CAROLINA.

Mrs. Mary Wiley, aged 94, died in Caswell county on the 4th instant.
Col. Thos. M. Holt, of Alamance, is another. That is to say he is suggested or nomination for Governor.
Thomas C. Evans, of N. C., lately connected with the Vicksburg Herald, is now in the Richmond Enquirer.
Gov. Brogden has issued a reward of $200 for the arrest of the young man Columbus Jones, white, who recently killed a negro man named James, in Hickory.
On Saturday morning, while out hunting deer about six miles from Newbern, Mr. Abner Tibbet and brother suddenly came upon three large bears, when an animal fight took place between hunters and game and A. Tibbet succeeded in killing one of the bears, weighing some 150 pounds.
The Charlotte Observer says: In accurrence with a requisition from Gov.
Chamberlain of South Carolina, Gov.
Brogden on Saturday last, issued a warrant of delivery to the sheriff of this county for the body of James Fetter, the engineer, and on Sunday morning James Canton arrived in this city with the papers. He was met at the depot by deputy sheriff Farrow, with the prisoner, who was turned over to Canton and carried to Columbia, where he will be confined till the time of his trial. The warrant alleges that the prisoner is charged with the crime of murder in the State of South Carolina, and that he is a fugitive from justice in this State.
No St. Patrick's Day.
The monthly meeting of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of the archdiocese of Philadelphia took place yesterday afternoon at the hall of the St. Vincent de Paul, T. A. B. Society, of Germantown.
The president, John H. Campbell, Esq., was in the chair. There were present delegates from fifty-four societies. Rev.
Father Rolando, superior of the congregation of the Church of the Lazarites, opened the meeting with prayer and then delivered an address of welcome to the Union. The annual reports of the officers were presented and approved. Dr.
M. O'Hara presented the report of the Centennial committee, stating the favorable progress of the work on the Centennial Fountain, and that during the past ten days subscriptions had been received from societies in Oregon, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Michigan, New York and New Jersey. A motion was then made to dispense with the 17th of March parade for 1876, which was carried, and the following resolution, offered by Mr. Massett, of St. Phillips, was then unanimously adopted.
Resolved, That our love for American liberty and a desire to render the one hundredth anniversary of the Declaration of Independence all the honor due to the occasion, and to make the Fourth of July parade a memorable one in the history of our organization, that there be no general parade of our societies on the 17th of March, 1876.
Rev. Father Lefevre, C. M., then addressed the delegates, praising them for their patriotic action, and stating that in their action in giving up St. Patrick's Parade during the Centennial year they had shown themselves to be true Americans in spirit and noble Irishmen in feeling.
The meeting then adjourned.—Philadelphia Times Dec. 13.

A New Political Organization.
A movement has been started in this city having for its object the formation of an Irish political association, and has already met with considerable success, being endorsed by some leading Irishmen of the city. The organization will be under the control of a general president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, and an executive board composed of fifteen delegates. The city will be divided into three divisions, wards 1, 2 and 3 comprising the first, wards 4 and 5 comprising the second, wards 6, 7 and 8 comprising the third. The different divisions of the city will elect their respective officers, who will control the affairs of their respective divisions, and will only hold their meetings when any city, county or State campaign opens. The divisions will have their annual election of officers, at which they will also select their delegates to the executive board and ballot for the general officers of the society. The executive board will hold monthly meetings, and prior to all city, State or county elections, will submit the names of members to fill such positions as they decide on; the names so submitted will be referred to the divisions, and by them balloted for, and the returns made to the executive board.
The member receiving the highest number of votes will be selected as the candidate of the society. By this method the Irish will alone have the selection of their candidates, who will be supported on the ticket that gives them the class their proper representation. The constitution of the society will permit none to become members who are not Irish or of Irish parentage.
This organization will be made permanent by being regularly chartered. It is proposed to select as their general president one of our leading Irish citizens.—News and Courier.

It is the part of humility to listen with respect to the good opinions which others express of us, however exaggerated and extreme they may appear at first sight.
For a man to place his own low self-estimate against the favorable opinion of his fellow man shows that he foolishly over-values his own judgment. Nothing can be more painful than such a picture of modesty committing suicide.

Last night was a beauty. The moon was out in all its glory and the ground was covered with a heavy frost, which was almost a young snow.
We are pleased to learn that our clever young friend, Fred. S. Cantwell, Esq., son of Hon. Edward Cantwell, has received the appointment of Route Agent on the Carolina Central Railway.
The Charlotte Observer says: "We understand that the night line will be again put on the Carolina Central Railroad next Sunday—arrive here about 5 A. M., and leave about 9 P. M."

To Induce Sleep.

Shampooing the feet will overcome sleeplessness, it is said. Sleep will also be promoted by walking about the room for ten minutes or a quarter of an hour before going to bed. The extremities will be warmed and a good circulation induced; few can sleep with cold feet.

The Western N. C. Iron.

The 250 tons of iron for the North Western North Carolina R. R., purchased by the merchants of this city in Philadelphia, will probably be shipped to this port the latter part of this week. Its delivery here by the seller is a part of the contract of purchase.

Action for Libel.

We learn, from a reliable source, that an action for libel is about to be instituted by Mr. J. A. Bonitz, of the Goldsboro Messenger, against ex-Judge Daniel L.
Russell, claiming damages at $20,000.
The trouble arises out of allusions made in the Post. The action is to be brought in Wayne Court.

