNTY.

Whereas, The Republican party of Bladen county, in Convention assem bled, are called upon to make a selection of a suitable person as a candidate for the important office of Sheriff of said county, and

Whereas, The Republican party de sires the well-fare of all the citizens of the county, irrespective of political af filiations, and for the purpose of securing that end, it becomes their duty to act with patriotism; and

Whereas, we recognize in William J Sutton an honest, capable and impar tial officer, one who has been tried and who has not betrayed the trust reposed in him by both Democrats and Republicans. Therefore, be it Resolved, That this convention de unanimously endorse William J. Sutton for the office of Sheriff, and we as a party pledge him our undivided support at the election.

CHAIRMAN REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

HARMONY IN ROBESON John S. Lewis of Robeson, who has been before the people as a candidate for the House of Representatives from that county, as against O. S. Hayes and E. K. Proctor, the regular pomines gives notice that he will withdraw and that space will not allow us to print Republican members.

standing for the next heat. It is an off tion in the constellation of Pegasus.

Strade Site, the State of Miles, was appearable to Sat present Spream bell to The season of th

AN ADDRESS

By the Chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee to the Republican Voters of the United States :-

"We have met the enemy and they arelours." From Oregon, from Rhode Island, from Vermont, from Connectino uncertain sound, but booming and ringing with the notes of Republican victory. And now Ohio, giving us at least 25,000 popular majority, and sixteen of her twenty Congressional districts, and Indiana giving us from 5,000 to 10,000 majority, probably nine of her thirteen Congressmen and her Legislature, with its certain promise of a Ropublican United States Senator join their swelling voices with these shouts of triumph, and seem to make our coming victory sure.

The vote of yesterday is due to fear Democratic ascendancy, of "solid which would follow Democratic Free Trade experiments, of the disasters to business and to laboring and to other interests which would follow"a change" of Government when all is prosperous now. We have pierced the enemy's center, but we must not sleep on our arms. We must charge along the line. and rout him "herse, feet, and dragoon."

Republicans, remember that this is the "last ditch" of the "solid south," and the desperation of despair is not to be despised. Stand by your colors; rest not for an instant. Sustain your committees in the fight for doubtful districts; be vigilant, aggressive, pressing the enemy in the front, in the rear, and on the flanks, and do not cease your efforts until a complete and overwhelming victory in November shall crown them with the assurance of Republican ascendancy and that freedom, peace, and prosperity which will surely accompany it.

JAY A. HUBBELL, Chairman Republican Congressional Committee.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13, 1880. THE DEMOCRATIC MONEY BOX. We are reliably informed that the Democrats have received a large amount of money for the purpose of carrying North Carolina and especially the Third District. To cover their own tracks they are trying to make the people believe that the Republicans have been furnished with a large amount of money, sent from the north for their know what we are saying, and in fact, speak by authority, when we assert that not one dollar or cent has been sent to this District for campaign purposes. But the Democrats have abundance of money, drawn from English's barrell's, and are spending it lavishly. They intend to do all they can to carry this District, by bribery and fraud.

KORNEGAY. The pretended Greenbacker, Korne gay, having declared that he would support Hancock, has retired to private life, being of no further use in public. That great and splendid science of paying debts with promises to pay that are never to be complied with, is no longer attractive to him. Don Quixote and his tilt with the wind-mill was nothing compared with Kornegay's fury into the domain of reason.

NDEPENDENT CANDIDATES J. S. Harrington announces himself as an Independent candidate for the House of Representatives, in the State Legislature, for Harnett county.

T. S. Lutterloh of Cumberland county, is announced as an Independent candidate for the House of Representatives from Cumberland.

William B. Duncan is announced as the Independent candidate for the Senate from Carteret, Onslow and Jones

John Noe, is the Independent Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives, from Carteret county. David S. Saunders of Beaufort, is the Independent candidate for Sheriff for Carteret county. Mr. John C. Blocker is the Independent candidate for Senator from Cumberland and Harnett counties, William M. Black is the Independent candidate for Sheriff of Moore county. We understand also, that Robeson Ward is the Independent candidate for the Senate from Sampson county.

NOTICE,

Attention Members of the Fifth Ward Garfield, Buxton and Canaday Club. You are hereby requested to meet at the whole of the letter, but we will do it next week. This gives hobeson two 26th, 1880, at 7 o'clock sharp, to take part in the grand TORCH-LIGHT pocomion ou said evening. A tall attend-Prof. Swift, the astronomer has die- suce is desired. Let every Republican

W. E. N. SELLERS, President.

"OLD 329 DID IT."

