

THE WILMINGTON POST.
W. F. CANADAY, Proprietor.
WILMINGTON, N. C.
SUNDAY MORNING, OCT. 8, 1882.
Liberal State Ticket
Nominated by the Liberal Convention, held at Raleigh, June 7th, 1882, and endorsed by the Republican State Convention of June 14th, 1882.
FOR CONGRESSMAN AT LARGE, OLIVER H. DOCKERY, Of Richmond.
FOR SUPREME COURT, GEORGE N. FOLK, Of Caldwell.
FOR JUDGES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT C. C. POOL, Of Pasquotank. JOHN A. MOORE, Of Halifax. FRANCIS H. DABBY, Of New Hanover. W. A. GUTHERIE, Of Cumberland. L. F. CHUCHILL, Of Rutherford. LEONIDAS C. EDWARDS, Of Granville.
FOR CONGRESS, THIRD DISTRICT, WILLIAM P. CANADAY, Of New Hanover.

Bishop J. W. Hood supports the liberal coalition movement, and thinks it is to the interest of the state that it be successful.
Prof. Jos. Price the great colored orator of North Carolina, one of the ablest Republican speakers in the south is supporting the liberal coalition ticket.
Hon. Kenneth Raynor anxiously supports the liberal coalition ticket, and says, tell all my old friends in North Carolina to stand together this time for the good of my dear old mother state.
Ex Secretary of the United States Treasury, Boutwell, of Mass., is very emphatic in his support of the Liberal movement in the south, he says he is anxious to see the liberals and Republicans all over the south coalition and run candidate for the various offices.

Hon. Frank Hatton, First Assistant Postmaster General, one of the most astute politicians in the country, and the best assistant Postmaster General the country has ever had, is outspoken in his advocacy of the liberal movement in this state, as well as the whole south.
General Green B. Raum, the commissioner of Internal Revenue, says that every true Union man and Republican in North Carolina should unite with the liberal Democrats in carrying the state in the interest of peace, prosperity and happiness of all the people.

HEADQUARTERS DEMOCRATIC COM. RALEIGH, N. C.
Coke, chairman, of the Democratic press of the state: The liberal coalition party is gaining thousand of votes every day. We have used every means to stop the liberal independent Democrats from growing, but all to no purpose; there is but one way left, namely: to lie it out of existence. Therefore I have issued order No. 1, "to commence lying and to lie like h—l." The Democratic editor who tells the biggest lie shall have a place on Governor Jarvis's staff and a rattle besides.

Special telegram from Bennett to Coke: I am beat by thirty thousand majority unless something is done at once. Coke to Bennett: I have just issued order No. 1 and 2 to all bourbon Democratic candidates, and to the press, to commence a systematic course of lying, and sticking to it. And to swear that all the liberals are returning to the old bourbon lines, and to get out independent straightout Republicans to run for office against the liberal Republican candidates. If this don't help us, dear Bennett, you are gone. My information from all parts of the state is that Dockery is making a splendid canvass and will beat you at least 80,000; but I hope order No. 1 and 2 will have the desired effect—fool the people and elect you.

Coke to Jarvis: "The Republicans are uniting on the liberal movement, what shall we do, dear Tom?" Jarvis to Coke: "Issue order No. 2, send over the state and hire colored and white Republicans to run independent for office. We must have some of the leading Republicans, and we know our men, and will get them to organize the straightouts; we will compliment them as being the only true Republicans in the state, and when you cannot get them to join the straightout movement for complacency, then give them money. Yes, my dear Coke, must work this order in conjunction with order No. 1, wherever we can get independent Republicans to run against the regular nominees. We can obtain funds by counting an equal number of votes for each, whether independent or Democratic nominees. Don't you see my dear Coke, how this little game will work?"

COL. J. J. YOUNG
Is making a splendid canvass for the coalition. Speaking every day, and says the state will go 80,000 majority for the liberal ticket.
HON. D. L. RUSSELL.
Everybody knows this gentleman has been liberal in his views for years and he is to-day doing all he can for the coalition ticket, has been and will continue to make speeches in favor of it.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC LIE NAILED-HON. W. A. SMITH.
This gentleman is being quoted by the bourbon press as being against the liberal ticket. We state after a conversation with Col. Smith that he is not fighting our ticket and he will vote for it.
SECRETARY FOLGER.
This gentleman heartily indorses the liberal coalition ticket in North Carolina, and says the good liberal Democrats and Republicans should unite and carry the state by all means; the good citizens of this state can trust such able men as Judge Folger. He always advises for the good of all the people.

