WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, FEBRUAR

WILMINGTON POST Entered at the Postoffice at Wilming-tou, N. C., as Second Class Matter. RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Eight (8) lines, Nonpareil type, constitute a square.

Fifty cents per line for the first insertion and twenty-five ents per line ers fill the vacuum. for each additional insertion.

All advertisements will be charged at the above rates, except on special

The subscription price to THE WILmonths $1 00.

All communications on business must be addressed to THE WILMING TON POST. Wilmington, N. C.

A TERRIBLE HURRICANE. EARFUL DESTRUCTION OF LIFE AND PROPERTY.

HAMLET, N. C., Feb. 20. A cyclone passed over the Carolina Central railroad near Polkton last night, destroying everything in its way. Large trees, houses and fences were strewn in every direction. Its course was east, passing Lilseville eighteen miles up the Pee Dee river. At Rockingham, it struck a village on the outskirts of the town, destroying fifteen houses, killing in its course twentythree people and wounding many more It is reported that several colored people , were killed on the Pee Dee-From Rockingham, it still pursued an easterly course, passing between Manly and Keyser, on the Raleigh & Augusta railroad, destroying everything

A party from Lillington, in Harnett county, says that it passed near there, killing six persons. It was at one time in four miles of Hamlet. 'Hatt accompanied the storm and was two and a half by two inches thick.

CHARLOTTE, Feb. 20. A storm accompanied by hail struck Chester, S. C., fifty miles south of here last night. The roofs of the bank and many stores were torn off. The Catawba Oil Mill, Baptist and Presbyterian land of their birth, Peace, Union and Churches and many private dwellings | Glory. were wholly or partly destroyed .-Freight cars were blown from the track to the depot platform. The damage is estimated at $50,000. The storm very violent here and took the roof from Biddle's foundry. THE STORM IN WAKE.

The wind in the course of the storm last night reached a velocity of sixty miles per hour. At Roger's X Roads the house of George Mebles was blown down. He was crushed to death; his aged mother was struck on the head by a beam and made blind; her life is despaired of.

Near Cary every house on Mr. Sorrell's farm was blown down, and he was severely hurt, it is reported. NEW ORLEANS, February 20.

A special from Columbus, Miss., says: "A severe tornado passed through the lower portion of this county yesterday doing great damage to houses and dwellings. On some plantations not a single house was left standing. It is reported that one life was lost and many persons wounded.

MACON, GA., February 20. A heavy wind, rain and hail storm was reported from 3 to 5 o'clock last evening in various sections of the state. The wires are down in many places, making it dificult to obtain details. No loss of life is yet reported in this vicinity. Considerable damage has been done to fences, forests and buildings. ATLANTA, GA., February.

Reports reach here of a destructive cyclone passing from southwest to northeast along the western edge of the state, by Rome, Cove Spring, Carters and Jasper. At Coton several school children were killed by a falling house. stand at my post. There have been several deaths at Cove much property destroyed wherever the cyclone touched.

Report of Capt. Gabrielson.

Capt. Eric Gabrielson, commanding the United States revenue steamer Dexter, has made a report to the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to the assistance rendered by that vessel to the wrecked steamer City of Columbus, off Gay's Head, on the 18th inst., full particulars of which have already been published, including the gallant conduct of Lieut. Rhodes in rescuing the two last bodies, which had been frozen to the rigging. The Dexter, with the assistance of the lifeboat from the shore, took from the wrecked steamer twenty-one persons, two of whom were dead when found, and two more of whom died after reaching the Dexter. Capt. Gabrielson says that the conduct of the officers and crew on this trying occasion was highly commendable, each performing his duty with alacrity and efficiency, and he especially commends to the consideration of the department First Lieutenant W. D. Roath, Second Lieutenant J. W. Rhodes, and Third Lieutenant ing in the dust to night? For the U. D. Kennedy, as brave and exemplary in their conduct on this occasion: also First Assistant Engineer A. F. Rockefeller and Second Assistant En. gineer C. W. Beckwith, both of whom were assiduous in their care and attention to the survivors.