[From the Washington Star, Ind.[ "As to the 329 business," said Congreesman Hill last night, "it did us more harm in Ohio than good. The Democrat idiot who started it ought to be given a tin horn and sent into solitude. If it hadn't have been for the cut, have come recent voices bearing | 329 agitation in Ohio Warner would have been elected to Congress from the Marietta district." "How's that?" "Well, I will tell you. Suppose you owned a nice house. How would you like to wake up some fine morning and find it plastered all over with 829? they did it with lamp black so it would stick. I know a man at Athens, Ohio, whose house was daubed with 329. He was a Democrat and got so mad when he dircovered it, that he went straightway and gave the Republican County Committee $100, and then turned in and voted the Republican ticket. I sectn," of the ruin to our industries tell you the 329 business was a losing card. It ought to be stopped."

> TO THE VOTERS OF BRUNS WICK AND BLADEN. To the Republicans of Bladen and Bruns

Having been nominated for a member of the Senate for the District comprising the counties of Bladen and Brunswick, I hereby accept that trust, and shall visit such portions of Brunswick and Bladen, as I am able to previous to the election for consultation with my fellow-citizens I am fully impressed with the responsibility of the duties which may be incumbent upon me, and what obligations will rests upon me in this important official service, to which, I shall solicit your support.

I am a true Republican, accept the principles of that great party in full and in detail, and promise if I shall be favored with an election at the hands of this patriotic constituency, I will omit no opportunity, not only to carry out the great measures of the party, but also the real interests of the whole population which IImay represent.

States, Garfield and Arthur, and the Chicago platform, as I understand them; Ralph P. Buxton for Governor, platform adopted at Raleigh : together with William P. Canaday and the platform adopted at Smithville, for Congress; and place myself at the disposal of this constituency with my Nothing of this sort is true. We whole heart, with an honest and earnest purpose to acquit myself to their acceptance and satisfaction.

W. T. PRIDGEON. Candidate for State Senator. FRENCH'S CREEK, Bladen County, October 16th, 1880.

National Political.

The Richmond Dispatch proclaims that "Gen. Garfield is as good as elected," and that it "wouldn't give a copper for Gen. Hancock's chance."

The ignorance of Gen. Hencock on the subject of the tariff is "superb." He found himself standing on a platform "for a revenue enly." Then he expressed the opinion that the tariff was merely a local matter and that the general government cared but little about i'. Then he requdiated the Cincinnati platform, and then he denounced the precent tariff. Where he will land next it is impossible to imagine. Yet he wrote to Col. Blauton Duncan that "If I were nominated by a party I would be governed by its platform, or would not accept the nomination."

"A tariff for revenue only" would oring desolation into thousands of homes in this great manufacturing state. According to the census of 1870 there were then at work in the manufactories of the state 351,800 persons, whose yearly wages amounted to $142. 466,758, who were backed by capital to the amount of $366,994,320, who used yearly materials in these manufactories worth $452,065,452, and who manufactured products worth $785,191,651.

The Tribune: What is the value of a Hancock pledge? He announced in his letter of acceptance, that the principles of the Democratic platform were those he had cherished in the past and should do his best to maintain in the future. That was a formal and distinct pledge. He now says in a muddled way that he shall do nothing to interfere with protection to American labor. Which pledge will he keep? The former one he made to his whole party, but he coolly breaks it when he finds it will cost him votes. Can a man who breaks cratic candidate for Clerk of the Supreme Court of Ohio and many other Democrats of prominence, have declared for Garfield. So goes the boom.

The leading Republican lawyers of

THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF THE

The Axemen of Indiana bave visited Garfield. Gen. Grant is busy in New York aiding Garfield and Arthur. Senator Edmunds of Vermont has been re-elected. Good. Col. John T. Collins of the First Congressional District accepts the nomination in a stiff letter to his constituinterests are in Georgia. Vols., which was in Hancock's Corps, Garfield 219, Hancock 9, Weaver 5, Thus the tide runs.

squib about Hancock:

The chuckle of the Tildenites is audible in the land. Their jubilating over Hancock's overthrow is thinly disguised under a rimulated disgust at the situation. From the day of Hancock's nomination to the present not a Tilden man has given the ticket at atom of earnest support. How could he, It was bad enough to ignore the Claimant's grievance, and set aside his bid for a renomination, but it was adding insult to injury to prefer before him a man so grotesquely unfit for the position as the famous author of the notion that tariff is merely a "local issue" which was once "brought up in my native town."

