FORD. This gentleman died at his boarding house in the city of Washington on Shackelford was about 35 years of age. He had held many positions, with credit to himself, in his county and state. and in 1880 he was declared elected to the 17th congress, and while serving out this term he died He was a man of ability and promise-had he lived he would have held many other positions and done good service for the state. No man had warmer er more faithful triends. He was buried at his home in Richtands, Onslow county, on the 20th instant. A committee of Congress attended his remains home on a special train. He leaves a wife, broth er and other relations to maura his death. We tender our sympathy to the family and friends.

HALIFAX COUNTY, N. C., Jan 21, 1883. MR. EDITIR:-I seldom write arti cles to newspapers, but since the cry of Republican and negro misrule have been spread abroad by the Democratic party for the purpose of deciving and misleading the people, I desire to tell your readers something about Demo ratic rule in this county, which in point of d'aregard for law and public sentiment is u nparalleld in the history of civilization. The board of magistrates and county commissioners, who are better known as the head lights of the Domocratic the dull edge of my purpose," and try party here, have in their last two meetings shown plainly what kind of respect | was called to an editorial paragraph in the Lungry office seeking Democrats have for law; and what might be termed justice to others as well as to themselves. You have no doubt seen an account of their last meetings, as I find there was one honest Democrat in their midst, who had the moral courage to istic of many of the utterances of that conre out and denounce their action and call upon honest and liberty loving people of the county, to condemn such conduct. The last meeting of the board of magistrates was held for the purpose of electing a member of the board of can make a little capital for their own county commissioners, to fill the va- side by appealing to the prejudices of cancy caused by the resignation of J. the "brother in black," through these M. would in any way constiare with this Democratic misrule, yet just such Democrats as these wer the mes to cry regro domination until the people work misled into a change of the law, at lowing the people to elect these thicers This same misrule and Democratic party last was severely applied at a meeting of the same board of Commissioners beld on the first Monday in December last, the result of which was just this: The chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, J. M. Grizzar vho was a so chairman of the board of commissi ners of this county, did with the rest of this movarchical Democratic board, refuse to allow Mr. in very great trouble. Since the death J. H. Hannon, the legally elected Register of Herds for this county, qualified bi coough to lead the Republicans of for the purpose of taking this office France, and it is very much feared by himself is which he finally succeeded the true friends of the Republic, that | in doing, after setting on the case him their troubles now have just commenced; self as both judge and jury. He voted we hope not. The United States ought | to make the office vacant; he then set to render her sister Republic all the on that board as a member and had three great Reupublic governments, the Mr. Hannon being a gentleman of high standing and in every way com petent to fill this rosition, their only excuse for this great act of monarchy is that Mr. Hannon is a Republican. They claimed that he was not a citizen of the state at the time of his election, when it was proven before the 18th instant, of pueumonia. SALISBURY, N. C., Jan. 24, '82. Eprrog Post: -I have from time to ime been intending to write you, but for various reasons have postponed it. I have 'determined this time "to whet again." My attention, the other day, the News Observer, which we all know is the chief exponent of the inconsis tent principles of the Democratic party of this state. The paragraph in question was in entire keeping with the suble, sly nature which was characterorgan during the late campaign. The Democratic press is ever on the alert to take advantage of and magnify the leest mistake of the Republican leaders-especially when they think they mistakes. Yet at the same time they session a few days ago, comide peratic should have in the next nation-

But notwithstanding what we have said may be true, such utterances as given above, eminating from the News Observer, comes with little grace from that source. But, now, all at once it is a great advocate of the rights of the ne-"Angels and ministers of grace defend us." Give back some of the rights you have taken from us in the castern part of the state, and then we will be in a better mood to listen to your fallactous arguments.

We all recollect how the Democratic orators during the late campaign would invariably turn to the colored portion of their audience, and with a bland and complainant smile spreading over their countenances, tell them how gen erous the Democratic party had been in providing a nice penitentiary where they could be safe configed whenever they did wrong; and kad located a lunatic savlum for them in a convensently malarial region where they would find no trouble in shuffling off their litical significance.
