that we have, in our immediate vicinity, as delightful a summer resort as can be found in any of the Northern States, and new arrivals at the hotels and boarding houses at Morehead City and Beaufort are the result. We had the pleasure of visiting our sister towns on Saturday last, and we enjoyed ourselves to an extent unprecedent in our seaside experience. Major Granger, of the Macon House, at Morehead, has added new attractions, which make his Hotel a most desirable resort. A Band of Music is in continual attendance, On Saturday next, a great boat race will come off in the harbor, on which occassion guaranties of fun and amusement are offered. A Ball at the Macon House will close the day's amusement. Ho! for Morehead!

VEGETABLES.—We were shown some specimens of tomatoes yesterday, which "beat anything in the line." They were grown in the garden of our energetic townsman, Mr. Geo. Allen. Three tomatoes weighed thirtysix ounces.
