THE POST ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE POOR.

This has been a very cold spell of weather for North Carolina, and we wonder if our readers and the comfortably fixed people of Wilmington have thought of the poor, who have nothing to keep the body warm, neither wood or clothes. We know some of the poor of our city who are suffering with cold and hunger, while there were thousands in our midst who threw away enough on Thanksgiving Day to have made these poor people comfortable for one day at least. But Thanksgiving Day has passed and they are still cold and hungry, and we appeal to our people to something of their abundance to relieve the distress of those who are suffering. We would like to see our business men form an association and appoint some of their number to act as a committee to hunt up those who absolutely need aid, and relieve them. This is a matter that should not be left entirely to the ladies, from the fact that they cannot always give the proper investigation to such matters, especially in cold, damp, windy weather, the very time the poor need help, therefore the men should take hold of the matter. Why can't we have a Young Men's Charitable Club? We have Young Men's Democratic Clubs. These young men can be of great service to the poor, and will have their thanks if they will give some of their energies in relieving their wants. Come, young men, we hope you will take hold of this matter and organize a Young Men's Charitable Club, and see how much good you can do during this cold winter.

GOOD ADVICE.

Our friend Hon. George O. Gorham, editor of the National Republican, published at Washington, has been, and is, writing and publishing some able editorials in his paper concerning the true situation of political affairs, and the course that should be pursued by those who prefer principle to prejudice. There is, in our opinion, no paper deserving more the confidence of the people published in the country. Mr. Gorham in his Wednesday morning's paper says:

"In all future combinations for the success of Republican principles in 1884 political architects will do well to consider that no Bourbon sympathizer or apologist in the Republican ranks can command the votes of the northern negroes or of any white men who are thoroughly and honestly in favor of maintaining manhood suffrage. There is no proposition for the government to do anything in support of negro suffrage at the south. That has long since been abandoned. But the Republican party cannot hold both the friends and enemies of a free ballot and a fair count. It will in 1884 be lifted high above the little ring in which individuals are contending, or it will not be in the fight. It cannot marshal the majority on any matter of living or dead. All who are not Bourbon or their willing tools must be united, and the candidate must be one who can inspire confidence. Our party can do but only be a great factor in the struggle. It must have the co-operation of, or most itself throughout, with separate sections of the people, with separate special and worthy aims in view, as can be consistently united. Above all things, the party must go to the people, on whose strength shoulders it mounted to power twenty-one years ago, when cotton proclaimed itself king. Another king there is now to be resisted. A power sits heavily on legislatures, and makes Senators with money extorted from the people. State and national conventions and elections are pointed by efforts to put private mortgages on all who are likely to obtain power. Subsidized newspapers defile with their venom all who do not bow to whatever Gesler's cap may be placed on a pole in the service of their masters. The Republican party must not be the weak favorite, but the resolute rebel against this king. This it cannot be by whistling to the people to come and further schemes of one or another faction, but it can triumph by accepting the late elections as a call for a reconstituting of parties, and by rapidly moving the support of the heaviest battalions which may be found ready for right action.

Special to The Republican

New Orleans, Nov. 29.—It appears that St. Mary's Parish was thrown out because the clerk of the court inadvertently failed to attach the certificate to the returning officer's returns that they were correct. Copies of duplicates were in his office. The law requires that two duplicate returns be filed with the clerk, which was done—one to be forwarded by the clerk to the secretary of state. This was done by the clerk, with the necessary certificate that the returns were correct. A copy of the returns were sent by the returning officer. This officer is a Democrat, and he and the clerk afterward, to cover any contingency, again certified to the governor and secretary of state that the returns were correct and that Kellogg received 1,891 majority. They also sent all the poll commissioner's returns, sworn to, and the tally-sheets from the different polls. Assumption, a white parish, which gave Kellogg 1,100 majority, was also thrown out upon a technicality. Kellogg's large white vote in these parishes seems to have exasperated the governor and the canvassers. Notwithstanding the fact that the whole election machinery was in the hands of McEnery and his appointees, the final compilation was signed by the canvassers; and notwithstanding the throwing out of these parishes and several polls of other parishes, Kellogg has about 2,000 declared majority. Every poll thrown out gave Kellogg a majority. McEnery canvassed on Ly in Kellogg's district. In a speech at Lake Charles against Kellogg he said: "Remember that you are citizens of Louisiana, free from federal dictation, and have a Democratic Governor." At New Iberia he said: "It is the duty of every Democrat to vote against Kellogg; for there will be no peace in the state while this political agitator remains in office. His defeat will wipe out the last vestige of the Republican party in the state." The New Orleans Picayune this morning editorially says: "In reality we suppose no one seriously doubts either that Mr. Kellogg is a citizen of this state, or that he was duly elected by the voters of the third district. Every attempt to defeat the will of the people by legal subtleties and flimsy pretenses is a blow at popular sovereignty and a stain upon the honor of the party which makes it." The pressure of the business men from the city, the planters from Kellogg's district, and the tone of the press (all, both city and state, conceding his election) will, it is believed, compel the Governor to reconsider his determination and give Kellogg the certificate.

