For the Post. The Situation and its Intelligent Demands.

Revolutions never go backward, and necessarily so, for the good of the populace, is as true to-day as it was when first written, and I take it to be equally so, respecting the situation which I am about to discuss, as the facts in the case present themselves to the "mind of common sense." It is now generally understood that the Hon. W. P. Canaday, that champion and fearless advocate of the constitutional rights for the working men of North Carolina, irrespective of color or previous condition, has resigned the position so honorably filled by him as collector of customs for the port of Wilmington; that he faithfully and honorably performed the important and responsible duties, which the position imposed, none dare gainsay, and when he had gathered around him his aids and given them positions which would enable them to give their families bread, be it to his credit said, the negro was not left out in the cold. That he has given more negroes official positions than any other official in North Carolina cannot be successfully contradicted; and that there are many who are holding positions given them by the government and furthermore got(?) those positions only through the negroes' influences, whom they claim to represent, when interrogated, but have so palpably misrepresented. These men could have helped this hewer of wood and drawer of water in the same proportion that Mr. Canaday has, but have failed to let us see a consummation of their burdensome promises which have well nigh weighed us in the dust of disappointed aspiration, in consequence of which have fallen short in the number of diadems with which we are proud to be enabled to deck the crown of the Hon. W. P. Canaday in honor of his valuable services and faithfully kept promises. I would like to say to these gentlemen that we live in a new age, pregnant with intelligence and moral independence, and that we propose to scan their future acts with the eye of an eagle, and weigh them in the balance of their own choice. While we welcome Mr. Canaday in to the important field of journalism unencumbered with office and its responsibilities, that he may give full vent to a free expression of conscience and move the knight to any part of the political chess board when the interest of the people he so ably represents, demand it. And as he is now free to congratulate him, in view of the fact that when he gets ready to shove the quill he will not first have to consult the advice of any official save our populi, and to remember:

They were made to exalt us—to teach us to bless Those invincible brothers—the pen and the press.

Our greatest need in North Carolina is a staunch Republican paper, honest in its support and fearless in its advocacy of the principles which underlie our Republican institutions, and the Wilmington Post fills the bill. The poor men of North Carolina look forward to its coming with deepest interest, because he knows his columns are crowded with truths expressive of the situation and fearless in their advocacy of their rights as citizens under the laws, in common with other men regardless of color or previous condition of servitude. May the Post continue its well-begun course of arraignment until every North Carolinian shall be recognized as a citizen, clothed with those constitutional prerogatives of which the framers of the constitution of North Carolina once boasted with pride. IX. Delegates and alternates to county conventions shall be elected only by a vote of the Republicans of each precinct in precinct-meeting assembled; and delegates and alternates to district, State and National conventions shall be elected by a convention of delegates duly elected and sent by the people for that purpose after due notice and publication of not less than fifteen days, of the time, place and purpose of such convention, and not otherwise.

X. The certificate of the chairman and secretary of the meeting, setting forth regularity of the primary meeting or convention, and the election of the delegate and alternate thereat, shall be accepted, when uncontroverted, as a good and sufficient credential for such delegate and alternate. XI. This plan of organization and procedure shall continue in force until changed or abrogated by a subsequent Republican State Convention. Adopted in State Convention, July 8, 1880.

not from his own life, but from his own silent but successful works and noble deeds; a Republican indeed as in name and an advocate of the constitutional rights for the negro and a friend of the oppressed. His appointment can but meet the hearty approval of the people of this district. Success to his ministrations and a bright future for the Post.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

Rules and Regulations for the Organization of the Republican Party of North Carolina: We republish below the plan of organization adopted by the Republican State Convention in 1880, which will have to be carried out during the present campaign, and the Republicans of the state will do well to study it so as to be able to carry it out.

I. County Organization.—The election precinct shall be the unit of county organization. Each precinct shall have an executive committee consisting of three active Republicans. They shall be biennially chosen by the Republican voters of the precinct, and shall elect one of their number chairman. They shall convene together at such time and place as the majority of them may elect. They shall biennially elect a county executive committee, to consist of not less than five members, who shall elect a chairman from their number. Vacancies in precinct committees shall be filled by the voters of the precinct, and in county committees by a convention of the precinct committees duly called: Provided, that in case a vacancy occurs within thirty days prior to an election, such vacancy may be filled by the vote of the remaining members.

II. Congressional, Judicial and Senatorial Districts.—There shall be a Congressional, Judicial and Senatorial District Committee, composed of not less than one member from each county, nor less than seven members, biennially elected by the several district conventions, each of whom shall elect a chairman from their number: Provided, that a senatorial district committee shall only be elected in districts embracing more than one county. Vacancies occurring within thirty days of an election may be filled by the vote of the committee.

III. State Executive Committee.—There shall be a State Executive Committee, composed of one member from each Congressional District in the state, to be designated by the district delegations in State Convention assembled; two members at large, to be elected by the State Convention, and the chairman of the convention at which the election is held. They shall be biennially elected at the State Convention, shall choose one of their number chairman, and shall elect a secretary who is not a member, who shall reside at Raleigh.

IV. The chairman of the respective county, district and State Executive Committees shall call their conventions to order and act as temporary chairmen until a permanent organization is effected, with power only to appoint, and receive the report of, a committee on credentials.

V. No executive committee shall have power to elect or appoint delegates to any convention, whether county, district, State or National.

VI. No member of an executive committee or delegate or alternate duly chosen shall have power to delegate his trust or authority to another.

VII. Representation.—Representation in county conventions shall consist of three Republican voters as delegates, and three as alternates, from each precinct in the county, and no more.

