MADANE E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astroogist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has asished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornten possesses such wenderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System. The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his linary Pills, and cures the most virluent sore with a box or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called remedies of others, and upon which people have so long Mindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffice to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant. There is no griping and no reaction in the form of con stipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invig-This last quality makes the medicine very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and Struptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that MAGGIEL'S BILLOUS, DYSPEPTIC AND BIARRHOEA PILLS cure where all others fail While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasians of the skin MAGGIEL'S PILLS is infallible. Republican State Convention.

In accordance with the following resolution, passed after full consultation, at a meeting of the Republican State Executive Committee, held in Raleigh, on the 5th of June last, a Delegate Republican State Convention is hereby called, to meet at Raleigh at 11 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday, September 4th, 1867:

"Resolved. That this Committee recommend that a Convention of the Republican party of North Carolina assemble in Raleigh on Wednesday, the 4th day of September next; and that the people be requested to elect or appoint, through primary meetings, delegates thereto."

The object in calling the Convention, is that it may take such additional steps as may seem necessary and proper to add to the efficiency of the Republican organization in North Carolina, and to secure the triumph of Republican principles and measures. It is proposed that each County in the State send as many delegates, white and colored, as it may desire, and that when assembled in Convention the respective Counties shall be entitled to as many votes as they are entitled to members of the House of Commons under the present apportionment. All who are prepared to act and co-operate with the Republican party, are invited to attend and participate in the proceedings of the Convention.

The great and vital questions of public policy now at issue—the importance of in suring an early return of North Carolina to the Union, and the controlling influence the Republican party is destined to exert in the accomplishment of this result, render it important that the Convention should assemble with such a spirit as will insure harmony and concert of action. With all the associations connected with the struggles and triumphs of the Republican party-its wise and patriotic record in peace as well as in war-its anxiety and power to preserve and perpetuate the Union-there is everything to inspire our friends, and to induce them to co-operate resolutely and vigorously in the work of restoring North Carolina to a loyal position in the government, thus hastening the return of peace and prosperity to her people.

SECTIONAL HATE AND POLITICAL MAD-NESS.

SIR:-Murder, rapine, and indiscriminate butchery of innocent women and children heretofore unknown in our State) now appear to be the order of the day; can an honest journalist say that these crimes are not the leitimate results of Radical teaching ... Journal of Commerce.

Crime and bloodshed have already resulted, and the worst has not yet come. It is easy to excite the passions of an ignorant and brutal but it is not easy to allay, or to control those passions, and should a "carnival of bleed "come, as come it will, sooner or later, unless better counsels prevail, the entire responsibility will fall upon those radicals whose daily occupation it is, to stir up strife in our

The political parsons of the day, and the Congressional pilgrims are responsible for most of the crimes recently committed in this vicinity, and at a future day, when an infallible Judge shall pass sentence, they will most assuredly receive the condemnation expressed in the language-" Depart from me, ye cursed. into everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels." Unless these men repent, we shall respond, so mote it be! Amen!-Journal of

The precious paragraphs above quoted. with others of similar import, all jumbled together, appear in a leading editorial of the Journal of Commerce of yesterday morning. It is true the first paragraph is taken from what purports to be a series of questions propounded to us over the anonymous signature of "Anxious Enquirer," but made and intended as part of the editorial itself.

We have given enough to exhibit the tone and temper and utter desperation of the whole thing. Driven from the field of legitimate disputation and argument, the froth and pent up rage of our cotemporary can only find vent in such common-place railing and ranting as is well calculated to arouse a feeling of envy in the breast of the most finished expert at billingsgate.