A. J. DUMONT,

President Republican State Central Committee.

The Right Man in the Right Place.

About a year ago the Brooklyn Aldermen voted away the use of certain streets to the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad Company, more commonly known as the "Burr Job." The resolutions were promptly vetoed by the Mayor and an injunction was granted by Judge Gilbert, of the Supreme Court, restraining the Aldermen from overriding the veto. But in their zeal to further the job the Aldermen rode roughshod over both veto and injunction. They were accordingly arraigned for contempt of court, when fifteen of them were adjudged guilty and sentenced to Raymond Street Jail, from which they were afterward released on bail pending the appeal of the case. The Court of Appeals yesterday affirmed the legality of the commitment, and now the fifteen Aldermanic offenders will have to do penance in Raymond Street Jail for periods ranging from ten to thirty days each. To the unfortunate culprit, as one of them recently put it, "it rough." But Brooklyn will have the satisfaction—which would amount to a luxury in this city—of seeing some of its Aldermen where they will do the least mischief if not the most good.—New York Herald.

The Colored People's Carolina Agricultural Society.

Will hold its second grand annual Fair December 12, 13, 14, and 15, 1882, at Wadesboro, N. C. The colored people of North and South Carolina are invited to participate in the workings of this society. We are laboring to elevate our race in the things that are lasting. It is for us alone to advance our future condition and render our destiny a glorious one. There must be a unity of action among us in the attainment of this end. One of the highest objects of this society is to produce this unity and incite the colored race to a deeper interest in the agricultural and mechanical arts; and we ask the colored people to bring to the Fair a small quantity of everything they have raised this year—corn, cotton, wheat, oats, rye, peas, beans, potatoes, dried fruit, pumpkins, turnips, beets, cabbage, and all other things raised on the farm. Bring your finest stock—horses, cows, hogs, sheep, chickens, geese, ducks, &c. Be sure to and by bringing something that you have made or produced. The amusements will be worth seeing, and the white people are cordially invited to attend our Fair. Reduced rates on all the railroads leading to Wadesboro will be given. For further particulars address the Secretary at Wadesboro, N. C. B. F. POWELL, Assistant Sec'y, SIDNEY BROADWAY, President.

Dublin Under Curfew Law.

One murder and two attempts to murder having been committed in Dublin Mr. Gladstone has placed that city under what is known as the Curfew section of the Repression act. The section reads as follows: (8.) In a proclaimed district if a person is out of his place of abode at any time after one hour later than sunset and before sunrise under suspicious circumstances any constable may arrest that person and bring him forthwith before a justice of the peace, and such justice, after inquiry into the circumstances of the case, may either discharge him or take the necessary steps, by committing him to prison or taking bail, to bring him before a court of summary jurisdiction acting under this act, and if such person, on appearing before a court of summary jurisdiction, acting under this act, fails to satisfy the Court that he was out of his place of abode upon some lawful occasion of business, he shall be guilty of an offence against this act.

Death of Col. N. M. Long.

Col. N. M. Long died yesterday morning at 1 o'clock, after a protracted illness. He was taken ill last spring and never entirely recovered, but improved so as to relieve his family of anxiety and a few days before his death was especially cheerful. He had a chill last week and took cold and continued to grow worse until his death yesterday morning. Col. Long, in the course of a long life did a great deal of good with his large property. He never turned the poor away from his door empty handed, but always responded liberally to the cry of distress. We render our sympathies to his family in their distress.—Roswell News.

On the report of Attorney-General Brewster, the President has ordered the removal of the marshal of the District of Columbia, Charles E. Henry; Postmaster D. B. Alger, Assistant Postmaster M. M. Parker, M. D. Helm, foreman of the Congressional Record, and George E. Spencer, commissioner of the Union Pacific Railroad. They are charged with interfering with administration of justice in the star-route case.

Bartholomew Fuller, Esq., a prominent lawyer died at his residence in Durham, on Tuesday last. He formerly resided at Fayetteville. Three years ago he changed his residence to Durham. The State sustains a heavy loss in the death of this gentleman.—North Star.

An Indianapolis paper seriously says: "Among the most intimate friends of Gov. Hendricks the probability of his ultimate death is freely admitted."

Official Vote of the State for Judges.

