THE EVENING REVIEW.

VOL. 1. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1876. NO. 93.

PLEASE NOTICE.
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but:
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editors.
Communications must be written only on one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the editors do not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial columns.

CAROLINA.

The young ladies of Newbern give a year party on the 10th of February.
The Raleigh News says: The Insane Asylum is remarkably healthy and is filled up to the last nook and corner. The number of inmates is two hundred and fifty, nearly an even proportion of males and females, the division being males, 120, and 124 females.

The Raleigh News says: Daniel Stewart is the famous cotton raiser of Harnett county. Mr. B. L. Bingham of this city generally sells this cotton for Mr. Stewart.
On the 11th of this month a bale of the cotton shipped to New York by Mr. Bingham sold for 16 1/2 cents. This shows that Stewart's cotton is the best in the Union, for the day it was sold Gulf cotton was only bringing 15 1/2 cents. Harnett takes the rap.

The Concord Register says: In Atwell township in Rowan county, on last Saturday the wife and a little five-year old daughter of Mr. H. Willeford were very badly burned, under the following circumstances: The mother hearing the cries of the child ran to its assistance, and on opening the door of the room in which it was, saw it enveloped in a sheet of flame. She was so overcome by the sight that she fell helpless on the floor, and the child fell across her. The mother's clothes soon caught fire, and but for the timely arrival of assistance she would probably have lost her life. She was badly burned. The child, at last accounts, was in a very precarious condition, and not expected to live.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce says: Carter county has lost a valued citizen.
Craven a warm and active friend, and Eastern North Carolina a firm and able advocate, by the recent removal of State Senator W. T. R. Bell, from Harlowe Creek to King's Mountain. Mr. Bell has long been entreated to establish a school in the Western part of the State, and finally, with reluctance, consented to do so. The citizens of King's Mountain offering weighty inducements, and the location pleasing him, he established himself here.

The Goldsboro Messenger says: The gin house of Col. R. C. Beaman, near Speight's Bridge, in Greene county, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 14th inst., undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. About eight bales of cotton were burned together with the gin and gin house, and Col. Beaman's loss is estimated at $3,000, with no insurance.

An Exploded Hoax.

The German newspapers received by recent mails explain the origin of the story which attracted so much attention, until it was officially contradicted, that the Crown Prince would visit the Exhibition at Philadelphia next Summer. It appears that the story had its origin, as many another interesting story has had, in the fertile brain of a newspaper reporter, and the facts are of special interest to us as they show that sensational journalism is not confined to our own country.
On the 21st of November, Jacob Wolfgang, of the Volks Zeitung; Wilhelm Becker, of the Tribüne; and Ernst von Stessen, of the National Zeitung, were brought before the Berlin Criminal Court, where the prosecuting officer accused them of the publication of a story which was calculated to render the Crown Prince ridiculous. Wolfgang made the following confession of the affair: "I and the three co-defendants were together in Eber's wine room, and we were commiserating one another on the total absence of news, and I proposed to set the report in circulation, that the Crown Prince intended to visit America next year. We next agreed to induce Reuter's agents to telegraph the information to London, whereupon we would take the thing up and elaborate it. We met the agent, Mr. Martin, and he said he would telegraph the news to London. The next day I sent a communication in reference to the matter to the Kölnische Zeitung, which published the same, and then we four reporters wrote about it in our respective papers." The remaining three accused, upon being questioned, acknowledged the correctness of this statement. The judge ordered the payment by Wolfgang, Becker, Goldstein and von Stessen of a fine of twenty marks each.—Phila. Times.

Big Gains from Racing.

Lord Falmouth again heads the list of "winning owners," being credited with £21,152, or nearly £6,000 more than last year, when he was only £500 ahead of Mr. "Launds," the owner of Apology.
His death took place this Spring.
Lord Falmouth, whose winnings for the last five years fall little short of £60,000, has obtained his chief successes this season with Spinaway and Farnese, who have secured nineteen out of the thirty-one races placed to his credit, and £15,516 of the total to which those thirty-one races amount.
Next to him comes Prince Bathany, whose winning score of £10,175 is mainly due to the prowess of Galopin, who carried off the Derby and four other races, amounting in all £7,580. Count de Lagrange is third on the list, with a total of £9,645, won by fifteen different horses in twenty-seven races; but this is only half the sum earned by him, in conjunction with M. Lefevre, last season. Mr. Stirling Crawford is fourth, as Craig Millar, the winner of the St. Leger, and nine others help to raise his total to £8,060; and, though his colors have come to be considered unfortunate, it appears that he has netted close upon £35,000 in the last five years.

