The Charlotte Observer says: A gentleman who arrived in the city from Concord last night, informs us that on yesterday, Randolph Sutton, colored, was sentenced to be hung, at that place, on Friday, the 21st of January. Sutton is the negro who committed a burglary upon the store of Mr. C. C. Cooper, of Steel Creek, | Ladies of Front Street M. E. Church. in this county, about three months ago.

The Raleigh Sentinel says: To-day we were shown some fine specimens of gold from the Ransom Bridge and Arrington gold mines, the former in Franklin and the latter in Nash county, in close proximity to each other. The specimens have been declared by experienced miners to be exceedingly rich. Mr. Thomas, the proprietor, was for many years the sole owner of the old and famous Portis mine, in Franklin, where he made thousands of dollars, and, after selling which, purchased the mine at Ransom's Bridge. The Portis mine is now being developed by Mr. Sturges, an experienced miner, and we learn that, despite many discouraging failures, this old mine is giving unmistakable evidence of vast riches. The quartz of the new vein, recently opened, is being shipped to Baltimore and New York, and produces more than 5 ounces ($100) to the ton on an average. The decomposed quartz slate and gravel in the belt, on being washed to a depth of some 20 to 25 feet, produce more than $1 to the cubic yard. Messrs. Cake & Sons, Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C., and W. A. Brown a mining engineer of Philadelphia, have recently purchased the Mann mine in Nash county, and are actively engaged in erecting the proper machinery to grind the quartz. They have, it is said, found the true vein, and it gives promise to be immensely rich. Many intelligent engineers and capitalists have visited this section recently, and large sums of money will no doubt ere long be invested there in gold mining.

On Saturday evening two men and a woman arrived in the city by the Savannah train, and registered at the Charleston Hotel under the names of H W. Davies, Thomas Nichols and Mrs. Joseph H. Nichols. Nichols is the absconding teller of the Canadian Bank of Montreal, who, on the 11th of September last, stole from that bank quite a large sum of money, and in company with his father levanted to St. Augustine, Florida. A reward of $10,-000 was offered for the delivery of Thomas Nichols at any place in the British Dominions, and Henry W. Davies, a well known detective, was sent in pursuit of him. The detective has been in St. Augustine, Florida, at the same hotel with Nichols for several weeks, but could not arrest him, there being no extradition treaty for that class of offences between the United States and the British Provinces. But he kept his man in sight, and finally worried him into a surrender. This posted setting forth the theft, and offering $10,000 reward for the arrest of the fugi-

THIEF!!-$10,000 REWARD.-On September, 11, 1875, THOMAS NICHOLS, Teller of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, at Montreal, Dominion of Canada, stole from said Bank a large quantity of Canadian Legal-Tender Notes of the denominations of $500 and $1,000, and, accompanied by his father, JOS-EPH H. NICHOLS, fled from Montreal, and these two fugitives from British justice are now at the Oriental Hotel, in the City of St. Augustine, State of Florida, United States of America. We were shown yesterday some "amaeur papers," edited and published by Yankee boys in the North and West. The Poor.

The Christmas holidays are at hand. This season particularly should draw the attention of the wealthy and well-to-do people to the condition of the needy and unfortunate. A good substantial dinner to the poor would put them in a better frame of mind to enjoy the Christian religion. Hungry people rarely exhibit large religious propensities.

County Commissioners.

A legal board of county Commissioners nsists of five citizens. New Hanover has had but four for several months. Every measure passed by the board, to be legal, requires a majority of the whole number-three. Is this law heeded? It seems likely some one could be found to make the fifth member of the Board.