Meeting of the Union Veterans' Yes, we say that they did fight, and Association. At a meeting of the Union Veterans, Association, held on Monday evening last, the President, Col. G. L. Mabson, in substance, delivered the following pendence and slavery would have exaddress. We will not do the Colone, the injustice to attempt a full report of his excellent addres, but let our read- not fools. Let us see whether they fought

Col. Mabson, in substance, said that the organization of the 25th Army Corps was a grand event in the history of the negro in the late war, as the order issued on the banks of the James river by our gallant Weitzel, will show. Comrades, I will read it, for this is an MINGTON POST is $2 00 per year; six original, handed to me on the field before the final fight which ended the

> This order inspired us to fight, for we knew that our liberty was at stake. other places too numerous to mention Digest the noble sentiments therein, now. and let us in our civil life improve ourselves by living up to, and obeying it as we did in the time of war:

HEADO'RS, 25TH ARMY CORPS, ARMY OF THE JAMES. IN THE FIELD, VA., Feb. 20, 1865.

In view of the circumstances under which this Corps was raised and filled, the peculiar claims of its individual members upon the justice and fair deal ing of the prejudiced, and the regulari ty of the conduct of the troops, which deserve those equal rights that have been hitherto denied the majority, the Commanding General has been induced to adopt the Square as the distinctive badge of the 26th Army Corps. glory to be won, the heroes who have fought for immortality have been dis tinguished by some emblem to which every victory added a new lustre. They looked upou their badge with pride, for to it they had given its fame. In the homes of smiling peace, it recalled the days of courageous endurance and the hours of deadly strife-and it solaced the moment of death, for it was a symbol of a life of horoism and self denial. The poets still sing of the Templars' Cross," the "Crescent," o the Turk, the "Chalice" of the hunted Christian," and the "White Plume" of Murat, that crested the wave of valor, sweeping resistlessly to victory.

Soldiers: To you is given a chance, in this Spring Campaign, of making this badge immortal. Let history record thousand freemen, not only gained their own liberty, but shattered the prejudice of the world and gave to the GODFREY WEITZEL Major General Commanding OFFICIAL.

When we offered our services to the Union we had no military knowledge. We had to rely on such information as Lousehold we attained in a few short weeks of camp life for a successful career as Comrades, fraternity is essential to success in all societies. Then let us be

Let officers and members fully real them and do their duty wit out lear or favor, for I am fully persuaded 'hat if as faithful sentinels we stand on guard, daughter of George III., the daughter at the head of our permanent organi-I went into the army as a private. I am willing to associate with my comrades now as a private Let no dissension arise to divide us, but with unbroken front let us repel all attacks made against us, both as soldiers and

Col. J. S. W. Eigles was then intro duced and spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT AND COMRADES :-You are aware that being preceded by so distinguished a speaker as our Spring. Many persons were injured the fact that on the commencement of We should not expect what would be a the white soldiers of the Union that of the Georges .- Exchange. this was a white man's war and a white man's fight. But God moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform. God so ordered it that the white men could not preserve the Union, for, Mr. President and Comrades, you who read the papers and heard the whispers of those dark days, can well remember that the Confederate forces were holding their own about as well as the Federal forces were. Yes, sir, the Union army would gain ground one day and lose it the next. One army was about as victorious as the other. But let's see what caused a turn of the tide. I say, comrades, what caused the tide of vicit not that the great minds of the north were forced, by the reverses they were meeting daily, to assemble in council and decide that they needed help? Whose help did they call for? Why they called for the help of the colored volunteers. But there was some doubt in the minds of the northern statesmen and army officers as to whether the negro would fight. Well, they tried him. Now let's see whether he fought or not. What does our national cemeteries teli? Why are over 50,000 colored soldiers laying beneath the sod to-day? Why are their bones bleachprivileges we are enjoying to-day. Civil rights, political rights, soldiers' and sailors' rights, and religous rights; and we propose to protect those rights, let come what will or may. Let weal or woe, let us survive or perish, we will maintain those rights.