Since the Indiana and Ohio elections Hancock has had no chance at all of election. His pretended supporters are whistling through the grave yard to keep their courage up.

THE ELECTION LAW-STATE LAW.

The Duty of Registrars of Elections : such manner that said books shall show | hundred dollars minimum, or one thous-Pledging myself, if elected, that I registered in such precinct or township, perform the duties required under the will support the candidates for Presi- and still residing therein, without re- present state law respecting elections, dent and Vice-President of the United | quiring such electors to be registered | and any elector who has been hindered, tween the hours of sunrise and sunset. and the rest of the state ticket, and the thirty days preceeding each election, the Circuit Court of the United States keep open said books for the registra- for recovery of five hundred dollars, tion of any electors residing in such precinct or township and entitled to registration, whose names have never before been registered in such precinct or township or do not appear in the re-

Electors who have previously voted in other counties than which he now resides is not requiaed to produce a certificate that his name has been crased from the books of the county where he last voted.

The Act recites that if an elector has previously been admitted to registration in any ward, township or precinct IN THE COUNTY IN WHICH HE RESIDES. he shall not be allowed to register again in another ward, precinct or township in the SAME COUNTY, until he produces a certificate of the regis, trar of the former township, ward or precinct, that said elector has, by reason of his removal had his name erased from the registration books of the ward township or precinct from which he has removed.

The above clause from the Legisla tive Act plainly determines that an elector is not required to produce a certificate of crasure of his name from the registration books of any last voting place, unless the same be in the county in which he now resides.

United States Statutes. There is another important duty to which the attention of every judge, in- Tobacco. spector, or other officer of election who is to receive, count, certify, register, report, or give effect to the vote of electors, is called, and that is the Elective Franchise Act of the Congress of the United States Title XXVI of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

Electors who may be denied their rights are also interested in knowing the remedies and penalty provided by such law, if wrongfully deprived of their vote by any person. The following are sections of the Act referred to: TITLE XXVI. THE ELECTIVE PRANCHISE.

Sec. 2007. W benever under the authority of the Constitution or Laws of any State, or the Laws of any Territory, any act is required to be done by a one pledge be depended on to keep an-other? What is his southern claims pledge worth in the light of these tariff contections! General Grant was right citizen to perform the act required to streets.

—he is cray to be President, and will be done shall, if it fail to be carried into execution by reason of the wrong- employ on the Carolina Central rullful act, or the omission of the person road. or officer charged with the duty of revember, but to take the chance of the be deemed and beld as a performance the subject relative to the new market Hoo. Richard J. Fanning, Deuse: offering and failing to vote, and being dermen.

otherwise qualified, shall be entitled to vote in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had in fact performed such an act.

Sec. 2008. Every judge, inspector, or officer of election whose duty it is to receive, count, certify, register, report, or give effect to the vote of such citizen, who wrongfully refuses or omits to receive, count, certify, register, report, or give effect to the vote of such citizen upon the presentation by him of his affidavit, stating such offer, and the time and place thereof, and the ents, and has more than fair prospects name of the officer or person whose The d-d fools didn't do it with chalk; of election. He says all his pecuniary duty it was to act thereon, and that he was wrongfully prevented by such per-The 105th Regiment, Pennsylvania son or officer from performing such act, shall forfeit the sum of five hundred took a vote with the following result: dollars, to the party aggrieved by such refusal or omission, to be recovered by an action on the case, with costs, and The N. Y. Tribune gives this pungent such allowance for counsel fees as the court may deem just.

Sec. 2009. Every officer or other person, having powers or duties of an of- duced is remarkably clean and perfect. ficial character to discharge under any of the provisions of this Title, who by threats, or any unlawful means, hinders, delays, prevents, or obstructs, or combines and confederates with others to hinder, delay, prevent, or obstruct any citizen from doing an act required to be done to qualify him to vote, or from voting at any election in any state, territory, district, county, city, parish. township, school district. municipality, or other territorial sub-division, shall forfeit the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action on the case, with costs, and such allowance for counsel fees as the court may deem

It has come to our knowledge that the state law requiring the registration books to be kept open between the Registrars shall be furnished with a hours of sunrise and sunset, has not registration book, and it shall be THEIR been observed, and many complaints DUTY to revise the existing registration | have been made concerning the same. books of their precinct or township in The state law imposes a penalty of five an accurate list of electors previously and dollars maximum for failing to anew, and such registrars shall also, be- delayed, or obstructed in doing an act required to be done to qualify him to on each day, (Sunday's excepted) for vote, has his remedy, personally, in against any person who has hindered delayed or obstructed his registration, or voting, if properly qualified.

