MESSES, MOORE AND GUTHRIE We publish to day the letters of Mesara. John A. Moore and Wm. A Cluthrie, accepting the nomination as candidates for Judges of the 2d and 4th exceedingly good letters.

The Republicans of Duplin county have decided not to hold a Republican county convention, but to support the state and congressional ticket and to leave county politics alone. In this matter our friends have acted exceedingly wise, and the Post takes great pleasure in congratulating them on their good judgment displayed

It turns out that the bourbon Democratic party had a bolter, or liberal, to act as temporary chairman of the state covention, J. A. Long of Caswell, who accepted the liberal nomination for Judge, but found, on account of his kuklux murderous record, that the Republicans would not support him, then he became a fire tried bourbon Demoorht. See his letter in another column.

J. A. LONG. We stated three weeks ago that J. accepted the liberal nomination for ludge if he had not found that the Reiblicans were not going to support im for the homination in the Repubgna conversion, June 14th. As soon as he discovered that, he came out in a faming letter declining the first or liberal commutation. We publish in another column a letter to a Mr. Cheek, which destirms, over M. Long's own signature, vitir statement concerning the after. He intraccepted the nomination squarely, Now what will those genthemen my who have been sounding his

T James' to say that the charge in the Charlotte Observer that he was the editorset a Republican paper is a lie, but what are the facts in the case? We wil undertake to give nothing except plain unvarnished truths, which Mr. James will not deay, or if he does, can, be proven by unimpenchable testimony. Mr. Josh, T. James was employed on THE WILMINGTON POST during the years of 1868, 1869 and 1870, as local editor, and a great part of the time business manager. During that time the Post was supported by political assessments on the officeholders, each officer paving an assessment each week to either Mr. James or his subordinate, who was sent ground for the purpose of collecting. For the truth of the above we refer to Mr. Robert Kennedy, who was employed at the time on the paper as a printer; to Mr. Samuel G. Hall, who was at that time foreman of the office.

Mr. Josh, T. James remained on the statement we refer to Mr. Edward B. the chairman. Sinders, who was at that time editor of II every township in the county will the Post.

Mr. Edward B. Saunders is a lawyer and the brother in-law of Hon. D. L. Russell. We are thus particular about this matter, so if any one has doubts of the truth of any of the above statements they can verify them by seeing or writing to these witnesses. It was a credit to-Mr. James to have been employed and allowed to control a Republican paper, and why he should deny it no one can tell, for it is one of the acts that he should be proud of .--He has had considerable to say of late about political assessments, and has evidently forgotten that from such means he drew his weekly pay for a very considerable time, and if not honest and proper now, it certainly could not have been at that time.

We state these things as a matter of justice to all concerned. We have some other important disclosures to make, which we may be called upon to publish, though we hope not.

The Post has not been run as an officeholders organ since Mr. James's services were dispensed with.

THE NEWS AND OBSERVER OF JULY 16TH SAYS.

* * "But then Judge Merri man was never a candidate with an understanding that the Republicans should support him, or vote for him. He never counted on Republican votes. He never expected Republican support." The editor of the News and Observer

They both write short, but his law pardner and friend of 1872 .-We will not betray political secrets unless the other side should reveal part of them for the purpose of deceiving a confiding public. If the News and Observer makes the above announcement after consultation with ex-Senator Merriman we would be very glad to know it. And we put the question direct to the editor of that paper: Were you authorized, Capt. S. A. Ashe, to make the above statement, by ex-Senator A. S. Merriman? We ask you this question from the fact that, should you answer in the affirmative we will then feel at liberty to give the names of the Repubcans who visited Judge Merriman and had a square understanding with him before he was elected to the United States Senate in 1872, and we will also give you the names of leading Democrats who consulted and assisted in making the combination by which A. The Old Banner Ward Left What has the old Fifth Ward donthat she should have but one delegate to the congressional convention? When the transparencies are to be carried. when the political work is to be done, the old Fifth with her hard fisted voters is counted in strong. Stedeman gave her a big representation on his delegation, but it seems as if the Waddell "bloods" did not think so much of her. Probably the boys did not have broadcloth suits, and they were not polished enough to show up at the convention by the side of the thoroughbreds. Mr. Jordan Branch, the lone delegate must have displayed some good clothes to have got in. Well, boys, you can make up for it on election day, it will be all right you know when you go to vote which is all you are expected to do in this campaign, they will notice you on the street if it is dark, or there is no one around, or if you have not your dinner kettle in your hand, or if you are dressed up, but you know gentlemen cannot compromise their dignity but once every two years, and Dry Pond is pretty bard for a "blood" to recognize un der any circumstances.

Mr. Editor: As much has been said about my attending the anti-prohibi tion convention and having Mr. Jacob A. Long's name placed upon the liberal ticket as a candidate for Judge, have determined to ture on the lights as the News and Observer would say, and let both sides be heard. While I am willing to acknowledge that as good mes as ever breathed voted the prohibition ticket, yet I differ with them in regard to that matter. I am an antiprohibitionist of the old school. I was one of the original five dealers who appointed the time and called the convention of June 1st, 1881, to organize and plan out a way to beat down the enemy in the prohibition election. I atetuded the convention as a conservative "rum seller" in self-defence, and after the measure was defeated by 116,-000 majority, I was willing to let the question rest. But in several counties the commissioners refused to grant licenses when the majorities ranged from 1,000 to 2,000 in favor of license, so I of business from these counties, to raly again and attend the liberal convention of June 7th last, and adopt a platform and nominate candidates who would contend for the rights of the peo- good for the greatest number." ple. I then opposed any further nominations, but found that a man in this district would be nominated for Judge, whom I could not support, and in order to defeat him I caused the name of Jacob A. Long, of Caswell, to be placed on the ticket. On my return home I wrote Mr. Long a letter informing him of his nomination. (A copy of which and his reply thereto will be found below.) For my course in this matter I have been denounced as a Radical by my nearest friends whom I have attended conventions for, voted for, and expect to vote for again; -while Mr. Long has been held, up as an object of worship. I claim to be as good a conservative as Mr. Long. I always voted the conservative ticket with the exception of four scratches, and expect to do so again when they are right. When the people of America I so thoroughly aroused, and on a subect of such serious importance as the preservation of their lives and health. is but natural that the ones who have been largely instrumental in the organ of this movement should speak frank-ly and directly to the people most interested. It is for this reason that we thus come before the public and make within the past few years. These troubles have come at unexpected moments and in a most teacherous way. They have manifested themselves in innumerable forms, but they have not afflicted the minor parts of the body, but have gone direct to strongholds of the system and their works has usually been as prompt as it is fatal. Their teacherous and deceptive nature has often prevented a careful analysis of what causes them, and, as a result, intense suffering and final disaster have usually ensued. The real cause, however, has been a derangement of the kidneys and all of these troubles are, in fact, the first symptoms of the terrible Bright's dissease, which has cast its dark shadow over so many homes in the land and is increasing wonderfully and continually. It is now conceded by the ablest physicians in every land and by eminent scientists the world over, that this disease is the result of blood poisoning. which has been shown us, and thankful The poisoning is brought about by wasted and unhealthy kidneys that permit the poison to remain in the blood, instead of throwing it from the system. But it is equally evident to all who have studied into the effects and have become conversant with the fact, that a disordered state of the kidneys and liver produces most of the common complaints and pain which afflict the human race, and they can be traced to this source just as certainly as can Bright's disease. To purify a stream we must go to its source, and to cure a disease we mus remove the cause. It being true therefore, that nine-tenths of all human ailments are caused by diseased kidneys or liver, the only certain way to cure these troubles is by treating the organs which cause them. How intimately the kidneys are associated with the entire system may be understood from the fact that over 1,000 ounces of blood pass through them every hour, being more than 200 gallons, or nearly one ton in the course of twenty-four honrs. This vast mass of living fluid is sent to every part of the body, and if the kidneys are diseased the impurities that are in the blood are not removed, and hence pass through the veins, carrying disease in some one of its many terrible forms The horrors which accompany most of the diseases caused 2. C. Pool, John A. Moore, Frank H. by the disordered kidneys and liver cannot be described in print, while the danger surrounding them are even greater than the agony. And yet a person may be troubled for mouth without knowing the cause of the diseases that have attacked him. Some of the symptoms of the first stage, any one of which indicates disordered kidneys br liver are these; Pains in the back and around the loins, severe headache, dizziness, inflamed eyes, a coated tongue sensations, indigestion (the stomach never is in order when the kidneys or liver are deranged), a dryness of the skin, nervousness, night sweats, muscular debifity, despindency, a tired feiling especially at night, puffing or bloating under the eyes, etc. It any of the following things are noticed about the fluids passed from the system, it shows that the kidneys and liver are out of order : A red deposit, a scum upon the surface, an unusual thickness or thioness, a very derk-or very light