we are not the only ones that says so. What did the southern people say after the war was over? This is what they said, "If we had only armed the negroes we might have gained our indeisted in the southern states a hundred years longer." But I doubt this very much, for while we were slaves we were or not. How was it at Petersburg, New Market Heights, Fort Harrison, Fair Oaks, Deep Bottom, Fort Pillow, where they were butchered after they surrendered. At Fort Sumpter where Sergeant Carney after being wounded draging his leg after him said, "Boys the old flag has has not touched the dust yet." How was it at Fort Fisher,

Freedom, we hear them cry, Freedom, or leave to die; They meant that word. Not as we do in party shout, They willingly gave their spirits out. Then we say, never in field or tent Scorn the black regiment. CAPT. GEO. E. BERDEN, at Sugar Loaf and near Wilmington,

at Northeast station, at Cox's Ferry and at Richmond, and hundreds of

is Queen Victoria Mrs. Brown

After all it would not be very strange if it should turn out that Queen Victoria was really married to the late John Brown. Widowed Queens are very much in the habit of doing that sort of thing. Napoleon I's Empress-Marie Wherever danger has been found and proudest blood in Europe, with no in- Wilmington by the Federal troops, termingling of any stream less than with a German officer named Von Neip- fantry will parade during the afterperg, whom she made major-domo of her palace, and after he had secured a divorce from his wife, married him morgantically, and bore him several children. Queen Maria Christians, of Spain, after the death of her husband, Ferdinand VII, conceived a passion for a private in her Guards-an illiterate man named Ferdinand Munoz, whose parents kept a small tobacco shop in his native town. She was married to him secretly and bore him 10 children. Hor daughter Isabella II., after sustainthat on the banks of the James, thirty | ing tender relations with a number of distinguished men about he court, finally established a more permanent alliauce with a peasant born man, who, it is believed, is the father of one or more of her later children, and still lives with her in her present abode in Paris, ostensibly as a major-domo of her Queen Victoria is a Guelph. Through her veins runs-unrelieved by any higher or purer stream-the thick, muddy blood of that course fibred family. Despite her well ordered life, it does not seem possible that the great greatgranddaughler or George I., the greatgranddaughter of George II, the grandas we were wont to do in the days of of a man who lived the most his camp life, we shall be able to protect life in concubinage, the niece of such and advance every interest of ourselves | men as William IV., and George IV., and the mother of Prince Albert Ed-I consented to serve as temporary ward—could escape, if she were a lepresident. I do not desire to be placed gitimate child, having in her nature a predisposition to the lower and coarser zation. Let us begin to think of one things of life, which would be likely to to lead, whom all will follow, for I am | manifest itself in just such a union as of the opinion that we can advance our this with a great, strong, two fisted felorganization better if we all pull to- low, who was constantly about and gether. I am satisfied to be a member. around her, carrying he back and forth between her carriage and house, sometimes from one room to another, and who, as she tells us in her book, frequently carried her pick-a-back across the steams they came to in their walks through the Scottish highlands.

Queens are but women after all, and Victoria is quite as likely as any other widow to think that to

In obstinate condolement is a course It shows a will most incorrect to heaven, worthy president that it must place and that she was just as much entitled $6,899.77. The shippers were Messrs. your humble servant in a somewhat have a male comforter to her declining embarrassing position. But good soldiers | days any other lady of advanced years. never refuse duty, and of course I must | She is entitled to great credit for having so successfully contended against all of my comrades are cognizant of her hereditary tendencies as she has.

The Human Wolf.

The man who has no other vocation in life than to proy upon and defame his own species; who uses the talent to seduce and trap the unwary, leaving them'scorned and loathed and cast as wrecks on lire's tempest-tossed ocean; and who, if need be, will not hesitate to drape about him the holy mantle of Christ to accomplish his fiendish aims, and think it is no sacrilege.

Scientists are still putting forth theories regarding the recent red sunsets, tory to turn in the Union's favor? Was but no satisfactory solution has been given. If the sun is modest enough to blush when he retires at dusk he should be accredited with the virtue he asgumes, even if he possesses it not:

City Items.

Mr. H. McL. Green, who has been raite sick, is on the streets again.

Ross & Lara wants 100 men at the Keystone quarry. See advertisement.

The best grade; of peanuts were selling at $1.60 per bushel in this market during the past week.

Mr. T. A. Darby and family, who have been spending several weeks with their relatives in Wilmington, have re- made a big blaze and frightened people M. Rathjen; Trustees-H. Vollers, C. plication was granted and the amount turned.

Dr. H. S. Norcum has returned after an absence of sume weeks.

Mr. Hardy Hicks, formerly of U city, but now of Morganton, drew $25. 000 in the Louisiana state lottery at its recent drawing.

At a meeting of the Wilm Light Infantry, held a few nights at it was decided to adopt the helmet ha prescribed for the State Guard.

Rev. A. M. Conway, of the First (colored) Baptist church, who has been quite sick, was sufficiently recovered to fill his pulpit on Sunday last."

There were six interments in the rious cemeteries of the city d week ending on Saturday last, four were white and two co

The brig C. G. Packard Ponce, P. R. on Friday lumber, valued at $5,004. ward Kidder & Son were the shippers.

The store of Messrs. Lockhart Croom, on South Front street, was broken open on Monday morning last, between midnight and day, and robbed of a considerable amount of groceries and provisions. No clue to the perpe-

This is Washington's birthday. Also Louis:-who had in her veins the the anniversary of the occupation of which occurred on the 22d of Februsroyal for hundreds of years-took up ry, 1865. The Wilmington Light In-

The steamer North State took her final departure for Georgia on Monday night last, where she has been purchased, and where she will hereafter be run, on the Altamaha river and its tributaries. Captain R. P. Paddison, who is part owner, will have command

The Young People's Association of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church gave a very pleasant entertainment at Rankin Hall, on Tuesday night last, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, addresses, recitations, etc. It was largely attended, and evidently appreciated.

Mr. Nathaniel R. Fowler, an old citizen of Wilmington, died in this city on Monday morning last, after a long illness, aged a bout 70 years. Mr. Fowler had been a great sufferer from a lingering disease and had long been confined to his house. He was greatly esteemed by those who knew him.

The Bussian Barque Dagmar and the Norwegian Brig Varmity were cleared from this port on Sacarday last, the former to Antwerp and the latter to Hull, England, with cargoes of naval stores valued at $8,724. Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co., and Robinson & King were the shippers, Deputy Sheriff Geo. W. Murray left for Raleigh yesterday morning, having in his charge Gaston Davis, Boyser Davis and W. H. Gibson, all colored convicted at the late term of the Criminal Court and sentenced to the Penitentiary, the former for four years and ings in the shed the two latter five years each.

The Norwegian Barque Greif and Schr. Mary L. Dunn cleared from this port on Tuesday, the former for Rostock, Germany, and the latter for Bridgetown, Barbadoes, with cargoes of naval stores and lumber valued at E. Peschau & Westermann and Northrop & Cumming.

An attempt to rob the store on the the war it was given out by some of miracle of self-restaint in a descendant was frustrated Thursday night by two officers of the police force, who discovered the thief in the act of prying open a window with a chisel. He jumped a fence and fled precipitately, followed by the policemen, who gave him a long and ability which God has given him | chase and fired two shots after him but without effect.

