The Rev. Henry W. Bellows, now sojourning in Paris, writes that "Napoleon has a poor walk and an uninteresting presence. He looks careworn and cold, anxious and reserved. His complexion is pallid, and his expression deprecatory. There is nothing to excite enthusiasm in his look or manner. In private he is reported, as mild-spoken, amiable, and of quick intelligence; but his face is both im-passive and unpromising. All the portraits flatter him."

Among the Americans registered at Hof Ragatz, Zurich, Switzerland, for the week ending June 22, were the Hon. E. B. Washburne, Illinois; the Hon. Montgomery Gibbs, New York; the Hon. George Harrington, United States Minister to Switzerland; the Hon. Rufus Divinel, Maine; the Hon. Charles A. Page, United States Consul at Zurich; and Gov. A. G. Curtin, Pennsylvania.

The following appointments of Registers are announced. The persons named will be assigned to duty by Post Commanders as members of Boards of Registration for the several Registration Precincts they may establish within their commands.

Commanding Officers of Posts will fill vacancies and report their action to these Headquarters for confirmation.

Two Boards of Registration will be organ-ized for each County in North Carolina having more than six election precincts, except the Counties of Beaufort, Cumberland, Craven, Edgecombe, Granville, Halifax, New Hanover, Wake, Davie, and Wilson, which shall have the Boards provided for in this order.

Three Boards of Registration will be organized for each District in South Carolina, except the Districts of Barnwell, Berkely, Orange-burg, Lexington, Beaufort, Greenville, Ches-ter, Colleton and the city of Charleston, which shall have the Boards provided for in this or-

Registers will be required to take the oath prescribed by the Act of Congress approved 2d July, 1862. Blank forms of this oath of office will be furnished to Post Commanders and when duly subscribed and sworn will be re-turned to these Headquarters.

The election precincts established by law or custom as voting places in the Counties and Cities of North Carolina and in the Districts, Parishes and Municipalities of South Carolina, will be designated by Post Commanders as the places for Registration. It is desirable that no more than six of these, and preferably a less number, be included in a Registration Precinct and assigned to one Board, so that ample facilities may be afforded for Registra-

Every Board of Registration will choose its presiding officer, who will represent the Board and announce its action upon all matters com-

Regulations for the government of Registers in the discharge of their duties will be duly published as soon as practicable for general information. [We give the appointments for the Military

RECONSTRUCTION MEASURES.

THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMEND-

The following is a correct copy of the amendment proposed as Article XIV of the Constitution of the United States. As this amendment forms part of the basis of reconstruction adopted by Congress, we publish it for general information and reference.

The amendment has up to this date (April 4) been ratified by the following States: Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Massachusetts, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey. New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont, West Virginia, Wisconsin-21 in all.

The amendment has been rejected by the Legislatures of Delaware, Maryland and Kentucky, and by all the unreconstructed "States," to wit: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia-18 in all.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representa-tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, (two-thirds of both Houses concurring,) That the following article be proposed to the Legisla-tures of the several States as an amendment to the Con-stitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid as part of the Constitution, namely:

ARTICLE XIV. SEC. 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SEC. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for Piesi-dent and Vice President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the propor-tion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SEC 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each House remove such disability.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be SEC. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this ar-

BILL FOR RECONSTRUCTION.

The following is Senator Sherman's substitute for Stevens' bill, with Wilson's and Shellabarger's amendments in the House, as it was finally passed. Wilson's amendment is the latter portion of section five, commencing at the word "provided," The sixth section is Shellabarger's amendment:

MENT OF THE REBEL STATES.

Whereas, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas; and whereas, it is necessary that peace and good order should be enferced in said States until loyal and republican State governments can be legally established:

Be it enacted, &c., That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts, and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed; and for that purpose Virginia shall consti-tute the 1st district; North Carolina and South Carolina the 2d district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the 3d district; Mississippi and Arkansas the 4th district, and Louisiana and Texas the 5th district. Sec. 2. That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army not below the rank of brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned. SEC. 3. That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid, to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disor-der and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take juris-diction of and try offenders, or when in his judgment it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have

SEC. 4. That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district; and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they may conflict

SEC. 5. That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male aitizens of said State twenty-one years old and upward, of whatever race, color or previ-ous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualification herein stated for election of delegates; and when such constitution shall be retified by a majority of the such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification who are qualified as electors for delegates, and when such con-stitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when said State by a vote of its Legislature elected under said constitution shall have adopted the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-Ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen, and when said article thall have become a part of the Constitution of the shall have become a part of the Constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom on their taking the oath prescribed by law, and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State: Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said proceed around County of Craven—Charles A. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled. That before the let day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by an act entitled "An act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebell States," approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age and apwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration shall include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation: "I, ————, do solemnly swear, (or affirm.) in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ———: that I have resided in said State for ———— that I have resided in said State for ———— that I have resided in said State, (as the case may be:) that I am twenty one years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the limited States, nor for felony committed against the limited States, as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State or of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State. The United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do, so help me God: "which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

SEC. 2. And be it "urther enacted. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or panales of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That at said election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution therefor against a convention to form a constitution therefor under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convenunder this act. Those voting in lavor of such a conven-tion shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "For a convention," and those voting against such a conven-tion shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "Against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general to whom the same shall have been returned shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. f a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then such convention shall be held as hereinafter provided: but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no such convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of olding such convention.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such boards of registration as may be necessary, consisting of three loyal officers or persons, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters, and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention, at the time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act. and the act to which it is supplementary: and when the same shall have been so framed, said constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed or to be appointed by the commanding general, as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof, o be given by said convention; and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district. SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least onehalf of all the registered voters voting upon the ques-tion of such ratification,) the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling, and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely, and without restraint, fear, or the influence of fraud, and if the Congress shall be satisfied that such qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supple mentary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as therein provided. SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office."

