Edwin Booth is to play in Charlotte on or about January 24th.
The Raleigh Light Infantry will bring 40 muskets to our Fair.
The Sheridan & Mack Combination opens in Columbia to-night.
And so Mrs. Oates is to give us the go-by this season. Bye-bye, beauty.
Hon. A. M. Waddell is to deliver the address at the Fayetteville Fair.
A new style of kid gloves is striped from the ends of the fingers to the wrist.
Friendship is the shadow of the evening, which strengthens with the setting sun of life.
Mr. J. B. Foyville, recently of this city, has opened a grocery establishment in Goldsboro.

The high winds of the past few days have robbed the woods of much of their Autumn glory.
It was announced on the Board that the stock report would not be rendered until a clock and hence we are without it today.
A teaspoonful of powdered borax dissolved in a quart of tepid water is good for cleaning old black dresses of silk, cashmere or alpaca.
Maj. James C. McRae, of Fayetteville, is in the city today for attendance on the Fall Term of United States Court which did not meet this morning.
"What we want here—a good five cent cigar" has been found at D. Pigott's. He told the people of it in Saturday's Review and has since sold nearly two thousand cigars.
We acknowledge the receipt of complimentary cards of a luncheon to the First Annual Ball of the Pochontas Association, to be given at Walnut Hall on Wednesday evening.

The Ladies Benevolent Society will meet Tuesday p. m., at 2 o'clock at the hall of the Hook & Ladder Company on Dock street. As this is the last meeting before the annual meeting it is very important, and a full attendance is requested. Star and Journal copy.
The Wilmington & Weldon and the Newbern Roads have already announced that they will transport free the Norfolk military company which proposes to visit our Fair.

After a stubborn fight for more than a year against public opinion in Jersey City and the authority of his church, Rev. John S. Glendenning has retired, a vanquished and disappointed man. The dismissal of his appeal by Synod virtually settled the case, and his refusal to officiate last Sunday showed that at last he accepted the situation.
A little five-year-old friend, who was always allowed to choose the prettiest kitten for his pet and playmate, before the other nurslings were drowned, was taken to his mother's sick room the other morning to see two tiny, new twin babies. He looked reflectively from one to the other for a minute or two; then, poking his chubby finger into the cheek of the plumpest baby, he said, decidedly, "Save this one."

Glendenning Steps Down.
After a stubborn fight for more than a year against public opinion in Jersey City and the authority of his church, Rev. John S. Glendenning has retired, a vanquished and disappointed man. The dismissal of his appeal by Synod virtually settled the case, and his refusal to officiate last Sunday showed that at last he accepted the situation.

Hotel Arrivals.

MANNING HOUSE.—E. W. Manning, Proprietor—V. Duhamel, N. Y.; F. H. DeLanc, Thos G. Pickett, B. Solomon, city.
We hate some persons because we do not know them, and we will not know them because we hate them.

District Court.

The U. S. District Court did not convene this morning. His Honor, Judge Brooks, not having arrived yet. He is expected to-night, and the session of the Court will most probably open to-morrow morning.

All Saints.
All Saints' Day, commemorative of the Righteous Dead, was observed in this city this morning by the service for the day. There will also be services for the afternoon. The churches are very handsomely and tastefully decorated with gray moss, pure white flowers and the faded leaves of the fast-dying year.

County Tax Sale.
The County Tax Collector, in accordance with notice already given, opened today at 12 o'clock the sale of property in New Hanover, on which the taxes remain unpaid. Only a few pieces were sold when an adjournment was had until to-morrow. In the meantime delinquents have one more chance, and one last chance, for settling up preparatory to the sale.

To be Torn Up.
A rumor is floating around that a strong effort is to be made to have the W. N. C. Railroad from Statesville to Salisbury torn up. The thing is too outrageous to be true. It would be such a gross usurpation of power, as our people would not tamely submit to. Even if they had the right, we have no idea that the gentlemen who compose the Commission would think of doing anything of the kind; and we merely mention the rumor to say that we do not believe there is any foundation for it.—Salisbury Watchman.

The New Fair.
Forty odd different kinds of fish, caught on our immediate coast, have been entered for exhibition at the Fair of the colored people, to be held here next month. A very old couple from the Western part of the State, the man being over 110 years old, and his wife 116, the two counting up 68 children, grand children and great grand children, will be present and lend interest to the occasion.
Congress man Hymah, of this State, is expected to be present and deliver the address.

Maj. Jno. C. Winder.
We are pleased to learn of the appointment of Maj. Jno. C. Winder, formerly Superintendent of the Wil., C. & Ang. R. R., to the same position on the Raleigh & Gaston Road which was made vacant by the recent resignation of Capt. Andrews. Maj. Winder is a gentleman of large experience and of unquestioned ability, and his well known indomitable energy will help to urge the road forward in its career of prosperity. We look upon his appointment as a peculiarly fortunate one for the Raleigh & Gaston road.