HON. JOHN POOL.
This gentleman is an old Republican. The Democratic bourbon press abused him up to 1880, when he came out for Hancock, they changed their tone and could not say enough in his favor. But Mr. Pool to-day supports the liberal coalition ticket, and he says that all good men should stand by it.
MAKE WAY FOR THEM.
Open your ranks, liberals, and take in the recruits as they come. We have never seen an army increase so rapidly as the great liberal coalition party for the past two weeks. Not a day nor an hour passes but that we hear of hundreds joining in this grand movement; but still we have room for all.

TEN THOUSAND AND STILL THEY COME.
Ten thousand liberal Democrats have joined the great liberal coalition party in the past ten days and still they come. Every county has some, and the most of them have hundreds of them. It looks now as if at least 50,000 white Democrats will join before the election. If it keeps on our majority will be as large as it was against the prohibition bill in 1881.

FRED DOUGLASS, ESQ.
This great colored leader was reported a few days ago, as being against the liberal movement, and the Democratic papers were full of compliments for him; but he has come out squarely for the liberal coalition ticket; and now these same Democratic papers are abusing him, but the world continues to move, and liberalism will surely be victorious.

HON. THOS. SETTLE.
Judge Thomas Settle, who runs as the Republican candidate for Governor in 1876, says if he lived now in North Carolina he should vote for the liberal ticket. No man who ever lived in this state is so well beloved by all of our people as Judge Thomas Settle, and his advice will be received and accepted with thanks by every honest Republican in the state.

HON. WM. E. CHANDLER.
This gentleman, who is in President Arthur's cabinet as Secretary of the Navy, desires it understood plainly and distinctly that he is unqualifiedly in favor of the liberal movement in the south. He says the better element of the Democratic party should unite with the Republican and form a great liberal party in the south, that will manage the affairs for the good of all the people, and he wants to see the present coalition ticket elected.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION OF DUPLIN.
On Saturday last, the Republicans of Duplin county met at the court house in Kenansville, and a grand affair it was, we have never seen one more enthusiastic. The convention endorsed the liberal state and county ticket.
We desire to speak of some of the leaders of the Republican party of that county, who deserve particular mention and thanks at our hands. Messrs. A. J. Stanford, A. E. Middleton, Irvin Beaman, Amos McCullough, H. Williams and others worked like good and faithful Republicans, and they will continue to work for the liberal coalition ticket until the sun goes down on election day.

HON. GEO. C. GORHAM.
This gentleman is the editor of the National Republican, the organ of the Republican party at the capital, and also the administration, is out in open letter to Mr. C. L. Cooke of the 7th North Carolina District.
Mr. Gorham is one of the ablest and most reliable Republicans in this country, and we hope that Mr. Cooke and all the Republicans in this state will read Mr. Gorham's letter, which we publish in another column. Mr. Gorham takes great interest in the prosperity of the south, and he believes the only way to reclaim the south from bourbon rule is for the Republicans and liberal Democrats to unite and act together, and by such a coalition liberal public sentiment, and all the allies with men who will treat all classes of citizens equally alike.

WHAT A CHANGE.
It has always been the thieving Republican before, but now they say honor and respect Republicans, but a liberal to have no use for. What a change has come over them. The fact is they see that there is great danger of the bourbon losing the state, owing to the foot of the coalition, which accounts for their feelings toward the liberals. But they cannot fool Republicans. We know the way we have been abused, slandered and kicked by these same bourbon leading who pretend to have such very high respect for us. We have formed the coalition with the liberal Democrats and we are going to carry the state, and every liberal Democrat who joins the combination will have the same show for the federal and other patronage that the Republicans enjoy. We are living for the future, not for the dead past, and those who are not against us in redeeming the state from the hands of the present thieves shall be treated as friends in the future. It matters not what has been their past record. We can trust any man who refuses to-day the orders of the bourbon bosses.

