OUR DARLING

In her dainty cushioned chair, With white daisies in her hair, Singing low, some childish tune In this golden day of June, Sits our Darling !

On her cheek so pure and bright, Sunshine lingers; but a light Fairer than of summer skies Dwells within the tender eyes Of our Darling.

On her rosy lips, we know Sweetest kisses sleep! and O, Never note of singing bird, Charmed us like the simplest word From our Darling.

In the temple of her heart Sweetness dwells, and bids depart Every harsh and haughty word— Every thought to anger stirred, Gentle Darling.

To our life of toil and care Her's is beauty, rest and cheer!
So our souls, forgetting pain,
Gird them for the strife again.
Precious Darling!

O, Good Shepherd, lead her now, Where still waters gently flow; In green pastures let her rest. Till we walk among the Blest! Angel Darling! A. B. C. K.

POPPING THE QUESTION.

They were sitting side by side-And she sighed and then he sighed; Said he, "My darling idol"— And he idled, and then she idled; "You are creation's belle "_ And she bellowed, and he bellowed: "O'er my soul there's come a weight"_ And he waited, and then she waited; "Your hand I ask, so bold I've grown"_ And she groaned, and he groaned; "You shall have a private gig"—
And she giggled, then he giggled.
Said she, "My dearest Luke"—
And he looked, and she looked; "I'll have thee if thou wilt"_ And he wilted, and then she wilted.

progressing satisfactorily. We learn that the festival will consist of a grand general concert, a concert of societies for the contention of prizes, a grand picnic to Washington Re-treat, excursions on the Delaware, ditto to the suburbs, processions, feastings, &c., &c.—
These will occupy from Saturday, the 13th of July, until the following Wednesday, although many of the societies will remain a greater length of time.

The actual number of societies present will be eighty-three, consisting of two thousand three hundred and eleven men. This immense army of singers will be directed by the baton of Professor Leopold Engelke, of Philadelphia, who has spared no pains to make the occasion a season of true German festivity and song. REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Resolutions adopted by the Republicans of North Carolina, at a Convention held in Raleigh, 27th March,

Having assembled in the City of Raleigh on the 27th of March, 1867, in conformity with a timely and patriotic call, reflecting the sentiments of the loyal men of the State, and believing the time is at hand when an open and fearless expression of sentiments, opinion, and purpose is urgently demanded : therefore,

1. Resolved, That in view of our present political condition, our relations to the National Government and the people of all sections of the country, we do this day with proud satisfaction unfurl the brilliant and glorious banner of THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, and earnestly apanthority with the exercise of military authority under peal to every true and patriotic man in the State to rally to its support The splendid and patriotic record made by this great political organization, in standing by the general government with an inflexible resolution, in carrying forward profound measures of statesmanship to a successful issue, and the powerful aid given by it in finally overthrowing and prostrating the most gigantic rebel-lion of ancient or modern times, should command the respect and challenge the admiration of every candid 2. Resolved, That the American Congress is eminently entitled to the profound thanks of the whole country for its persevering, persistent and heroic devotion to the great principles of human rights as enunciated in the Declaration of Independence; that in the name of the patriotic people of this State we feel warranted in cordially assenting to and accepting the reconstruction plan recently and finally adopted by that body, and to the end that peace and order may be permanently secured and every industrial pursuit resumed and encouraged, we pledge ourselves to use every fair and legitimate means to influence public sentiment to the nearest possible approach to unanimity on this subject.

3. Resolved. That we rejoice that the dogma long propagated, of the right of peaceable secession under the Constitution, has been forever overthrown by the majestic uprising of the American people, in crushing out the late rebellion by force of arms; and that the doctrine that the supremacy of the general government has been established, and that the paramount allegiance of the citizen has been acknowledged as due to the 4. Resolved, That we sincerely exult in the fact that as a nation we are now absolutely a Nation of Freespread country no longer shines upon the brow of a slave. Without reservation we heartily endorse the great measures of Civil Rights and Impartial Enfranchisement without any property qualification, conferred without distinction of color, and that we are ready to unite in the early practical attainment of these inestlmable privileges. Although the mortal remains of ABRAHAM LINCOLN now rest silently beneath the soil of his adopted State, yet his voice still rings like a clarion through the land, earnestly summoning every American citizen to the support of the great Party of Liberty and 5. Resolved, That as the most potent and efficient means by which the South can speedily regain her lost prosperity, we earnestly advocate the spreading of knowledge and education among all men, and that to the attainment of this great end, we demand and shall persistently and firmly insist upon the absolute right of free discussion and free speech on all subjects of public in-

6. Resolved, That we join in an carnest wish for the maintainance untarnished and undimmed of the public credit and plighted faith of the nation.
7. Resolved, That in the maintainance of the position taken and the principles this day avowed, we earnestly invite the influence and co-operation of men of all political persuasions, who regard and cordially support the recent action of Congress as a solution of our present political difficulties; that we deprecate partizan violence and desire peace and good will toward all men; and if in an open and fearless effort, which we propose to make on every suitable occasion, to persuade and convince the people, that our highest duty and truest interest is to be subserved by maintaining the principles of the Republican Party, an earnest interest should be awakened, it will be from no other cause than a rigid adherance to what we regard as a sacred right and a solemn public The following resolution was offered by Mr. J. E

O'Hara, of Wayne, and adopted : Resolved, That this Convention tender their sincere thanks to Jas. H. Harris for the zealous and efficient manner in which he has labored at the North for the cause of all loyal men in North Carolina and for her speedy return to the Union.

Mr. W. F. Henderson, of Davidson, offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are due and are hereby tendered to the Spartan hand of Republicans in the late Legislature of this State, for their bold and fearless defence of Congress and the Union.

Mr. Settle offered the following, which were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we esteem ourselves fortunate, in that so experienced and accomplished a statesman and sol-dier as Major General Daniel E. Sickles has been ap-pointed to the command of this military district. We ender to him our hearty co-operation as loyal citizens in the performance of the important duties that have been devolved vpon him, Resolved, That we are gratified to learn that Gen. John C. Robinson has been assigned to the command of this State, under Gen. Sickles. His former administration of military affairs in this State has been such as to give us a most favorable opinion of his peculiar fitness for the position thus assigned him.

Mr. Carter introduced the following, which was also trict be authorized to appoint such committees in Mr. Dockery offered the following, which was adoptgetherd. That the members of the Convention hereby ge themselves to use every legithmate means in their er to disseminate correct information among the ole of their respective counties.