St. Patrick's day will undoubtedly be celebrated with the usual honors this city.

Did you see those large oysters at John he eats them.

The money advertised in yesterday's Review was found as called for and identified before half of the edition was worked off. So much for advertising in the REVIEW.

Venus will be the evening star until after the 24th of July, a very auspicious omen for the old maids who have determined to take advantage of the privilege of the new year.

Yesterday forenoon, while the sky was bright and the atmosphere was balmy, they said at the Signal Office in this city that it would be colder and cloudy to-day, and it has come to pass as they said.

The Charlotte Observer says: A private letter received by a gentleman in this city on yesterday, from Morganton, states that the shops of the Western North Carolina Railroad will shortly be moved from Salisbury to that place.

Bring forth the horse. The horse was brought and lo! it was a three-legged velocipede. These stern wheelers are getting to be a nuisance to pedestrians and, like the baby carriages, sometimes monopolize the entire sidewalks.

A Fast Traveler.

We read in Sunday's New York Herald, received here this morning, of the departure from that port, on Saturday, of the steamship Benefactor, and lo! we went down on the wharf this morning and shook hands with Capt. Jones, he having brought his ship to her wharf early this morning.

The owner of the Benefactor should put in a bid for carrying the fast through mails to the South.

Homicide at Marion.

A private letter received here yesterday contains information relative to the killing of a colored man, at Marion, by a white man by the name of Powers. A difficulty occurred between the two last Saturday night about 7 o'clock, which resulted in Powers drawing a pistol and shooting his antagonist dead. There was much excitement there in consequence of the act and some of the dead man's friends talked of violence but Powers escaped and has gone to parts unknown. No other particulars were given.

U. S. Commissioner's Court.

Wm. Liles was arraigned before U. S.
Commissioner J. J. Cassidy, this morning, charged with violating the Internal Revenue law, by selling liquor without the proper tax. He was bound over to the U. S. District Court, for this District, in the sum of $1000, justified.

A Filthy Nuisance.

Tobacco spitters in the Postoffice lobby are a nuisance. Some of them drop their filthy spittle directly under the boxes and letters and papers are occasionally dropped into it in being removed from the boxes. There are many complaints in regard to the matter and we hope that the evil may be remedied.

The Old Folks.

Be sure that you are on hand in time this evening for the opening of the Old Folks Concert and Festival. About fifty persons will be in costume when the Reception of G. Washington's family takes place. It will be a pleasant occasion and those who fail to attend will miss a delightful treat.

Cold Winters.

The coldest winters on record in the United States within the past one hundred years were those of 1780, 1836 and 1856. In 1780 the Delaware river, bay of New York and Long Island Sound were so completely ice-bound as to be crossed with horses and sleighs. The coldest year was that of 1816, in which there was ice in every month of the year.

Booth in Charlotte.

Charlotte bows the knee to its Baal tonight. Booth has consented to remain there for the one evening only and relieve the susceptible of some of their surplus greenbacks. A $1,500 house will probably greet him and after he is gone Charlotte will sit in sack cloth and ashes for a while and eat corn bread and black its own boots and shed tears of vain repentance over the departure from its midst of so much of its circulating medium. Hamlet to-night at the Opera House and Marins Amid the Ruins of Carthage to-morrow night—but not at the Opera House.

Iron at Wholesale.

As an evidence that Charlotte has just claims as a wholesale market for a large section of country tributary to her borders, the large wholesale house of Brem, Brown & Co. sold yesterday, to one of their customers, a bill of nails and iron alone, amounting to $1,180 for cash.
These goods were sold after the buyer had tried the New York, Baltimore and Richmond markets, and the sale is at once a test of the advantages that Charlotte merchants offer to the country trade.— Charlotte Observer.