Such men as Johnson, Price, Cooke, Leach, Devreax, Cook, Day, Clarke, Darby, Churchell, Folk, York, Edwards, Latham, Stewart, King, Lyons, Powers, Troy, Respass, Sparrow, Loftin and thousands of young men who are able to lead, and have acted with the Democratic party have now joined hands with the Republican party to redeem the state from the hands of the bourbon leaders, and to run it after it is redeemed for the benefit of all the people. Both Republicans and Democrats can act under this arrangement without any surrender of former principles. They have agreed to act together during this campaign for the good of society and the state, just as we would all act together in case the state was invaded by a foreign enemy. Let every true son of North Carolina lay down all prejudice against individuals and act together, and the state will be in honest hands very soon.

STRAIGHTOUTS VS. REPUBLICANS.
Republicans have you stopped to think of the cause which has so changed the bourbon press toward certain straightout Republicans, and the reason these bourns are abusing the liberals so unmercifully. If our friends will only stop and consider for a moment they will surely come at the truth. In the first place they see the only way they can defeat the liberal movement is by patting a few men, whom they have been all their lives abusing, on the back and telling them that they are splendid fellows, and to stand out against the liberals, well knowing by such a course on the part of the Republicans they, the bourbon Democrats can continue in power. In the second place they are abusing the liberals from the fact that they the Democratic press, see the handwriting on the wall; that through the movement they are about to be hurled from power. We can tell them now that the forty thousand liberal Democrats and the hundred and thirty thousand Republicans are going to stand united like a stone wall, and the old North State will once more arise, and on the 7th day of November and shake off the shackles of bourbonism, radicalism and bossism, and for many years to come the state will be run for the good of the whole people.

THE PRESIDENT AND NORTH CAROLINA.
Judge Settle, of North Carolina, and William P. Canaday, the Republican candidate for congress in the third district of that state, returned from New York yesterday on their way home. While in New York they called upon the President in company with George C. Gorham, editor of the National Republican. The President being told that representations had been made to the effect that he was indifferent to the success of the coalition ticket, replied, with much emphasis and energy, that it was wholly unfounded, and that, on the contrary, he was most earnest in the hope of success. He held it to be the ticket of the Republicans, duly endorsed by the Republican convention, and hoped that every Republican would yield it his support. The President was very earnest, and said he desired his approval of the coalition to be plainly understood. He expressed great confidence in the success of the Republican ticket in New York—National Republican.

The President said he wanted it understood, and requested us to say to the Republicans of North Carolina, that he endorsed the liberal coalition ticket and he very particularly desired it elected. The reason why President Arthur was so emphatic about the matter, he heard that he had been misquoted by the enemies of the coalition ticket, as being in favor of the so-called straightouts. We state upon the very best authority, that of the President himself, that the coalition liberal ticket has the undivided support of the Administration.

Coke to Jarvis: "There is great danger of losing the state, what shall we do?" Jarvis to Coke: "Issue order No. 1 to all candidates and the press, to swear that all the liberals are coming back to their old duty, and when they come to, if they must stick to it. We must carry the state at any cost of money and telling of lies. We carried the state before by fraud and we must hold it now by fraud."

LIBERAL CONVENTION IN SAMPSON.
The liberals held a large and enthusiastic convention on Saturday 30th ult., at Clinton. The court house was crowded—it is said by knowing ones to have been the largest convention ever held in Sampson county by any party. It was presided over by Mr. Clifton Ward, and the following splendid ticket was nominated:
Hon. John Barden for the Senate, Messrs. H. C. Monk and John R. Smith for the House of Representatives, and Calton Sessions for Register of Deeds. Resolutions were unanimously adopted endorsing the liberal state ticket, and Mr. William P. Canaday for congress.

We learn that the convention was perfectly harmonious, every man pledging himself to do everything possible for the success of the state, congressional and county tickets.
The liberal movement in Sampson will carry the county by a large majority. The very best citizens in the county are for the ticket and will stand vigorously by it. Clifton Ward, Carlton Sessions and the united Republican party of the county will stand by the liberal ticket.
We congratulate our friends in Sampson on the very excellent ticket they have brought out, and we feel perfectly confident the whole ticket will carry the county.

