

The General Assembly of the State elected under said Constitution on the thirteenth day after the approval thereof (the Constitution by the Congress of the United States it shall not on Sunday, but it should so fall, then on the next day thereafter) (Article II, Section 29.)

The officers of the Executive Department of the State, "first elected, shall assume their duties ten days after the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States" (Article III, Section 1.)

The term of office of all officers of the Judiciary Department "shall begin upon the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States" (Article IV, section 22.)

The county officers provided for and elected "shall enter upon their duties ten days after the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States" (Article VII, section 10.)

But in order that there may be no confusion, delay, or failure in the administration of justice of other governmental functions, and to ensure the safety of public property, the Collector of Judicial Circuits, clerks of courts, sheriffs, constables and other executive officers charged with active administration, or with the care of public records, or the custody of public moneys or public property, will not be relieved from responsibility for the discharge of the duties of their offices until their successors are duly qualified.

It is made the duty of Commanders of Posts within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, to see that the officers elect who are able to qualify under the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Constitution and laws of the State, and have no qualifications, are duly installed in the offices to which they have been elected, and as above prescribed.

Under the requirements of the ninth Section of the law of July 23, 1867, amending the law of March 2, 1867, to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, "the officers elect, both of the legislative and executive departments, will, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of their offices, take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the law of July 2, 1862, 'to prescribe an oath of office, and for other purposes.' This oath will be taken in duplicate, one to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State for the State of North Carolina, and the other to be forwarded to District Headquarters."

If any of the State officers elected under the new Constitution are disqualified by the third Section of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as Article XIV, or are unable to take the oath prescribed by the law of July 2, 1862, they will not be allowed to discharge any official functions until the disabilities are removed by the Congress of the United States, or unless the oath of office required by the ninth Section of the abovementioned law shall have previously been dispensed with by law, or unless the said ninth Section shall have become in operation by the fact that the people of the State have been declared by law to be entitled to representation in the Congress of the United States.

OUR SOLDIER DEAD.—THE MEETING TO-NIGHT.—Let every ex-soldier and sailor of the U. S. Army and Navy, and all friendly to the cause, take notice that the meeting called in our last issue to make arrangements for observing the 30th day of May as a day on which to strew with flowers, or otherwise decorate the graves of our comrades who died in defense of their country, during the late rebellion, and whose remains lie in the National Cemetery, near this city, will be held in the Court House this evening at 8 o'clock. Let none fail to attend.

MAYOR'S COURT.—His Honor Mayor Palmer has been allowed to rest for two days, no arrests by the police and no cases for trial. They find it necessary in Wilmington to increase the police force there, but our Mayor preserves perfect order here with his small force, and even that is to be reduced to four men at the end of this month. The Police Committee of the City Council, Messrs. Hubbard, Seymour and Jacobs, have devised a Code of Rules and Regulations for the government of the police, which will be reported at the meeting of the City Council next Monday.

We would ornament the Capitol at Washington with the swinging bodies of Rump delectives, by hanging them from the windows by the neck. Then we would ship all negroes of every shade, grade and description, to the turbulent Island of St. Thomas, where we would get up a magnificent earthquake, sending them all to hell. —Rec'd Paper.

The jackass that expresses these wishes is also a fool. He would send all the colored people to the Island of St. Thomas, in the West Indies, &c. He knows nothing of the character of the Danish and colored people on that Island, but we do, we have lived there and the colored people, even if this miserable rascal had the power to transport them thither, would not be in a hell. Earthquakes have been known in Saint Thomas from time immemorial and the Islanders are as much accustomed to them as they are to their chocolate and roast plantain in the morning. He would find no adherents in St. Thomas, or in any of the Danish or British Islands, and have a sick old time getting up that earthquake he talks about. There is sympathy wherever among the people of those islands for the Confederates during the war or peace.

The Governor and officials of the British Islands, it is true, ordered all the aid and comfort they could to the Confederate cruisers, but they found no response in the hearts of the true West Indians.

1000 dozen Ladies' Handkerchiefs at Baer & Eppeler's at reduced price.

SENATOR HENRY CLARK.—We are more than pleased to chronicle the election of Senator Wm. A. Buckingham as U. S. Senator by the Legislature of Connecticut. In the days of our youth we lived in the house adjoining the Governor's mansion, in the good old city of Norwich. For many years we had daily intercourse with him, and profited by his sound and kind advice, and although absent from our childhood's home for a dozen years, we returned again to find him the Governor of the state, to which office he was elected for four successive terms, by overwhelming majorities. Governor Buckingham's administration throughout the war was characterized by pre-eminent ability and prudence. A thorough and uncompromising Republican of the present day, entirely in consonance with his record as a prominent leader of the old Whig party, he has most ably advocated and battled for the principles which they have espoused.

Under the requirements of the ninth Section of the law of July 23, 1867, amending the law of March 2, 1867, to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, "the officers elect, both of the legislative and executive departments, will, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of their offices, take and subscribe the oath prescribed by the law of July 2, 1862, 'to prescribe an oath of office, and for other purposes.' This oath will be taken in duplicate, one to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State for the State of North Carolina, and the other to be forwarded to District Headquarters."

It is made the duty of Commanders of Posts within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, to see that the officers elect who are able to qualify under the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Constitution and laws of the State, and have no qualifications, are duly installed in the offices to which they have been elected, and as above prescribed.

In private life he has doubly endeared himself to all who have the honor of his acquaintance,—his deeds of liberality, charity and public munificence are numberless, and we hope to have the heartfelt satisfaction of grasping the hand of this truly good man, when he takes his seat in the U. S. Senate Chamber on the 4th of March next.

GRATUIT EXHIBITION AT BAER AND EPPLER'S BAZAAR.—The rumor on the street yesterday, that Messrs. Baer & Eppeler had offered $10,000 reward for the information that any house in this city would undersell them, was at first discredited; but upon strict enquiry, we learned that the report was correct.

The consequence of the confirmation of this rumor was an immediate rush to the splendid Bazaar of Messrs. Baer & Eppeler, where the crowd was informed that Mr. Eppeler had just arrived from New York with an unequalled stock of Summer Goods, consisting of Dry Goods that cannot be surpassed by any house in this city; also, the most fashionable clothing, boots, shoes, hats, caps, and an extensive variety of elegant notions.

Now this unparalleled offer of the Firm, caps the climax.

From Washington.—Proceedings of Congress, &c.

Washington, May 21.—SENATE.—The President has transmitted the Constitutions of North Carolina, Louisiana and Georgia. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Davis introduced a preamble and resolution appointing a committee of three to investigate the attempt to influence and intimidate Senators.

Mr. Henderson made a personal explanation, stating that he had been requested to appear before the managers, and desired the sense of the Senate on his duty. A long discussion ensued, the Radicals maintaining that the object of the Managers was to elicit facts to support an additional article of prosperity, whereas the President's attempts to corrupt Senators, and to this end Henderson should testify, and the Democrats maintaining that the proceedings were rightly refused.

Without action, the Senate adjourned to Monday.

MISCELLANEOUS.