Rubin, Democrat	110,282
Folk, Liberal	104,126
Sheppard, Democrat	109,905
Pool, Liberal	104,878
Phillips, Democrat	110,010
Moore, Liberal	104,891
McKoy, Democrat	103,977
Darby, Liberal	104,481
MacRae, Democrat	109,788
Guthrie, Liberal	105,361
Gilmore, Democrat	110,029
Edwards, Liberal	104,942
Shipp, Democrat	109,853
Churchill, Liberal	104,581

The Raleigh News & Observer speaking of the returns, says:

Gilmore's vote is the largest of the Superior Court Judges, MacRae's the smallest, the difference being 296. On the Republican side, Guthrie like Dockery ran ahead, and Darby like Folk fell behind. The difference between Darby and Guthrie is an even 1,000. The Moore vote probably represents the actual Republican vote, 104,891. Darby fell off from that 680 and Guthrie ran ahead 470. These figures fully sustain our estimates published on November 19, when we said Rubin's majority is apt to be about 5,000. The candidates for superior court judgeships ran pretty much along together, there being perhaps not more than 300 difference on either side. The Democratic majority for these offices appears to be between 4,500 and 5,000. We missed Rubin's majority 143. The difference between the highest and lowest vote for judges on the Democratic side is 256, not quite 3000. The average of these majorities is 5,081. Darby fell off more than we expected, hence McKoy's majority is 500 larger than we anticipated, and Guthrie ran ahead more than we expected, and hence McKoy's vote is 254 less than McKoy's, but McKoy's majority is 1,244 greater than McKoy's. That comes apparently from the fact that the Republican brethren did not give Darby a hearty support, but worked hard for Guthrie. Although Phillips and Gilmore both received more votes than McKoy, his majority is the largest. In like manner they did not give Folk a hearty support but worked hard for Dockery. But the News & Observer says nothing about the 450 votes thrown out by the county canvassing board of Northampton county on account of the fact that an ignorant Democratic registrar made the returns to Frank N. Darby, in place of Frank H. Darby. Add these votes and Mr. Darby will reduce Mr. McKoy's majority to 5,166.

Mr. Thos. Darby of Florida, was in this city. We are always glad to see this young gentleman back in our city. We are glad to learn from some personal friends of Mr. Darby's that he has made a very large fortune, in the past five years, in the mill business, in the orange grove state.

We have received from Captain J. S. W. Eagles the proceedings of the Sunday school convention at Sand Branch of the A. M. E. Church, August 23d, 1882. The report is a splendid one, and speaks well for the teachers and managers. We hope they will go on in their good work.

The Washington Post thinks it is "morally certain" that Judge Kelly will fall utterly in his effort to abolish the liquor taxes. Perhaps so, but if the Democrats do their duty he will not. If the North Carolina delegation abridges the pledges of their party in this State they will vote against the whole internal Revenue taxes.—Charlotte Journal.

The A. M. E. Zion Church conference of the eastern district of North Carolina, is in session at St. Luke's church in this city. Bishops Hood, Jones and Loxor are all here with a very large number of delegates, all of whom are fine looking men and able ministers. We congratulate Bishop Hood on the very great success he has attained in his labors in this state in the cause of the church. He organized the first congregation of the A. M. E. Zion Church in this state over twenty years ago in this city, and to-day there are over 50,000 members, with upwards of one hundred ministers. Bishop Hood is one of the ablest, most energetic and successful colored divines in this country. He is never at rest, wherever and whenever you hear of him he is at work in the glorious cause, and his labors have been crowned with a great victory. Bishop Hood has now added other fields, we hope he will continue to pay his annual visit to his many friends in this city. He has the prayers of the church and the people for a long and happy life, and that his labors in other states may be as beneficial to the church as it has been in North Carolina.

St. Luke's congregation has just finished their new, handsome and elegant brick church, which would do credit to any people. It has a seating capacity of least twelve hundred, and we understand it is paid for. This building was commenced three years ago, and is worth at least $12,000. The fact (when it is known that there is not a man in the congregation worth $2000) speaks volumes for the management of the building committee, who had charge of the matter and for the whole congregation, and in a house to some of the white congregations, who have been in debt for the construction of their churches for years. But the members of St. Luke's congregation were to work themselves, individually, and do the work; each man putting in some time at half rate, and those who did not, were paid in money. They were determined men and women; they knew no such word as fail. The congregation was they succeeded in the construction of an handsome church edifice as there is in the city.

Interesting To Ladies.

Our lady readers can hardly fail to have their attention called this week to the latest combination of improvements in that most useful of all domestic implements, the Sewing Machine. As we understand it, a machine for family use should meet five of all the requirements: it should be simple in its mechanism; it should run easily; it should do a wide range of work; it should be as nearly noiseless as possible; it should be light, handsome, durable, and as cheap as is consistent with excellence throughout.

These conditions the "Light-Running Sewing Machine" certainly meets. It has also several very important and useful attachments and "motions" of its own, which go far to make good its claims to popular favor.

Now a great many families have been and are still using the old machines—waiting for the times to improve, waiting for the latest improvements in design, and mechanical excellence.

But why delay longer? Considering the low prices at which good machines are now sold, and the improvements that have been made, now is a good time to buy, and the "New Home" especially recommends itself in purchases on account of its superior mechanical construction, ease of management and reasonable price. Nearly half a million have been sold in the last three years, all of which are giving universal satisfaction. This unrivalled machine is manufactured by the NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO., 30 Union Square, New York, who wish us to say that all who will send for their new illustrated catalogue and enclose their advertisement (printed on another page), will receive a set of fancy advertising novelties of value to those collecting cards, &c.