The requirements of law should be cheerfully observed by every officer or person, in everything concerning the casting of the ballot, and those who are not well informed as to their privileges should receive consideration even greater than those whose knowledge of the election law enables them to fully protect their every interest-

A. M. C.

ira_d Uaited Order of Odd Fellows. the Grand Convocation of Odd-Fellows | thus far this season, as compared with of the United States, the Canadas and | the same period in 1879, as will be seen the West India Islands, which assem- by the following statement compiled bled in Richmond, Va., on the 5th of from the books in the Produce Exthis month, will appear in the Post of change. the 6tn of November, with a detail of the procession, ceremonies, and a list of To October 22, 1880, the officers elected.

All Lodges of the order, and members who delire a number of copies of the Post, must send their orders to me by Thursday, November 4th, that I may order a full numbeer of extra Respectfully, GEO. W. PRICE, JR.

CITY ITEMS.

Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy

For other locals see fourth page. The bets advertised in another column are bona-fide

Only two interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week. Four interments in Oakdate Cemtery this past week. Six interments in Pine Forrest during the past week.

No interments in the Catholic Cemetery during the past week.

The Register of Deeds issued four marriage

Capt. John L. Boatright, has opened

There are now 24 engines in e

Indiana have beld a consultation and celving or permitting such performance At a meeting of the Board of Audit Connecticut. decided not to repeat the vote in No- or offer to perform, or acting thereon, and Finance, held Thursday afternoon, validity of the October electron in law of such act; and the persons so was referred back to the Board of Al-

The Belgarde and Nick Roberts troupes, have cancelled their engagement in this city.

William Loftin, colored, about 28 years of age, died very suddenly on Sunday last, at his home in the southern part of the city.

March Campbell, colored, was committed to jail Friday, in default of a $100 bond, upon the charge of mismarking live stock.

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is a splendid dressing for the hair. No other like it. Try it andjudge for yourselves.

The steam cotton gin of Mr. C. Barnes, at Wilson, N. C., was destroyed by fire Monday night. The property was insured for $2,250. The Carolina Rice Mills has commenced work. The new machinery works satisfactorily and the rice pro-Rev. Dr. W. S. Plumer, the, distinguished and venerable Presbyterian divine, of Columbia, S. C., who is wellknown in this city, is very ill in Baltimore, and not expected to recover.

As we go to press we learn that a colored man by the name of Albert Faison, dropped dead in Dr. Norcom's drug store, on Market, between 2d and 3d streets. We could not gather the facts of the case.

That sloppy old chap Wade Hampton, in 1878, in a speech before the Southern Historical Society, urged the surviving children of the south, "to vindicate the great principles for which she fought."

Dr. M. J. Deltosset is decidedly better and his condition is steadily improving. There is much more sensation in his right side, the part affected. He is so much improved that his father has decided to return home.

A colored man was picked up in the street Wednesday last in a sick and destitute condition. He was carried to the City Hall where he received nourishment and medical attendance. He claimed to hail from Warsaw.

Mr. Dawson T. Durham, a prominent citizen of Rocky Point, Pender county, and father of Dr. J. H. Durham, of this city, died at his residence at the above named place Tuesday about 1 o'clock. The deceased was in the 160th year of Patrick H. Davis, colored, an old veteran who never flinches, has been epresented by some scamp as being that cheapest of all politicians, a Greenbacker. At this, Patrick, like every respectable colored man, is very indignant, and denounces the statement as an infamous Ile.

There has been considerable increase A full report of the proceedings of in the receipts of cotton at this port

> Increase for 1880, 6,638 bales. ON ACCOUNT OF WHOM IT MAY Concern.-I am offered by a Syndicate, or some other Kite, to make the

To Uctober 24, 1879,

32,831 bales.

26,193 bales.

following proposition: $100 that New Jersey goes Republi-$100 that Connecticut gors Republi-

$100 that Maine goes Republicau. $100 that California goes Republican. $100 that New York goes Republi.

$100 that Indiana will give five housand Roublican majority. $500 that Garfield will beat Han-

The above offers are for the Novemper election and on the Republican

Those having different views will bottle up their wind or take water, or in other words "Put up or Shut up."

JOHN CARROLLS

Second Ber.-We are requested by another responsible gentleman, whose name can be had at this office if anybody desires to make the bets, to $100 that the Republicans will carry $190 that the Republicans will carry

$100 that the Republicans will carry

$100 that Garfield and Arthur will

$100 that Garfeld and Arthur will carry the "solid porth."