VIII. Representation in Congressional, Judicial, Senatorial and State Conventions shall consist of two delegates and two alternates only, for every member of the lower House of the General Assembly and shall be apportioned in the several counties accordingly.

IX. Delegates and alternates to county conventions shall be elected only by a vote of the Republicans of each precinct in precinct-meeting assembled; and delegates and alternates to district, State and National conventions shall be elected by a convention of delegates duly elected and sent by the people for that purpose after due notice and publication of not less than fifteen days, of the time, place and purpose of such convention, and not otherwise.

X. The certificate of the chairman and secretary of the meeting, setting forth regularity of the primary meeting or convention, and the election of the delegate and alternate thereat, shall be accepted, when uncontroverted, as a good and sufficient credential for such delegate and alternate.

XI. This plan of organization and procedure shall continue in force until changed or abrogated by a subsequent Republican State Convention. Adopted in State Convention, July 8, 1880.

pointment to offices, in preference to Republicans. Since the management of the Republican party of Robeson county left the hands of Col. James Sinclair and John Holloway, Esq., it may with truth be said, there has been no Republican party in the county.—We have been supporting a band of hungry politicians, known as "independents" and composed of the dirtiest element of the Democratic party; many of whom were kicked out of that party for political heresies and inconsistencies, and other disappointed and disgruntled office seekers and place hunters who have no broader claim to political ambition than to disorganize and disgrace the Republican party and "keep the nigger out," and no higher desire to promote the welfare of the county and state than to grab "fat" from the pap of office, and then turn and work against the success of the Republican party ever afterward. Shame shame! Yet these gentlemen (the leaders) claim to be Republicans, friends of the colored man and poor whites. The only postoffices in the county, Lumberton, Red Banks and Shoe Heel are filled with Democrats. The one at Lumberton, its nominal head, claims to be a Republican, yet he keeps, and ever has kept, a Democratic deputy. The Republicans of Robeson county intend to rebuke this wholesale misconduct on the part of these men during 1882. Messrs. Proctor and Hayes must be taught to cease recommending Democrats for all the offices they cannot fill themselves. Every colored man who attempts to raise his head above the political surface, whatever his qualifications or other attainments may be, these gentlemen go to work in order to prejudice the colored people, who constitute 90 per cent of the Republican party in the county, against him; in this way they keep all deserving colored men down, and then easily manage everything to suit themselves. But the people have commenced thinking; white and colored Republicans propose to change the programme, better men must come to the front and assume the lead. When this is done the Republican principles will be upheld; the party will take its former position, and will be crowned with as glorious a Republican victory as when under the leadership of the noble and patriotic Sinclair and Holloway. Yours for true Republican principles.

MAN IN THE DOOR.

On Sunday last Gov. Holden was paralyzed. On Tuesday he had a second stroke which rendered him unconscious. The sad news was a great shock to thousands of people in this state. The name of Gov. Holden for forty years has been closely connected with the history of North Carolina. His powerful pen has made alive and killed many a public measure, and hundreds of public men are alive who were shaped by his influence. He was shorn of political rights and privileges by this state as a punishment for his efforts to suppress the Ku Klux.

Mr. R. M. Proun, internal revenue collector at Baltimore has received a letter from Commissioner Raum, stating that the annual examinations of collectors' offices throughout the United States for the five years ended June 30, 1881, shows that every dollar collected from internal taxes has been accounted for, the entire amount being $202,310,737.12, of which $11,432,330.71 was collected in the third district of Maryland.

A PRISONER'S JOKE.—The sheriff of Dallas county, Iowa, wears shabby clothes, and is insignificant in appearance. He had occasion to take a portly, well-dressed prisoner to the penitentiary. The convict, when they came into the Warden's office, coolly remarked, "Here's a man for you," and handed over the sheriff to be locked up. The trick was not successful; yet the sheriff had to submit to detention until his identity could be established.

(Cure of had case of Scrofula on the face.) WILMINGTON, N. C., Feb. 10, 1881.

PROF. W. H. MOORE—Dear Sir:—I think it a duty I owe to you and my fellow creatures who are suffering, to make known the wonderful effects your medicines have had on me, hoping all who are troubled with a humor in their blood will give it a trial. I am confident from practical experience that if persons will follow the directions and give it a fair trial, that it will cure any one that has disease of this character. I suffered with scrofula for 15 years, the pain it gave me no mortal man knows, I was in agony all of the time. I need to think if I did not use every remedy, and let any pass, that was the very one to cure me. But at last the angel appeared in your great medicine, and am most happy to state your remedies have done the work for me. It is the great blessing, and I am now as free from the disease as I was before I was taken with it.

JOHN C. DAVIS. Witness: J. C. Mills, J. P.

CHRYSLER Co., October 15, 1881. PROF. W. H. MOORE—Dear Sir:—This is what I have to say: I have been suffering with a very large wen on the back of my neck. I suffered, oh! how I suffered, the pain it gave me no mortal man can tell. For 30 years I was in this condition; I could not get on my knees to pray, I had to sit up in my chair. My own doctor, whom I belonged, tried every physician that was around town, no relief. Afterwards they concluded it was incurable. Hearing of the new Dr. W. H. Moore, I thought I would try once more. I purchased a box of you, which cured me and my family of bowel complaint in two days; and a great many of my neighbors have been cured from the same box in as now well as ever.

Mrs. ELIZABETH KENNEDY. Witness: Philip Wiegles, River Street.

NEW-BEHEM, N. C., Aug. 27, 1881. PROF. W. H. MOORE—Dear Sir:—Your Indian Powders is not a good medicine to sell; one box cured me of many people. I purchased a box of you, which cured me and my family of bowel complaint in two days; and a great many of my neighbors have been cured from the same box in as now well as ever.