Mayor's Court.
Richard Moore, charged with disorderly conduct—case dismissed.
Mary Blossom, for the same offence, was fined $10 and costs.
Sol. I. Nixon, for fighting, was fined $25 and costs, or 30 days work on the streets.
Edward Dixon, for the same offence, was fined $30 and costs, or 30 days work on the streets.
James Copley, for the same, was found not guilty and discharged.
Charles Thompson, the same, $50 and costs, or 30 days work on the streets.
San Willard, for the larceny of a coat, the property of Dan Sanders, was bound over to Superior Court in the sum of $100.
Charles Thompson, for resisting a police officer, was fined $50 and costs, or 30 days work on the streets.

Col. Fremont.
We were much pleased to meet this gentleman in our place this week. G. F. is the Superintendent of the Carolina Central Railway. We are not fully informed as to his object in visiting this section at this time, but feel rather inclined to venture the opinion that he has his eye on our Railroad interests, and is desirous whenever opportunity offers to assist in bringing us in direct communication with Wilmington via the Carolina Central.
The consumation of such a project is greatly to be desired by our principal commercial port, and would afford a ready market for our Western people.
Col. Fremont is a gentleman of fine financial and executive ability, and under his able and sagacious superintendance that road is in a very flattering condition. May he live long and accomplish much, not only for his own benefit but for the people of good old North Carolina.—Salisbury Pioneer.

The Waynesville Homicide.

Mr. Preston W. Bridgers, who has been with Tommie Strauge, ever since that unfortunate affair at Waynesville, having been released on a writ of habeas corpus has returned to his home here. From him we are pleased to learn that the efforts making in Mr. Strauge's behalf have thus far been successful, the trial having been deferred until Spring and the case having been removed to Buncombe Court.

Good Templars.
The following have been elected officers of Live Oak Lodge No. 207, I. O. G. T., at Smithville:
W. J. Potter, W. C. T.
Miss Agnes Longest, W. V. T.
G. A. Ray, W. S.
John L. Ray, W. F. S.
Miss Lizzie Smith, W. T.
Henry Daniels, W. M.
Miss Mary Thompson, W. I. G.
Jos. Anderson, W. O. G.
Rev. N. M. Ray, W. C. T.
James Pice, P. W. C. T.
Mr. Wm. M. Hays, L. D., will go down to Smithville on Tuesday, for the purpose of conferring the degrees on the new officers.

Fetish Superstition.
And so it would seem that the fetish superstition prevalent in some parts of the South among some of the colored race, and which actually had an illustration some months since in this city, has its believers in Parritanical New England as well, as witness the following newspaper float:
A citizen of New England volunteers the following "correct way of holdin' a coroner's jury" when it is desirable that the murderer be discovered: "Take up the Corps and make the man in charge tuck her if she bleeds that is the man I had the same Evidence with one some fifteen years ago this will show you the Correck way of holdin a coroner's jury this is as true as god is in heaven try this And you will satisfy the whole of the New England stats just as I telle it so helpe mi god."

Our Job Office.
We call the attention of the merchant, banker, manufacturer, lawyer, farmer, retailer and general reader to the REVIEW Job Office, which, being thoroughly supplied with a great variety of new type and many modern improvements, offers the greatest facilities for the printing of work of any description with despatch and in the best style of typographical art. Our patrons may surely rely upon the fact that all work sent to this office will be neatly done and on the most liberal terms. Without unduly claiming more than our proper share of reputation in producing the best specimens of Job Work, we can assert that it will be found to be unsurpassed in this city. tf

The West and Wilmington.
Friend Furman, of the Asheville Citizen, who is one of the staunchest friends that Wilmington has in the West, in speaking of the Fair to be held here next week, thus does the handsome thing by us:
"Besides going to the Fair, our people ought to go to Wilmington and see that port—and get acquainted with her people, for better, more hospitable, liberal and energetic, will not be found—and learn something of our own State, her resources and advantages. Wilmington must be the shipping and receiving Depot for North Carolina. Having the facilities offered by any seaport, all she wants is the united support of her own Mother State and citizens to make her to North Carolina and many Southern and Western States what Baltimore is to Maryland and the great West. Why not do all we, as a people, at least, can to help her? The more Wilmington grows and thrives, the more North Carolina, even South Carolina, will prosper. Let our people only do for Wilmington what Maryland does for Baltimore, Virginia for Norfolk, South Carolina for Charleston, Georgia for Savannah, and so on, and in a very few years we will have great cause to be very proud of our city by the sea. We hope a large delegation from our great West will go to the Wilmington Fair."