Tell you what! Some of the Wilmington dealers will fairly hug themselves with delight when they see this. To think that that man might have come down here and looked over their stock and have bought it and troubled them to pack and ship it. And all of this bother and confusion might have been their lot if they had only advertised in the REVIEW.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of by His Honor, Mayor Canaday, this morning:
Francis Holmes, disorderly conduct.
Judgment suspended on payment of costs.
Tama Morris, for the same offence, was fined $50 and costs or 30 days work on the streets.

A party for violating section 1, of the General Ordinance, which prohibits the running at large of dogs within the city limits, was fined $10 and costs. Judgment was afterwards suspended on payment of costs, provided the party take the dogs out of the city, which he proceeded to do.

Jim Potter, who was charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $50 and costs.

A Bold Robbery.

Between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock last evening some thief or thieves entered the bar room of Mr. H. Hanson, on Second street, between Market and Princess, and succeeded in getting away with about $10 in small change, which had been left in the money drawer. At the time the robbery was committed Mr. Hanson was at supper, and the deed, which had no doubt been planned before, was done so quietly that no one knew of it.

On the south side of Mr. Hanson's bar room there is a small alley, and in this alley the thieves commenced their work by tearing away some of the foundation bricks and affecting an entrance under the house; they then crawled under until they got to a fire place inside the building, where breaking loose some of the bricks of the hearth, they climbed up into the store. Mr. Hanson has as yet missed nothing but the money.

The Shelby Aurora.

With this week's issue the publication of the Shelby Aurora has been discontinued. The publisher, Mr. Babington, proposes to remove to Rutherfordton, where he will resume the publication of the paper on or about February 5th.

A Fiend.

A letter has been received by the Chief of Police in this city from C. J. Pride, residing at Rock Hill, S. C., requesting him to look out for a short and stout negro, R. Caldwell, who committed a rape at Rock Hill last January. He tells the Captain if he catches Caldwell to keep him, and he (Mr. Pride) will send a requisition from the Governor.

Superior Court.

The following cases have occupied the attention of Judge McKoy, since our yesterday's report: State vs. David Bryant, charged with larceny. Guilty.

State vs. Josh Clark, charged with larceny. Guilty, but recommended to the mercy of the Court on account of his youth. Judgment for $50 and costs and to give bond for good behaviour, &c., until the next term of the Superior Court.

State vs. Mary Williams, charged with retailing without a license. Not guilty.

State vs. Reuben Loney, charged with larceny. Verdict "Guilty" of receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be such.

State vs. Lewis Green, larceny. Verdict
"not guilty."
The case of the State vs. A. Harrison, who is charged with trespass, is now on trial.

Fire in Bladen County.

The fine dwelling house on the old General Owen place in Bladen county, about 33 miles this side of Fayetteville, together with the kitchen and smoke house and some of the contents of the dwelling, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last, about daybreak. It was the property of Col. H. W. Guion, of Charlotte, but was occupied by Mr. John A. Williams, Jr. There was no one in the house at the time, Mr. Williams with his family having gone on a visit to his father near Fayetteville. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary and was set in the second story and was first discovered when mounting to the cupola. Suspicion rests on some hands whom Mr. Williams had discharged a short time previously. The amount of the loss is not known. The house was entirely destroyed together with a large part of Mr. Williams' furniture. It was a fine dwelling and probably cost, when built, about $8,000. We could not ascertain if there was any insurance on the house or its contents.

MY HUSBAND'S FIRST LOVE.
(GINA MONTANI.)
BY MRS. HENRY WOOD.

MY HUSBAND'S FIRST LOVE (GINA MONTANI) is a new story, by Mrs. Henry Wood, author of "East Lynne," which is printed from advance proof sheets, and is issued in America simultaneously with its publication in Europe. Mrs. Wood's fascinating manner of narration is faithfully preserved in it, and no writer imparts deeper interest in her plots, and in no stories is the action more briskly kept up. My Husband's First Love is full of dramatic incidents, and though short, is as intensely interesting as "East Lynne," and no one will lay it aside until the last page is reached, for the interest never flags. For sale at HEINSBERGER'S Live