The blasphemous use made of Holy as follows: Cotton a shade easier-sales of Writ, at the close of the editorial, in an apparently sanctimonious desire to send to the regions of "everlasting fire" those who happen to differ with the unctuous editor in political sentiment, is, in our judgment, a most complete exemplification of the monstrous and demoralizing spirit wrought in the human mind by the spurious teachings and utter vandalism of the spirit of secession. Instances have been as numerous as deeply lamentable, that men, who, previous to the late terrible rebellion, were recognized as generally rational and orthodox on the leading political questions of the day, have been gradually unhinged from all sense of political propriety and consistency, and seem now disposed to "out-Herod Herod" in such diabolical expressions of partizan madness and sectional hate as seem well calculated to court the smiles of Satan

Into this detestable slough of partizan rancor the editor of the Journal of Commerce, as every one can see by the tenor and violent tone of his article of yesterday, has taken a full and voluntary plunge. His buffetings in the putrid stream he has chosen to swim are truly lamentable.

We now say, with all coolness and deliberation, this audacious course, that seems as a last resort to have been adopted, will prove to be nothing but an ignominious failure. The attempt to sow the seeds of discord in the ranks of the Republican party, are too palpable and bald as well as transparently awkward, to have the slighest effect. Every true Republi can comprehends in a moment the object of all these insidious efforts, and we can say, with a degree of assurance amounting to moral certainty, that they will not only fall totally short of their intended purpose, but are quite likely to rebound against their reckless propagators with stunning effect.

The charges of blood-thirsty objects and demoralizing influences so flippantly indulged in against the Republican party and its adherents, are so far outside of the pale of truth as not only to excite the astonishment but disgust of many leading Southern men who do not support that party or deem proper to act in concert with it. All these accusations about "exciting the passions of an ignorant and brutal race," and that dreadful period when a "carnival of blood" may occur, are simply contemptible when applied to the Republican organization.

Republicans, in all directions, are the inflexible enemies of the acts of have occurred in our vicinity, and have done and are doing everything in their power to put an effectual end to such monstrous crimes.

And now, while we deprecate this spirit of crimination and recrimination that has been inaugurated by our cotemporary, we wish to turn his attention to other causes than those of "radical teachings" that have had a natural tendency to bring about "the present deplo- schools. rable condition of this section of the country." We assert and charge, without fear of successful refutation, that the disorder, bad-blood, strife and suffering that now appears so prevalent in our community, nay, throughout the entire South, may be properly charged to the wild and reckless attempt, on the part of guilty and implacable secessionists, to to this subject. overthrow and destroy the government of the United States. Before this wicked attempt was made, although the "foul blot" of slavery rested upon our country. still, a remarkable degree of peace and order prevailed.

As appropriate to the discussion of a subject like that now under consideration, we invite particular attention to the solemn warning of one of the " master spirits" of the South, the Hon. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS, of Georgia, before a Convention of that State, as to the awful and fatal results of the insane attempt to break up the Union. These eloquent utterances may now be held up as a mirror before the faces of these men who are so terribly shocked at the results of " radical teachings." Let them read and then ponder over the results of their own folly

This step (of secession) once taken, can never be recalled; and all the baleful and withering consequences that must follow, will rest on the convention for all coming time. When desolated by the demon of war, which this ACT OF YOURS WILL INEVITABLY INVITE AND harvest be trodden down by the murderous WHO BUT THIS CONVENTION WILL BE HELD shall have given his vote for this unwise and ill-timed measure, as I honestly think and believe, SHALL BE HELD TO STRICT ACCOUNT FOR THIS SUICIDAL ACT BY THE PRESENT GENERA TION, AND PROBABLY CURSED AND EXECRAthe wide and desolating ruin that will inevitably follow this act you now propose to perpetrate? Pause, I entreat you, and consider for a moment what reasons you can give that will even satisfy yourselves in calmer momentswhat reasons you can give to your fellow-sufferers in the calamity that it will bring upon WHAT REASONS CAN YOU GIVE TO THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH TO JUSTIFYIT? They will be the calm and deliberate judges in the case and what cause or one overt act can you. name or point, on which to rest the plea of justification? WHAT RIGHT HAS THE NORTH ASSAILED? What interest of the South has been invaded? What justice has been denied? and what claim founded in justice and right has been withheld? Can either of you to-day name one governmental act of wrong, deliberately and purposely done by the government of Washington, of which the South has a right to complain? I challenge the answer.