THE PRESIDENT AND NORTH CAROLINA.
Judge Settle, of North Carolina, and William P. Canaday, the Republican candidate for congress in the third district of that state, returned from New York yesterday on their way home. While in New York they called upon the President in company with George C. Gorham, editor of the National Republican. The President being told that representations had been made to the effect that he was indifferent to the success of the coalition ticket, replied, with much emphasis and energy, that it was wholly unfounded, and that, on the contrary, he was most earnest in the hope of success. He held it to be the ticket of the Republicans, duly endorsed by the Republican convention, and hoped that every Republican would yield it his support. The President was very earnest, and said he desired his approval of the coalition to be plainly understood. He expressed great confidence in the success of the Republican ticket in New York—National Republican.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR.
Anxious for the Success of the Coalition Ticket in North Carolina.
C. L. COOKE, Esq.
Sir, You have done me the honor to send me your published "card to the voters of the seventh Congressional district of North Carolina," in which you announce yourself as an independent candidate for Congress. My only object in addressing you this public note is to correct an error in your card. You make an appeal to Southern Republicans against the coalition ticket, and say to them:
I honestly believe that the so-called liberal movement was conceived and organized by that class of men who have induced a few broken-down, disappolated office-seeking Democrats to join them, expressly for the purpose of preventing North Carolina from contributing her influence in furtherance of the nomination of a Stalwart candidate for the Presidency in 1884. They have the audacity to say to Republicans when they have nominated a bourbon Democratic Ku-Klux sympathizer, "You must vote for the nominee, the administration is in favor of it, and the President authorized me to say that you would never get an office if you didn't." My countrymen, be not deceived by such miserable clap-trap. There is no truth in such statements.

Of course you are right in denying that the President has ever authorized any one to say that he would punish voters by non-appointment to office. He does not use the public offices as rewards or punishments. But when you deny the statements that the President is in favor of the coalition nominees, and each of them, you are mistaken. To guide you to a knowledge of the truth in this matter, and that is what I have your desire, I will say to you on Saturday, the 23d ult., President Arthur stated to several persons, of whom I was one, at his residence in the city of New York, that he was not only earnestly for the liberal movement in North Carolina, and anxious for the election of the whole coalition ticket (which, of course, includes Dr. York), but that he did not wish his position on the subject to be doubted or misunderstood. This is not, of course, any reason why any voter in North Carolina should support the coalition, but it is a good reason why the weight of President Arthur's name should not be thrown into the scale against it. You would not be a willing party to a fraud, and the information herein conveyed will save you from the mortification of being an unwilling one. If any voter in North Carolina should desire to know how President Arthur would vote if he was a citizen of state, you can safely assure him that he would vote for the coalition ticket throughout.

As to whether the Republican nominee for the Presidency in 1884 shall be a "Stalwart" of 1880, or an equally reliable friend of equal political rights who was not then so designated, is not now the issue. Whether honest majorities shall be represented in congress and in the next electoral college instead of bourbon minorities of much greater consequence. The man who stood by Grant in 1880—and I shall always be proud of having been one of them—cannot better exhibit their continued devotion to him than by cooperating heartily and generously with all who will uphold what he then insisted upon, viz: "The right of every citizen to the vote just as he pleases, and to have his vote counted just as it was cast." I hope I shall not give offense by expressing the hope that you will yet decide not to aid in the election of the bourbon candidate in your district. You cannot but agree with me that his party in North Carolina can never survive, and that the freedom and integrity of the ballot-box can be assured. Dr. York is committed to liberalism, which means fair elections, free schools, home rule, and genuine restoration to the Union. Besides, if you help the free trade Democracy to abolish duties on imports, internal revenue taxation will have to be perpetuated and increased. How can you abolish internal revenue taxes by indirectly aiding a party which is pledged against external taxation? Taxes must come from some source. Pardon the freedom with which I have replied to the circular you sent me, and believe me to be, very respectfully, yours,
Geo. C. GORHAM.

Hon. Geo. C. Gorham is the editor of the National Republican, a paper that has always stood by and defended the Union people of the south, and has from the very first advocated the liberal movement. He has placed every man in this state under personal obligations to him.