A New Neighbor.

We welcome to the Princess street business community Dr. W. W. Harris, who has removed from his old stand, corner Market and Front streets, to the store in Evans' block, on the first floor of this office. Princess street bids fair, in the near future, to be one of the business centres of the city.

U. S. Commissioner's Court.

The cases of Louis Wood, Richard Wood and John Fisher, the alleged counterfeiters from Onslow county, came up before J. J. Cassidy, U. S. Commissioner this morning; they were all bound over to the Superior Court in the sum of $500 each; but failing to give bonds, they were committed to jail.

St. John's Lodge.

At the annual meeting of the St. John's Lodge F. A. M., held last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz:
Wm. Larkins, W. M.
C. M. VanOrsdell, S. W.
J. I. Mackis, J. W.
J. C. Munds, Secretary.
W. N. Holt, Treasurer.

The Boss.

A letter has been received at the City Hall from William C. Conner, Sheriff of the city and county of New York, offering $10,000 reward for the apprehension and delivery of Wm. M. Tweed, who escaped from the jail of the city of New York on the 4th inst.
Has anybody seen him down this way?
Guess not. They looked for you too late,
'Boss,' thou hast left the land of the free.
O, come back Billy from o'er the green sea, That we may hunt up $10,000 by looking for thee.
Poor chace to make it.

Habeas Corpus.

A white man who gives his name as Flournoy was arrested here yesterday afternoon on suspicion of being one John F. Porter, an escaped convict from Atlanta, Ga., from whence he escaped three years ago. He was tracked to Raleigh and the police there put on his track but they arrested the wrong man and Flournoy, who was a bartender in the Prairie saloon, escaped. He has employed the Messrs.
London as his counsel and an application for habeas corpus will be heard before His Honor, Judge Henry, this afternoon.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning: Robert Phinney, disorderly conduct, fined $20 and costs or 30 days on the streets.
James Wilcutt, larceny of a box of playing cards from the store of Mr. Heinsberger last night, bound over to the Superior Court in the sum of $50.
Lock Howard was arraigned for two offences—disorderly conduct, insulting police, fined $10 and costs; injuring shade trees, dismissed on payment of costs.

Salt Wanted.

There is not a sack of salt in the Milton market for sale, nor can any be bought in Richmond, Va., for love or money, till another cargo arrives. A man was going all over town one day last week offering four dollars just for one sack of the article.
Thus the Milton Chronicle. If the people up in Caswell will send their orders for salt to Wilmington they will be filled 'quicker'n a cat can wink its eye,' and as cheap as it can be bought anywhere from Maine to Texas. It is imported here by the cargo, and Wilmington could easily supply half of the Southern States if the merchants of the place were not afraid to advertise it, for fear somebody would find out they had it for sale and would bother them to trade off some of it in exchange for rag money.

Sent from Pender.

Sheriff Horrell, of Pender, brought to this city last night, Arnold Corbett, colored, of Caswell township, who is sent here on a commitment issued by Justice James Thompson, charging him with the larceny of turpentine, the property of John Bently, colored. He was lodged in jail.

Hot Lemonade for a Cold.

A hot lemonade is one of the best remedies for a cold. It acts promptly and efficiently, and has no unpleasant after effects. One lemon should be properly squeezed, cut in slices, put with sugar, and covered with half a pint of boiling water. Drink just before going to bed and do not expose yourself the following day. This remedy will ward off an attack of chills and fever, if used properly.

Why and When Lamps Explode.

The following hints from the Scientific American may, if observed, prevent many of the explosions the horrible results of which the press is almost daily called upon to chronicle:
All explosions of coal-oil lamps are caused by the vapor or gas that collects in the space above the oil. When full of oil, of course a lamp contains no gas, but immediately on lighting the lamp consumption of oil begins, soon leaving space for gas, which commences to form as the lamp warms up, and, after burning a short time, sufficient gas will accumulate to form an explosion. The gas in a lamp will explode only when ignited. In this respect it is like gunpowder. Cheap or inferior oil is always the most dangerous.
The flame is communicated to the gas in the following manner: The wick-tube in all lamp-burners is made larger than the wick which is to pass through it.
It would not do to have the wick work tightly in the burner; on the contrary, it is essential that it move up and down with perfect ease. In this way it is unavoidable that space in the tube is left along the sides of the wick sufficient for the flame from the burner to pass down into the lamp and explode the gas.
Many things may occur to cause the flame to pass down the wick and explode the lamp:
1. A lamp may be standing on a table or mantel, and a slight puff of air from the window, or the sudden opening of a door, cause an explosion.
2. A lamp may be taken up quickly from a table or mantel and instantly explode.
3. A lamp is taken into an entry where there is a draft, or out of doors, and an explosion ensues.
4. A lighted lamp is taken up a flight of stairs, or is raised quickly to place it on the mantel, resulting in an explosion. In all these cases the mischief is done by the air movement—either by suddenly checking the draft, or forcing air down the chimney against the flame.
5. Blowing down the chimney to extinguish the light is another frequent cause of explosion.
6. Lamp explosions have been caused by using a chimney broken off at the top, or one that has a piece broken out, whereby the draft is varied and the flame unsteady.
7. Sometimes a thoughtless person puts a small sized wick in a large burner, thus leaving considerable space along the edges of the wick.
8. An old burner with its air drafts clogged up, which, rightfully should be thrown away, is sometimes continued in use, and the result is an explosion.