> The Howard Relief Fire Engine Company celebrated their 28th anniversary on Wednesday. Speeches were made by the Mayor, Chief of the Fire Department and others, and the exercises were intersperced with vocal and instrumental music. The festivities wound up with a splendid collation and a trial of the engine in the afternoon | ing to them in holy things: and a ball at Germania Hall at night.

In the midst of the storm of Tuesday night, the alarm of fire was sounded and added to the feeling of uneasiness which prevailed. It was generally feared that a terrible conflagration was about to afflict the city, but it turned out to be nothing more serious than the burning of a large pile of dross back of Mr. Alfred Martin's distillery, on the west side of the river. The Little Giant engine was sent over, notwithstanding the roughness of the river. to prevent the fire from spreading. It red, C. Poisco yesternewhere in agent, was or the purures, of the the stars: el. Wadesthe river opposite Orange 8 and was towed into the slip at the foo of Dock street. It was afterwards identified as that of a notorious individual why always styled himself as Annie Gaston, and who insisted upon dressing partly in the garb of a woman. He was well known about town, and was often a butt for the ridicule of the young people. He was missed from the house of Reuben McDonald, on Second steet about two weeks before the body was tound. The remains were buried in Oak Grove cemetery.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Bank of New Hanover was held in this city on the 14th inst., when the following gentlemen were re-elected a Board Directers for the ensuing year: C. M. Sted. man, G. W. Williams, W. I. Gore, D. MacRae, J. W. Atkinson, E. B. Borden, Isaac Bates, R. R. Bridgers, J. A. Leak, H. Vollers and F. Rheinstein.

At an ensuing meeting of the Board of Directors the following were elected officers for the ensuing year:

Isaac Bates, Pres G. W. Williams sident Stephen D. Was ht Chashier, W. L. Smith, Jr.

B. G. Empie, E W. R. Shaw. J. V. Grainger a

A Small Fire. On Monday morning last a shed on by Charles T. Congdon; "How to Imthe premises attached to Messrs. Norprove the Mississippi," by Robert S. throp & Cumming's mill was discovered to be on fire. The engines were Repudiation," by D. H. Chamberlain quickly on the spot, but the flames had and John S. Wise. Published at 30 ey, on account attained such a h racter of the of the inflamm contents or the and hay,) ie to save it. that nothing co Capt. R. H. Beery and one compartment of the shed as a receptacle for his tools, blocks and tackle, &c., which were all burned. Messrs. Northrop & Cumming lost about $250 or $300 on the shed and the hay and straw, and Capt. Beery about $150 on his tools, etc, upon which there was no insurance. The fire was posed to have been caused by the sness of some tramp who had st night's lodg-

Tuesday storm.

This section was visited by a severe storm on Tuesday night last. Here the gale did no damage, and Smithville was also exempt in this particular. Up the Carolina Central road, however, there was not only a great loss in the way of property, but a fearful destruction of life. The cyclone prostrated everything in its course between Polkton and Hamlet, many houses and fences being blown down. Near Rockingham it blew down fifteen houses and killed twenty-three persons and wounded many more. Along the Pee Dee it is reported that several colored persons were killed. Near Lillington, in Harnett county, six persons are reported killed. At various points in South Carolina the destruction to property was very great and some lives were lost

The Lutheran Church and Its Pastor:

At the annual meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, held a few evenings since, the following resolutions were passed by the body, endorsing in the strongest terms the able pastor, who is minister-

"Resolved, That we as a congregation hereby offer our beloved pastor Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, our heartfelt thanks for his earnest and praverful devotion to his duty in preaching to us the true Gospel of our dear Saviour Jesus Christ.

"Resolved, That as he gives entire satisfaction to the whole congregation, it is the earnest desire that the friendly relations between pastor and congregation will continue to exist, and that the pastor and his beloved family will remain with us as long as he lives." The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Elder-C. Schul-VonKampen and J. W. Duls.

The attention of persons desirous of securing homes on easy terms is called to the advertisement of Mr. James Wilson, in another column.