EDUCATION OF THE COLORED PEOPLE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NORMAL SCHOOL

Necessity and the stern realities of the subject are steadily and surely removing old prejudices against the education of the African people of the United States. When the disappointments of the war have passed and people see that it is better to live among intelligent negroes than among ignorant ones, the hatred of the negro now so general among a certain class of people on account of his liberty must pass away and feelings more akin to christianity and brotherly love must take its place. Already the example of some of the best men and women of the South, who are using personal efforts for the education of the freed-people, stands in striking contrast to the teeth-knashing of the lost-cause-growlers who can see nothing in the colored man to elevate and

To the honor of North Carolina be it said that the first public acknowledgment of the necessity of educating the colored people, by a public body of Southern people, was made within her borders. Although there was some opposition to the measure, the Episcopal Convention which met at Wilmington a few months ago, has elicited the plaudits of impartial men throughout the Union by its open and positive stand in the cause of education. In this connection we are glad to learn that the Committee who have had the subject in charge, have resolved to fill the want so generally felt i, e. competent colored teachers.

Under the auspices of the Episcopal diocese of North Carolina, the Norma School and Collegiate Institute of North Carolina has been founded, under the management of the following Board of

Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson, D. D.; Rev. R. S. Mason, D. D., of Raleigh, Rev. A Smedes, D. D., of Raleigh; Rev. Dr. E. Brinton Smith, D. D.; Rev. E. M. Forbes, of New Bern; Rev. J. B. Cheshire, D. D.; Kemp P. Battle, Esq.; General -Cox, of Raleigh; John Wilkes, Esq.; Dr. A. J. DeRossett, of Wilmington, and Richard Smith, Esq., of Scotland, Neck.

The provisions thus far made are of robbery and murder that unfortunately the most liberal and promising character. Although the institution is organ under the supervision of the Episcop Church, its charter provides that no person shall be excluded on account of religion, political sentiment, sex or race. It is the intention of the founders that this school shall take a high grade among the high-schools of the country.

Among the ultimate objects are also the establishment of proper industrial

This project is not a mere theoretical one; a building committee has already been appointed who are to go immediately to work; the site has been selected. FINANCIAL PROSPECTS

The "financial distress" alluded to in and instructions will be transmitted to Box of Registration, through the same change the Journal of Commerce, so extensively prevailing in the South is the legitimate result of an obstinate opposition to ent y iroposition for peaceable and speedy reconstruction on the part of the Representatives of the people.

Had the famous "Howard Amendment" been accepted instead of being spurned in the bad temper it was, we might have had peace and financial prosperity, although the great and just boon of universaal suffrage would have been temporarily postponed. We rejoice to see and know that reasonable men in every direction are becoming fully awakened to the blind folly and stupidity of this "rule or ruin" policy. There is now but one plain and certain road left open for a speedy return of that financial prosperity we all so much need and covet, and that consists in the full and complete accepwe and our posterity shall see our lovely South tance of the present plan proposed by Congress. Security, that is the potent CALL FORTH; when our green fields of waving word, SECURITY for person and property, is what is meant and will be obsoldiery and fiery car of war sweeping over our land; our temples of justice laid in ashes; tained in the event of the final adopall the horrors and desolations of war upon us; tion of the measures tendered by tion of the measures tendered by RESPONSIBLE FOR IT? and who but him who our true friends. The obstinute course has been indulged in long enough. Let it be abandoned totally and without reservation. Such are the councils, admonitions TED BY POSTERITY FOR ALL COMING TIME, for and advice of many of the most reliable men of the South; men who have risked their lives on many a "red and rent field of battle." Who can and who will hesitate when the remedy for our "financial distress" appears so clearly in view?

THE POSITION OF THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIO PARTIES.

At the solicitation of many friends, we republish to-day the Dialogue between a white Republican and a colored Teas.

This document has proven to be the most successful one yet issued by the Republican Congressional Committee in the present political campaign. We printed a large number of extra copies when first we published it, but the supply was exhausted within a few hours, and the demand continues. Let every friend of the cause see to it that the Dialogue has a wide circulation among the colored
