COL. GEORGE N. FOLK.

It has been paraded all over the state by the . hourbon Democratic press that Col. George N. We knew this was not the case, in fact the were elected by the legislature, the pre information was positive, but we pre- siding officers of our courts did, occaferred to let the bourbon press get stuck. as they always do, if you only give them sufficient latitude. But we did not suppose any Republican paper would take up the foul lies of these bourbon Editors; but in a very few cases we were mistaken. But Col. Folk has written a letter, which we publish inanother, column, which is entirely to the point, and in such strong language that no one can misunderstand. He is entirely with us on the county government question, and advocates the right ent Judges, with those of ante bellum of the people to elect their own local The letter is one of the best officers. we over saw; it is unlike the ordinary letter of a lawyer or politician, it is short and plain; it cannot be misconstrued by any, and we know it will be satisfactory to every anti-bourbon, and to every true Republican of the state.

The difficulty which took place at on the 6th instant, was caused by W. M. Robbins, who had made a speech a few days previous, in which he abused Dr. J. J. Mott mont unmercifully. He did not stop at criticising him politically and officially, but he outrageously abused him personally. Had young Mott killed Robbins instead of simply thrashing him as he did, no one could have blame him for so doing. Republicans have stood abuse, slander, insults and even kicks quite long enough.