"The Joys of Life," Emile Zola' new book, is in press and will be shortly published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. It is the great literary curiosity of the season, being a grand novel of passion, whose powerful interest lies in its truth and their unit pathos. The heroine's experience, only adopt while fraught with sorrow, yet has its | der county, on the 14th of February. Frightside, and throughout her career ted Smith- she fully realizes "The Joys of Life," mesday he from which circumstance the work house in the neighborhood of Sixth entral road takes its name.

Reputation with posterity has ever been esteemed one of the most powerful incentives to deeds of heroism; and one modern school of philosophy recognizes as the only true immortalirever, the fabric of our civilization vere seen to be tottering, it is plain that this particular stimulus to virtue would fail. But "Is is our Civilization Perishable?" The question is asked in the North American Review for March, by Judge J. A. Jameson, who considtural Politics in England," by William E. Bear, editor of the Mark Lane Express "A Defenceless Sea-board," by Gen. H. A. Smalley, is a description of the unprotected condition of the harbors and coast cities of the United States; and though the author employs none of the arts of the rheterician, his statement cannot fail to awaken the people of this country to the importance of being in peace prepared for war. "Neither Genius nor Martyr," is the judgment pronounced upon the wife of Carlyle by Alice Hynemane Rhine, whose contribution to the Carlyle controversy is characterized by much force. In "The Story of a Nomination," W. O. Stoddard recounts the hitherto unpublished history of the means by which the nomination of Abraham Lincoln for a second presidential term was brought about. Other articles are "Literary Resurrectionists,"

Taylor; and "The Constitutionality of Lafayette Piace, New York.

. Criminal Conet. Since the last issue of our paper the following cases have been tried and disposed of by the Criminal Court, which adjourned on Monday last:

State vs. John Fisher, larceny. Defendant submitted and was sentenced to the house of correction for six

State vs. A. J. Craig, bigamy. Case continued.

State vs. Edward Howell, false pretense. Defendant to pay costs.

State vs. Frank Nixon, larceny, Defendant submitted and judgment was suspended on payment of costs. State vs. Ellen Watkins, larceny Detendant submitted and judgment was suspended on the payment of costs. State vs. W. H. Gibson, false pretense. Defendant submitted and was sentenced to the penitentiary for five

State vs. W. Larkins, assault and oattery. Defendant found guilty.

State vs. W. Larkins, carrying a conealed weapon. Defendant submitted and was sentenced to the house of correction for three months.

State vs. Walter Williams, larcenve Defendant recognized in the sum of $50 with security for his appearance at the next term of the court.

State vs. L. H. Hines, larceny. Dismissed; the prosecutor to pay the costs State vs. John Giles, assault and bat. tery. Defendant [recognized in the sum of $100 to appear at next term and pay half the costs.

State vs. Stephen Livingston, lareny. Defendant submitted and judgment was suspended on the payment

State vs. Boyser Dayis, convicted of arceny. Defendant sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

On Monday morning Mary Davis colored, charged with the murder of a small colored girl named Tercilla Flowers, of Criumbus county, who had been living with her, was before Judge Meares on a writ of habeas corpus, upon an application for permission to give bail for her appearance at the next session of the Criminal Court. Messrs Russell & Ricaud and Marsden Bel lamy appeared for the defense, and Mr. Solicitor Moore, assisted by Mr. ken; Deacons-J. D. H. Klander and J. T. Elliott, for the State. The apof the bail fixed at $300.

The Wilmington Light Infantry has been ordered out for parade on Monday next for regular annual inspection by Inspector General F. H. Cameron, of the State Guard, who has notified Capt. Beery that he will be here for that pur-

Arrest of a Robber.

