THE POSITION OF THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC PARTIES

A Dialogue Between a White Republican and a Colored Citizen

The following is a dialogue between a newly enfranchised freedman and a sound Radical Republican. The new-made voter is seeking light upon the subject of his political duties, and his Radical friend gives him plain facts, and demonstrates clearly with which party he and all like him should act.

THE DIALOGUE

Question. With which party should the colored man vote? Answer. The Union republican party. Q. Why should the colored man vote with that party? A. Because that party has made him free and given him the right to vote.

Q. With whom do the disloyal white men of the South desire the colored men to vote?

A. With the democratic party. Q. Would not the democrats take away all the negroes' rights? A. They would. Q. Then why do they pretend to be the best friends of colored men?

A. Because they pretend they are fit only for slavery, or an inferior position, and are happier in either condition. Q. How would it suit them to be served in the same manner? A. They would not endure it. They call themselves a superior race of beings, and claim they are born your rulers.

obtained power. It publicly advocates their repeal.

Q. Well, I am satisfied you have clearly shown me my duty, and I will impart the information to my people. A. Let me say to you further, that the democratic party will use all means to get the colored people to vote for them.

Q. To what party do the white people of the South belong? A. The larger portion belong to the democratic party. Q. Are the slave holders and the leaders of the rebellion members of that party?

Q. The colored men should not vote with the republican or radical party?

A. They should and shall the democratic party as they would the over-throw of the republican party.

Q. What is the meaning of the word radical as applied to political parties and politicians?

A. It means one who is in favor of going to the root of things; who is forthrightly in earnest, who desires that slavery should be abolished, that every disability connected therewith should be obliterated, not only from the national laws but from those of every State in the Union.

Q. What is the position of the democratic party during the war?