Mr. John H. Whiteman, of Wilmington also made a speech in his usual graceful style. Mr. Whiteman is a gifted speaker and ardent advocate of liberal Republicanism.
No other business appearing the convention adjourned sine die.
J. S. LEARY, Chairman.
W. G. PERRY, Sec'y.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING.
In the midst of the campaign let me beg space enough in your columns to announce to his many friends the marriage of Mr. Samuel Lawrence, a prominent colored politician of this place, to Miss Clarice Ryan, one of the belles of Coatesy. The ceremony took place on Wednesday evening last, at 8:30 o'clock at the A. M. E. Zion Church, Elder Thurber officiating. The attendants were Mr. R. S. Taylor and Miss Carr Cherry (sister of Mrs. E. E. Green of New York City), Mr. Samuel Hill, of the Wilson Times, and Miss Louisa Cherry, Mr. L. T. Boyd and Miss Carrie Malcom, of Wilmington, Mr. E. C. and Clay and Miss Georgia Mathews. The Church was filled with friends both white and colored, of the contracting parties.
At the ceremony, an elegant supper was laid at the residence of the bride. There were many handsome wedding presents.
R. S. T.

LORD HAVE MERCY UPON THE WALLS.
Some time ago we published a communication from Kenansville, Duplin county, headed as above. We learn that Mr. C. H. Brown has been charged with the authorship. For the benefit of all concerned, we state most positively, that Mr. Brown was not the author of the communication.

General U. J. Grant was informed by good authority, supports the liberal coalition ticket in Virginia and North Carolina. He says that all good liberal men should unite and elect the liberal candidates. We can afford to take the advice of such men as Grant, Arthur, Conkling, Sherman, Fry, Boutwell, Folger, Chandler, Hatton, Cameron, Gorham, New, Settle, Pool, Douglas and Russell, men whom we have trusted and never found to mislead us. They all say vote the liberal coalition ticket.

THE CUMBERLAND CONVENTION.
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., September 30th, 1882.
EDITOR POST—Pursuant to previous announcement the Republicans and liberals of Cumberland county met to-day in a convention in the Farmers' Hall, of this town, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. Great interest was manifested in the convention. Every remote spot in the county was well represented. A large party gathered on the occasion. The Fayetteville brass band was in attendance and rendered fine music, which added much to the enjoyment of the day.
At 12 o'clock M., Messrs. Ed. P. Powers (our gallant Dr.) ascended the rostrum and called the vast multitude to order in a few well pointed remarks, and then announced Captain J. S. Leary permanent chairman of the convention and W. G. Perry secretary.

On accepting the chairmanship of convention Captain Leary made a fine speech, replete with encouragement and teeming with brilliant sentiment. He paid a glowing eulogy to the liberal movement, and then declared the convention ready for business.
The following resolution was offered and adopted amid tremendous applause:
Resolved, That we the Republicans and liberals of Cumberland county in convention assembled do hereby nominate Mr. Wm. B. Surles, the independent liberal candidate for the Senate, from the 16th senatorial district of North Carolina, and recognize in him a true and tried friend of the people, civil liberty and local self government, we will give to him our hearty, free, full and undivided support.

The chairman then introduced Mr. Surles, who came forward and addressed the convention. He said his history was well known, and that he was in full accord with the liberal party, and that he was opposed to bossism and sumptuary laws, and closed by thanking the convention.
The following ticket was then nominated, each candidate making a brief speech of acceptance after his respective nomination.
For the Legislature, E. P. P. Powers and H. J. Willford.
For Sheriff, O. H. Blocker.
For Clerk of Superior Court, T. S. Lutterloh.
For Register of Deeds, W. G. Perry.
For Surveyor, W. G. Hall.
For Coroner, James Yarr.

A motion indorsing Hon. O. H. Dockery and Hon. Wm. P. Canaday was unanimously adopted.
Hon. Stewart Killison, of Raleigh was then presented to the convention by the chairman. Mr. Killison's speech was pregnant with words of wisdom and advice. He counselled for harmony, and said that upon the liberal movement depended our success. The speech was preeminent, and won many new admirers for the distinguished visitor.
Mr. John H. Whiteman, of Wilmington also made a speech in his usual graceful style. Mr. Whiteman is a gifted speaker and ardent advocate of liberal Republicanism.
No other business appearing the convention adjourned sine die.
J. S. LEARY, Chairman.
W. G. PERRY, Sec'y.