Reuben, Thompson, colored, was arrested Monday night on the charge of breaking into and robbing the store of Mr. A. D. Ward, of Black River, Pen-The officers who who arrested him had a search warrant, and upon visiting his and Harnett streets, all the stolen articles, with the exception of a double barrel gun, were found concealed in various places. Upon his first arrest he hailed a colored acquaintance named Robinson and requested him, which he thought would not be understood by the officers, to go to his house in the vance of them and warn his the approach of the officers, so they could conceal the goods.

Thompson had a preliminary examination before Mayor Hall on Wednesday morning, when Mr. Ward, who was in court, testified as to Thompson's presence in the neighborhood a few ers the several agencies by which the days preceding the robbery, and havoverthrow of the existing civilization ing been seen on the road to Wilmingmight be effected. In the same num- ton the day after loaded down with ber of the Review there is an article of bundles. He also identified the goods of extraordinary interest on "Agricul- as his property. The accused man not being able to furnish the necessary bond in $100 for his appearance at court, was committed to iail.

> "May I ask you for the loan of a dolar?"inquired an impecunious acquaint ance of Blobson. "You may, sir," was the frigid reply, "and if you hear anything from that one I lent you last Tuesday, I wish you'd let me know by elephone."—Burlington Free Press.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Wanted,

100 GOOD QUARRY HANDS, FOR Government work at Keystone Quarries, on Cape Fear River, fourteen miles below Wilmington. ROSS & LARA,

Auction Sale of Side Wheel Tug Boat

UNITED STATES ENGINEER OFFICE, Army Building, New York, Feb. 11, 1881. The undersigned will sell at public auction, in front of the U. S. Custom House, Savannah, Ga., on Wednesday, March 12, 1884, at 12 o'clock noon, the U.S. Side Wheel Tug Boat "Heary Burden." The vessel was built in 1862, and was thoroughly overhault and repaired in 1879.

Her length is 134 feet, breadth 21 feet, depth 10.3 feet, measurement 176.40 tons. Her boiler was made by the Quintard Iron Co. n 1879, and is in good condition. For further information apply at this office, or to Lieut. T. N. Bailey, Corps of Engineers, Charleston, S., or W. R. Curtis, Assistant Engineer. Sa Innah, Ga.

Col. of Tag'rs, Byt, Maj. Gen. U. S. A.

Secure a Home on the Installment Plan.

QUILDING LOTS FOR SALE ON Castle. Walnut, Mulberry, Red Cross, Sixth, Seventh, Wilson, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Bay, Wood, Rankin, Charlotte, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteeath Sts. Money loaned to those wishing to build. JAMES WILSON.

Bargains in Shoes, WE HAVE A LARGE STOCK OF

Boots and Shoes

AND OFFER SPECIAL BARGAINS ON MANY KINDS, and $1,50, Worth $1.75 and $.200. Call early nad get your Winter Shoes

WOMENS MOROCCO SHOES AT $1.25

GEO. R. FRENCH & SONS. jy 13-tf. 108 North Front Street.

COTTON PESSES

COTTONGINS REST GOODS OF THE KIND NADE.

QUALITY AND PRICES GUARAN.

TEED IN EVERY RESPECT.

WM. E. SPRINGER & CO. Successors to Jao. Dawson.

WEEK'S READING FREE FOR SIX GOOD FAMILIES.

lend your name and the name and address of five of your neighbors or friends on a postal card and get free for yourself and each of them a specimen copy of

THE GREAT SOUTHERN WEEKLY,

"UNCLE REMUS'S" world-famous Sketches of the old Plantation Darkey THREE "BILL ARP'S" Humorous Letters for the Home and Hearth Stone.

"BETSY HAMILTON'S" adventured told in the "Cracker" dialect. HUMOROUS

War Stories, Sketches of Travel, News, Poems, Fun, Edventures, "The Farm," The Household, Correspondence, A World of Instruction and Entertainment.

Twolve Pages. The Brightest and Best Weekly.
Pleases every member of the Family.

SEND A POSTAL FOR A SPECIMEN COPY, FREE Address "The Constitution," Atlanta Ca.