To-day is the day of a battle, The brunt is hard to bear; Stand back all ye who falter, Make room for them who dare!

The fight is the fight for Freedom, The colors are God's we wear; Oh coward souls who falter, Make room for them who dare!

By twos and by threes we are stronger Than the powers of the air; We need you not who falter, Stand off from them who dare!

The voice is the voice of a leader,

The words ring in the air.

The thrones and the kingdoms are rocking, The tyrants in despair. For help to you who falter, Will flee from them who dare!

"All ye who may may falter, Follow all ye who dare! For the cup in the Lord's hand gloweth, His wine is red and rare; It is death if you but falter,

It is life if you but dare!" GOOD-BY SWEET HEART. Good-BY, sweet heart. I leave thee with the loveliest thing The beauty-burdened spring-time brings, The anemone in enowy hood,

The sweet arbutus in the wood. And to the smiling skies above And to the perfume-breathing breeze I sigh, Sing softest symphonies.
O, lute-like leaves of laden trees Bear all your sweet refrain to him While in the June-time twilights dim He thinks of me as I of him. And so good-by, weet heart.

I leave thee with all purest things, That when some fair temptation sings its luring song, the sore beset. Thou'lt stronger be. Then no regret Life-long will follow after thee. With touches lighter than the air. I kiss your forehead brave and fair, And say to God this last deep prayer: O guard him always, night and day, So from Thy peace he shall not stray. And so good-by, sweet heart.

Good-by, sweet heart!

Good-by, sweet heart. We seem to part; Yet still within mine inmost heart Thou goest with me. Still my place I hold in thine by love's dear grace; Yet all my life seems going out,
As slow I turn my face about,
To go alone another way,
To be alone to life's last day,
Unless thy smile can light my way.
Good by sweet boost The day

Good-by, sweet heart. The dreaded dawn, That tells our love's long tryst is gone, Is purpling all the pallid sky, As low I sigh, Sweet heart, good-by. [For the New Bern Republican.] Republican Meeting in Chatham County.

Pursuant to previous notice, a large number of people assembled at Haywood, Chatham County, N. C., on the 1st day of June, 1867, when, on motion, W. C. Thomas, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Thomas Taylor and Thomas Gunter (colored) were appointed Vice Presidents, and J. K. Gibson (white) and Thomas Blackwell (colored) appointed Secre-

A committee of ten, five of each color, was appointed to draft resolutions for the meeting, viz: Silas Burns, W. T. Gunter, James Wo-mack, J. H. Blount, J. B. Masimore (whites), Dan'l Blacknell, Sanders Smith, Willis Byrd, Elias McKay and Rich'd Barnes (colored.) The meeting was then addressed at considerable length by Messrs. J. R. McDonald and G. P. Moore, of Chatham, and Jas. H. Harris and James Jones, of Raleigh, and W. J. Barrett, of Moore. They all avowed their warm attachment to the Republican party. After which the committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, an awful crisis of affairs has arriver in our country, many of our public men having long since turned traitors to the government, and in addition to the general devastation which they have already brought upon us, they are determined, it seems from their present course, to sink the country deeper into ruin, destruction and despair; and whereas, nothing short of the most powerful, prompt and vigorous exertions of the men of the great National Republican Union party can avert the impending storm and save us from unutterable and irretrievable ruin; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the highest and most solemn duty of every-patriot, of every Union loving man the State over, to arouse himself and buckle on the armor of truth and justice, and make one mighty, one powerful effort to redeem his country from the very jaws of op-pression, and place North Carolina once more in the glorious old Union upon a safe, a firm and lasting foundation.

Resolved, That we hail with pleasure and accept with delight the various acts passed by Congress, the law-making power of the nation, looking to reconstruction, civil rights, universal suffrage, &c.

Resolved, That although we endorse and are highly pleased with the acts of Congress to reconstruct the recently insurgent States, yet we feel it to be our bounden duty as loyal men to say, from every day's experience and observa-tion, that, before we shall be restored on an unmistakably loyal basis, the present rebel State organization must be abolished. Resolved, That it is disheartening and hard for us as Union men to be taxed and oppressed to keep in existence a disaffected State government, through which traitors and disloyal persons are permitted to and do rule over us, throwing at the same time every conceivable obstacle and obstruction in the way of reconstruction which the ingenuity of the ignoble brain can invent. Resolved, That we favor and do recommend that a system of free schools for the benefit

RECONSTRUCTION MEASURES

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDlowing is a correct copy of the an proposed as Article XIV of the Constitution of the United States. As this amendment forms part of the basis of reconstruction adopted by Congress, we publish it for general information and reference

The amendment has up to this date (April 4) been ratified by the following States: Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Massachusetts, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Penusylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont, West Virginia, Wisconsin-21 in all.

The amendment has been rejected by the Legislatures of Delaware, Maryland and Kentucky, and by all the unreconstructed "States," to wit: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia-13 in all. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representa-tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, (two-thirds of both Houses concurring,) That the following article be proposed to the Legisla-tures of the several States as an amendment to the Con-stitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid as part of the Constitution, namely:

ARTICLE XIV.

Sec. 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities or citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the could protection of the laws.

BILL FOR RECONSTRUCTION. The following is Senator Sherman's substitute for Stevens' bill, with Wilson's and Shellabarger's amendments in the House, as it was finally passed. Wilson's amendment is the latter portion of section five, com-meneing at the word "provided." The sixth section is Shellabarger's amendment: A BILL TO PROVIDE FOR THE MORE EFFICIENT GOVERN-MENT OF THE REBEL STATES. Whereas, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas; and whereas, it is necessary that peace and good order should be enferced in said States until loyal and republican State governments can be legally established He it enacted, &c., That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts, and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed; and for that purpose Virginia shall consti-tute the 1st district; North Carolina and South Carolina the 2d district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the 3d district; Mississippi and Arkansas the 4th district, and Louisiana and Texas the 5th district. SEC. 2. That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army not below the rank of brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid, to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disor-der and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and try offenders, or when in his judgment it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose; and all interference under color of State authority with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 4. That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflict-with its provisions.