Mr. Editor:—There was a rousing Republican meeting held on the 9th ult., at Angola, Onslow county. The crowd was large and attentive throughout. Messrs. B. King, Murrell and P. W. Williams made interesting and convincing addresses, advocating the liberal movement as being the best and surest way of defeating the bourbon Democrats in the next election.
Mr. Ed. Shiver, the regular Democratic nominee, being present was given an opportunity to deliver himself. All that he said was easily answered to the satisfaction of all present, judging from the spirit of the crowd, and the statements of man liberals as well as Republicans. Onslow county will roll up a large vote for Hon. W. P. Canaday, and the whole ticket. Be assured Onslow will do her full duty.
Strong resolutions were introduced by the writer to the effect that Messrs. P. W. Williams and A. Murrell be authorized to organize Republican and liberal meetings throughout the county, and that the voters of Onslow county pledge themselves to work fraternally for the success of their friend, Hon. W. P. Canaday, and for the benefit of Republican party. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. By request of the meeting I send the report for publication in the Post.
Respectfully,
R. KIMY, Secretary.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.
In pursuance of previous notice given the Republicans of Brunswick county met in convention at Town Creek for the purpose of nominating county officers, this Sept. 28th, 1882.

On motion, L. P. Swain was elected secretary.
On motion a committee on credentials was appointed, namely, Chas. McDonald, Peter Tucker, John K. Willis, D. R. Walker, and R. J. Waters.
While this committee was in consultation, M. W. H. Branch, being loudly called for came forward and made a ringing Republican speech, touching upon the leading issues of the present campaign, dealing heavy blows to the Bourbon Democracy. His speech had good effect and will produce much on the 7th day of November next.
The committee on credentials then returned reporting no contest for seats in the convention.
On motion of D. R. Walker, the convention then proceeded to nominate the following named gentlemen for representative and county offices, viz: Wm. Grisset, House of Representatives; E. W. Taylor, Sheriff; L. P. Swain, Clerk of the Court; R. M. Westcott, County Treasurer; H. K. Ruark, Register of Deeds; G. W. Grisset, Co. Surveyor; Jas. Tharp, Coroner.

Mr. Editor:—There was a rousing Republican meeting held on the 9th ult., at Angola, Onslow county. The crowd was large and attentive throughout. Messrs. B. King, Murrell and P. W. Williams made interesting and convincing addresses, advocating the liberal movement as being the best and surest way of defeating the bourbon Democrats in the next election.
Mr. Ed. Shiver, the regular Democratic nominee, being present was given an opportunity to deliver himself. All that he said was easily answered to the satisfaction of all present, judging from the spirit of the crowd, and the statements of man liberals as well as Republicans. Onslow county will roll up a large vote for Hon. W. P. Canaday, and the whole ticket. Be assured Onslow will do her full duty.
Strong resolutions were introduced by the writer to the effect that Messrs. P. W. Williams and A. Murrell be authorized to organize Republican and liberal meetings throughout the county, and that the voters of Onslow county pledge themselves to work fraternally for the success of their friend, Hon. W. P. Canaday, and for the benefit of Republican party. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. By request of the meeting I send the report for publication in the Post.
Respectfully,
R. KIMY, Secretary.

Three Car Loads.
Messrs. F. & H. Fries, of Salem, N. C., who propose to make an exhibition of Forsyth county, in the way of relief, curiosities, minerals, manufactured goods and machinery, have succeeded in getting together a large and varied collection.
They will have in their collection many relics and curiosities which will interest. As Forsyth county is, among other things, noted for its mineral wealth, Messrs. Fries' collection of mineral specimens, relics and curiosities will no doubt be peculiarly interesting to all. They will make an exhibit of manufactured goods, among which will be a full line of their celebrated woolen goods they will also exhibit various machinery, agricultural implements, &c. They inform Secretary Williams that they will bring about three car loads and will require sixty feet space at least, in which to show their collection. This will be the largest single exhibit that has ever been made in this State; and will place Forsyth largely in the lead of any other county.
This reflects great credit on Messrs. F. & H. Fries as energetic, public spirited, live business men, such as any county or state may well be proud of.—News and Observer.

President Arthur, the colored man's friend, who defended the colored men's rights before the war, says if he lived in North Carolina, he would vote the liberal ticket.