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Resolutions adopted by the Republicans of North Carolina, at a Convention held in Raleigh, 27th March,

Having assembled in the City of Raleigh on the 27th of March, 1867, in conformity with a timely and patriotic call, reflecting the sentiments of the loyal men of the State, and believing the time is at hand when an open and fearless expression of sentiments, opinion, and purpose is urgently demanded: therefore,

1. Resolved, That in view of our present political condition, our relations to the National Government and the people of all sections of the country, we do this day with proud satisfaction unturl the brilliant and glorious banner of THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, and earnestly ap peal to every true and patriotic man in the State to rally to its support.

The splendid and patriotic record made by this great political organization, in standing by the general government with an inflexible resolution, in carrying forward profound measures of statesmanship to a successful issue, and the powerful aid given by it in finally overthrowing and prostrating the most gigantic rebel-lion of ancient or modern times, should command the respect and challenge the admiration of every candid

2. Resolved, That the American Congress is eminently entitled to the profound thanks of the whole country for its persevering, persistent and heroic devotion to the great principles of human rights as enunciated in the Declaration of Independence; that in the name of the patriotic people of this State we feel warranted in cor-dially assenting to and accepting the reconstruction plan recently and finally adopted by that body, and to the end that peace and order may be permanently secured and every industrial pursuit resumed and encouraged, we oledge ourselves to use every fair and legitimate means to influence public sentiment to the nearest possible approach to unanimity on this subject.

3. Resolved. That we rejoice that the dogma long propagated, of the right of peaceable sacession under the Constitution, has been forever overthrown by the majestic uprising of the American people, in crushing out the late rebellion by force of arms; and that the doctrine that the supremacy of the general government has been established, and that the paramount allegiance of the citizen has been acknowledged as due to the

4. Resolved, That we sincerely exult in the fact that as a nation we are now absolutely a NATION OF FREE-MEN, and that the sun in all his course over our wide spread country no longer shines upon the brow of a slave. Without reservation we heartly endorse the great measures of Civil Rights and Impartial Enfranchisement without any property qualification, conferred without distinction of color, and that we are ready to unite in the early practical attainment of these inestimable privileges. Although the mortal remains of mable privileges. Although the mortal remains of ABBAHAM LINCOLN now rest silently beneath the soil of his adopted State, yet his voice still rings like a clarion through the land, earnestly summoning every American citizen to the support of the great Party of Liberty and Emancipation.

5. Resolved. That as the most potent and efficient means by which the South can speedily regain her lost prosperity, we earnestly advocate the spreading of knowledge and education among all men, and that to the attainment of this great end, we demand and shall persistently and firmly insist upon the absolute right of free discussion and free speech on all subjects of public interest.

6. Resolved, That we join in an earnest wish for the maintainance untarnished and undimmed of the public credit and plighted faith of the nation.

7. Resolved, That in the maintainance of the position taken and the principles this day avowed, we earnestly invite the influence and co-operation of men of all political persuasions, who regard and cordially support the recent action of Congress as a solution of our present political difficulties: that we deprecate partizan violence and desire peace and good will toward all men; and if in an open and fearless effort, which we propose to make on every suitable occasion, to persuade and convince the people, that our highest duty and truest interest is to be subserved by maintaining the principles of the Republican Party, an earnest interest should be awakened, it will be from no other cause than a rigid adherance to what we regard as a sacred right and a solemn public duty.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. J. E.
O'Hara, of Wayne, and adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention tender their sincere thanks to Jas. H. Harris for the zealous and efficient manner in which he has labored at the North for the cause of all loyal men in North Carolina and for her speedy return to the Union.

Mr. W. F. Henderson, of Davidson, offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are due and are hereby tendered to the Spartan band of Republicans in the late Legislature of this State, for their bold and fearless defence of Congress and the Union.

Mr. Settle offered the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Mr. Settle offered the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we esteem ourselves fortunate, in that so experienced and accomplished a statesman and soldier as Major General Daniel E. Sickles has been appointed to the command of this military district. We tender to him our hearty co-operation as loyal citizens in the performance of the important duties that have been devolved upon him.

Resolved. That we are gratified to learn that Gen. John C. Robinson has been assigned to the command of this State, under Gen. Sickles. His former administration of military affairs in this State has been such as to give us a most favorable opinion of his peculiar fitness for the position thus assigned him.

Mr. Carter introduced the following, which was also adopted:

adopted:

Resolved. That the President of this Convention appoint an Executive Committee of forty members to promote the organization and interests of the National Republican Party of North Carolina, and that the resident members of said committee in each Congressional District be authorized to appoint such con every county of the State.

Mr. Dockery offered the following, which was adopt-

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig— Bestractive of comfort, and not worth a fig: Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair, And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair. REPARATOR CAPILLI.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

TOR restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon hald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious! It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing nuldes it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money. which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. which shall reflect the sentiments and opinions of the unmistakeable loyal population of Eastern North Carolina, by an uncompromising opposition to the doctrins of bucession, and by a fearless advocacy of the enemal principles of Union, Liberty and Equality before the

The Republican will be devoted to the common interests of our people, with "malice toward none and chariffor all;" it will plead for the maintenance inviolate of the National Government and its credit; the education by all available means of the people; the encouragement of immigration and the development of our agricultural, mineral and commercial resources.

While the Republican will be pre-eminently a specification, and the departments of Commerce, Agricultural Science, Art, and Literature, will receive such attention by Reports, Ensays, Reviews and Summaries as span will permit.

Full reports on all matters of Local Interest will form a prominent feature, and as there appears as yet no other unconditional Union paper in Eastern North Cardina, the advantages which the Republican will offer as all advertising medium are apparent.