SEC. 5. That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male aitizens of said State twenty-one years old and upward, of whatever race, color or previ-ous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualification herein stated for election of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification who are persons voting on the question of ratification who are qualified as electors for delegates, and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same, and when said State by a vote of it. proved the same; and when said State by a vote of its Legislature elected under said constitution shall have adopted the amendment to the Constitution of the adopted the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-Ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen, and when said article shall have become a part of the Constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom on their taking the oath prescribed by law, and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State: Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said proposed amend ment to the Constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of said convention

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil governments which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supercede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none other, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall ions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under any such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitution al amendment.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

Resolutions adopted by the Republicans of North Curoling, at a Convention held in Raleigh, 27th March, Having assembled in the City of Raleigh on the 27th of March, 1867, in conformity with a timely and patriotic call, reflecting the sentiments of the loyal men of the State, and believing the time is at hand when an open and fearless expression of sentiments, opinion, and purpose is urgently demanded : therefore,

1. Resolved, That in view of our present political condition, our relations to the National Government and the people of all sections of the country, we do this day with proud satisfaction unfurl the brilliant and glorious banner of The Republican Party, and carnestly appeal to every true and patriotic man in the State to rally to its support.

The splendid and patriotic record made by this great political organization, in standing by the general gov-ernment with an inflexible resolution, in carrying forward profound measures of statesmanship to a successissue, and the powerful aid given by it in finally overthrowing and prostrating the most gigantic rebellion of ancient or modern times, should command the respect and challenge the admiration of every candid

2. Resolved, That the American Congress is eminently entitled to the profound thanks of the whole country for its persevering, persistent and heroic devotion to the great principles of human rights as enunciated in the Declaration of Independence; that in the name of the patriotic people of this State we feel warranted in cordially assenting to and accepting the reconstruction plan recently and finally adopted by that body, and to the end that peace and order may be permanently secured and every industrial pursuit resumed and encouraged, we pledge ourselves to use every fair and legitimate means to influence public sentiment to the nearest possible approach to unanimity on this subject. 3. Resolved, That we rejoice that the dogma long propagated, of the right of peaceable secession under the constitution, has been forever overthrown by the majestic uprising of the American people, in crushing out the late rebellion by force of arms; and that the doctrine that the supremacy of the general government has been established, and that the paramount allegiance of the citizen has been acknowledged as due to the 4. Resolved, That we sincerely exult in the fact that as a nation we are now absolutely a NATION OF FREE-MEN, and that the sun in all his course over our wide

ABRAHAM LINCOLN now rest silently beneath the soil of his adopted State, yet his voice still rings like a clarion through the land, earnestly summoning every American itizen to the support of the great Party of Liberty and Emancipation. 5. Resolved, That as the most potent and efficient prosperity, we earnestly advocate the spreading of attainment of this great end, we demand and shall per-sistently and firmly insist upon the absolute right of free discussion and free speech on all subjects of public in-

6. Resolved, That we join in an earnest wish for the maintainance untarnished and undimmed of the public credit and plighted faith of the nation.

7. Resolved, That in the maintainance of the position taken and the principles this day avowed, we earnestly invite the influence and co-operation of men of all political persuasions, who regard and cordially support the recent action of Congress as a solution of our present political difficulties; that we deprecate partizan violence and desire peace and good will toward all men; and if in an open and fearless effort, which we propose to make on every suitable occasion, to persuade and convince the on every suitable occasion, to persuade and convince the people, that our highest duty and truest interest is to be subserved by maintaining the principles of the Republican Party, an earnest interest should be awakened, it will be from no other cause than a rigid adherance to what we regard as a sacred right and a solemn public

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

TOR restoring hair upon baid heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and faccing a growt of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force it beard to grow upon the amootheat face in from five the eight weeks, or hair upon hald heads in from two three months. A few ignorant practitioners have a serted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are taken as thousands of living witnesses (from their own or perience) can bear witness. But many will say, how as we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? certainly is difficult, as also-tenths of the different Paparations advertised for the hair and beard are entire worthless, and you may have already thrown away larg amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, to the Reparator Capilli: It will cost you nothing unless fully comes up to our representations. If your Brunch does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forwar the which will be returned you on application, providing which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. The Republican will be devoted to the common interests of our people, with "malice toward none and charley for all;" it will plead for the maintenance inviolate of the National Government and its credit; the education by all available means of the people; the encoaragement of immigration and the development of our agricultural, militeral and commercial resources.

While the Republican will be pre-eminently a new-paper, the departments of Commerce, Agricultural Science, Art, and Literature, will receive such attention by Reports, Essays, Reviews and Summaries as space will permit.

Full reports on all matters of Local Interest will form a prominent feature, and as there appears as yet ne other unconditional Union paper in Eastern North Carolina, the advantages which the Republican will offer as an advertising medium are apparent.

Resolved, That we esteem ourselves fortunate, in that so experienced and accomplished a statesman and soldier as Major General Daniel E. Sickles has been appointed to the command of this military district. We tender to him our hearty co-operation as loyal citizens in the performance of the important duties that have been devolved upon him.

Resolved, That we are gratified to learn that Gen. John C. Robinson has been assigned to the command of this State, under Gen. Sickles. His former administration of military affairs in this State has been such as to give us a most favorable opinion of his peculiar fitness for the position thus assigned him.

Mr. Carter introduced the following, which was also adopted:
