Meers, James H Chi dbourn & Co are prescring to start large and ex ensive saw nil s in Columbus county, on the less of the W., C. & A. Rairread. We constitulate our Columbus, friends on their good fortune. The Chadbourn brothers are among our most enterpa ing business men, and they are a e thi to any place. Notwithstanding their great wealth they work as hard today as any business men in this said. The weet music of their saws; the sound of the ex and the whistle of their engines will wake the sleepy-looking old Columbias up very soon. With such men as the Chadbourns, thet horts and the Springers, live, progressive and intelligent men, there is no reason why Columbus should not be as prosperous any in the state.
