SENATE Washington, Dec. 11 .- The Chair laid be fore the Senate the petition of William Boyle, of Washington, asking that no distinction be made in the suffrage on account of race or sex. Laid on the table.

Mr. Wilson presented a petition from a number of army officers asking increased pay. Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs Mr. Morgan introduced a joint resolution resenting the thanks of Congress to Cyrus Sleighing excellent. The Eric Canal closed Field. Referred. Mr. Wilson offered a resolution that the Secretary of the Senate be directed to pay the funeral expenses of the late William Hickey, Chief Clerk of the Senate, out of the contin-gent fund. On motion of Mr. Fessenden the resolution was referred to the committee to audit the contingent expenses of the Senate.

Mr Brown, of Mo., maintained that the suffrage should be univeral without any restricinatancing in this connection, Slidell, Mason tion as to race, color or sex. In support of this theory he read from a speech made by him on the subject to his constituents.

The District of Columbia suffrage bill was then taken up, the question being on Mrhe could not be tried for treason-he was not Cowan's amendment to extend the franchise to Mr. Trumbull introduced a resolution requesting the President to inform the Senate whether any persons have been appointed to office since the last adjournment of the Senate to fill vacancies existing prior to that adjournment, and particularly if such is not the case in regard to the Surveyor to the port of Philadelphia. Adopted.

Mr. Davis expressly denied the assertion made by the Radicals on the floor, coincided in by some Conservatives, that the sentiments of the people of this country had been proclaimed in favor of negro suffrage. It was a fixed American principle that suffrage pertained exclusively to white men. The States had always reserved jurisdiction over this subject to themselves; but although Congress had been given the entire control over the District, yet for many years the people had been allowed to select their own municipal officers, and manage their local affairs. This negro element which it was now proposed to intro-duce was noxious, hurtful, unreasonable and unnecessary. The white female population of this country at the last census was thirteen million, and the negro population less than four million, yet those who advocated negro suffrage frowned upon female suffrage. The characteristics of the negro were then dilated upon by Mr. Davis, who alleged the negro's inability to elevate himself from barbarism even under the most favorable circumstances, alluding to the failure of negro self-government in the West Indies. HOUSE.

Mr. Blaine, of Me., introduced a resolution authorizing the committee on the War Debts of the loyal States to report a bill authorizing a taxation of 24 per cent. on the National Banks for the payment of such debts. Objection was made and the bill went over.

Mr. Price, of Ohio, introduced a resolution. which was also objected to, relative to the issue of circulation to the National Banks. Laid over. Mr. Miller, of Pa., introduced a resolution, which was laid over, that no State of the South refusing to adopt the Constitutional amendment be entitled to representation. Mr. Cooper, of Tenn., presented the credentials of Hon. B. H. Epperson, representative, long as Vera Cruz is occupied by the French, from the Western district of Texas. Referred. The bill heretofore reported from the committee on the Judiciary by Mr. Lawrence, was taken up. It provides for the repeal of the law of 1790, which prov des that no trial been occupied with stay laws, without definite for treason shall take place three years after action. the commission of the act.

Mr. Jenks, of Rhode Island, and Rogers, of New Jersey, argued against the passage of After debate, the bill was recommitted to ten per cent.

the Judiciary. Mr Blaine, of Me., from the committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill authorizing the President to confer brevet rank, by and with the advice of the President of the Senate, upon officers appointed to the regular service for gallant and meritorious action in the volunteer service. Passed.

Mr. Scheuck, from the same committee, reported back the Senate bill of last session to regulate the peace establishment of the army. Laid on the table. Mr. Bomwill was appointed a member of the committee on the civil service of the U. S., to fill a vacancy. The bill to regulate appointments and removals from office was then taken up and a number of amendments offered.

A Bloodthirsty Bill. WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 .- The bill reported by the Judiciary committee to the house, repealing the Act of 1790, which limits prosecutions for treason to three years, has created the profoundest sensation, and the finest legal talent of that body has been promptly arrayed against the proposition as one monstrous under our idea of government. Many of the leading Republicans, including Mr. Stevens, attached trayal. an expost facto law. From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 11 .- Tampico advices announce forced loans there and at San Louis to support the Imperial troops. The New Orleans Tribune has nominated

Thos. Durand for Provisonal Territorial Governor of Louisians. It says the Union men heretofore holding office have been failures. A torusdo swept over Rusk county, Texas, on the evening of the 4th. Six persons were killed and twelve hurt. Six houses were prostrated, including the industry Academy, killing four scholars. The Red river and other streams are getting very high.