The above are a few of the hundreds of symptoms which indicate the beginning of the aggravated cases of kidney liver difficulties, and they require instantatiention. If these symp toms are not checked at once, they are almost certain to result in some one of the many terrible diseases of the kidneys. But unpleasant as all the symptoms and even these diseases may be, they are as nothing compared to the last stages of the complaints. The kidneys waste away by degrees, accompanied by inte se pains; the heart becomes uncontrollable; the lungs are oppressed; the eyebalfs grow glossy, and the entire system is reduced and debilitated. For weeks before death comes the sufferer looks forward to it as a blessed relief, and anything that can furnish even temporary help is gladly hailed. Then it is that blosting begins: the face becomes pully and pallid, the breath can only be caught in gasps, speech is impossible and muscular action suspended. The patient finally sinks into a state of unconsciousness to everything except the pains which are racking him, and death comes by certain but slow degrees. There can be but one conclusion which all resders of care and judgment will draw from munication. I am very respectfully these facts, which is the necessity of treating the disease in time and by that means which has been proven the FAYETTEVILLE, N. July 18, 1882. DEAR POST:-The liberal Republican nominations recently made have given unbounded satisfaction to every. anti bourbon in this county. The peer less Dockery at the head of the state ticket will, by his potent oratory and astute management, shake Bennett bourbonism to its very foundation.

The selection of Major W. A. Guthrie as our caudidate for Superior Court Judge, has ostensibly displayed the Every Thing in the Grocery Line wisdom of the liberal convention which convened at Raleigh on the 7th ultimo. Major Guthrie is a popular gentleman and one of the best lawyers in the state His candidacy will augment the Republican majority in this county twen ty per cent., and he will have an easy walk over his Republican competitor, who has already been appointed to the vacant judgeship by Mr. Figure Head Jarvis.

Col. Wm. P. Canaday, the stalwart. champion of the people's rights against bourbon despotism, will be elected to Undertaker and Cabinet congress by an overwhelming majority. for the pure patriotism, generous spirit and illustrious services of Col. Canaday have commended him to the people of his district.

The bourbons here are in a dilemms over arranging their county slate. The forlorn attitude and gloomy prospects have not decreased their ambition for the empty honors. Already there are four independent candidates in the field for; county offices. We presume that these independents could not afford to wait for the Democratic convention for fear that the bosses would repudiate quent desire to void and inability to their claims. The Republicans and liberals will be satisfied with their county ticket just as they have been wont to be, and we will have no independents in the way Among the eminent gentlemen spoken lature, are Captain E. P. Powers and M. N. Leary, jr., both are anti prohibitionists. Captain Powers is the beacon light of the liberal party in eastern Carolina and would be a power in the next legislature. Mr. Leary has been long known as an indefatigable worker for his party. He canvassed this county tast summer against the prohibition bill and boldly elucidated the deceptive chacteristics of that pernicious measure. As a debater Mr. Leary is the peer of the peer of any bourbon in our county. D. A. SMITH.
