OF THE QUALIFICATIONS AND GENERAL DUTIES OF CLERKS OF THE SUPERIOR COURTS.
Sec. 1. At the first meeting of the county commissioners of each county after the election or appointment of any Clerk of a Superior Court, it shall be the duty of the clerk to deliver to such commissioners a bond, with sufficient securities, to be approved by them, as is now required by law, payable to the State of North Carolina, and with a condition to be void if he shall account for any [and] pay over according to law all monies and effects which have or may come into his hands by virtue of his office, and shall diligently preserve and take care of all books, records, papers and property which have come or may come into his possession, by virtue of his office, and shall in all things faithfully perform the duties of his office, as they are or hereafter may be prescribed by law.

BONDS - HOW APPROVED, &c.
Sec. 2. The approval of said bonds by the commissioners, or a majority of them, shall be recorded by their clerk, any commissioner dissenting may cause his dissent to be entered on record. Any commissioner approving a bond which he knows or believes to be insufficient, shall personally be liable as if he was a surety thereon. The said bond acknowledged by the parties thereto, or proved by a subscribing witness, before the clerk of said courts, as their presiding officer, registered in the office of the register of the county, in a separate book to be kept by him for the registration of official bonds, and the original with the approval thereof endorsed deposited with the register for safe keeping. The like remedies shall be had upon said bonds as are or may be given by law on official bonds.

QUALIFICATION OF CLERKS.
Sec. 3. Every clerk of the Superior Court, before entering on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe before some officer authorized by law to administer an oath, the oath prescribed by law, and file the same with the Register of Deeds for the county.

FAILURE TO GIVE BOND.
Sec. 4. In case any clerk shall fail to give bond and qualify as above directed, the chairman of the county commissioners of his county shall immediately inform the Judge of the judicial district thereof, who shall thereupon declare the office vacant, and fill the same, and the appointee shall give bond and qualify as above directed.

OFFICES - WHERE TO BE KEPT.
Sec. 5. He shall have an office in the court-house, or other place provided by the county commissioners, in the county town of his county. He shall give due attendance, in person or by deputy, at his office, daily (Sundays and legal holidays excepted) from 9 o'clock A. M. to three o'clock P. M., and longer when necessary for the dispatch of business.

TO RECEIVE OFFICIAL PAPERS, &c.
Sec. 6. Immediately after he shall have given bond and qualified as aforesaid, he shall receive from the late Clerk of the County and Superior Courts, and Clerk and Master of the Court of Equity of the county all records, books, papers, money and property of their respective offices, and give receipts for the same; and if any such late clerk, or clerks and master, shall refuse or fail within a reasonable time after demand to deliver such records, books, papers, money and property, they shall be respectively liable on their official bonds for the value thereof, and be held guilty of a misdemeanor.

TO KEEP RECORDS, &c.
Sec. 7. He shall keep in bound volumes a complete and faithful record of all his official acts, and give copies thereof to all persons desiring them, on payment of the legal fees.

BOOKS TO BE KEPT BY THE CLERKS.
Sec. 8. The clerk shall keep the following books:

1. A docket of all writs of summons, or other original process issued by him, or returned to his office. This docket shall contain a brief note of every proceeding whatever; in each action, up to the final judgment inclusive.

2. An Execution Docket, in which the substance of the judgment shall be recorded, and every proceeding subsequent thereto, noted, with an alphabetical index.

3. A Docket of all issues of fact joined upon the pleadings and other matters, triable before a jury, and of all other matters for hearing before the judges, at a regular term of the Court, a copy of which shall be furnished to the judge at the commencement of each term.

4. An alphabetical index according to the names of the plaintiffs, of all final judgments in civil action, rendered in the court, with the dates and numbers thereof.

5. A Docket of all criminal actions, containing a note of every proceeding in each.

BY WHOM THE BOOKS ARE TO BE FURNISHED.

Sec. 9. The books specified in the above section shall be supplied to the clerks of the several counties by the Secretary of State, at the expense of the State, and the Secretary shall, as soon as possible, transmit an account thereof to the chairman of the County Commissioners, in order that the price may be levied in the county taxes, and also the Auditor of public accounts, who shall add the same to the taxes of the respective counties, and receive and account for it as for other taxes. The commissioners of any county failing to cause such sum to be levied with the other county taxes, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

PAPERS IN EACH ACTION TO BE KEPT SEPARATE.
Sec. 10. The clerk shall keep the papers in each action in a separate roll or bundle, and at the termination attach together, properly labeled, and file them in order of the date of the final judgment.

SO LICITORS TO EXAMINE RECORDS, &c.
Sec. 11. At every regular term of a Superior Court, the Solicitor for the Judicial District shall inspect the office of the clerk and report to the court in writing. If any clerk, after being furnished with the necessary books, shall fail to keep them up as required by law, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and the Solicitor shall cause him to be prosecuted for the same. If the Solicitor shall fail or neglect to perform the duty hereby imposed on him, he shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred dollars to any person who shall sue for the same.

EXISTING SUITS.
The following sections, numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, relate exclusively to actions which have been commenced, and in which no final judgment has been rendered prior to the ratification of this act, as a part of the Code of Practice and Procedure.

CLERKS TO DOCKET EXISTING SUITS.
Sec. 1. The clerks of the Superior Courts at the request of the parties, within six months after the ratification of a general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Superior Courts of this State, and on the payment of a fee of one dollar, shall enter on a separate docket, all suits, which, at the ratification aforesaid, shall have been commenced, or in which final judgment has not been rendered in the County Courts, Superior Courts of Law, and Courts of Equity, of their respective counties.

HOW SUCH SUITS PROCURED WITH.
Sec. 2. And every suit not so transferred within the time aforesaid, shall be entered and docketed by the Clerk of the Superior Court shall tax costs against the parties liable, and collect the same by the proper process.

Sec. 3. The said suits shall be proceeded in, and tried under the existing laws and rules applicable thereto. After final judgments shall be rendered therein, the Clerk shall enter and docket the same, and the proceedings required to be kept by him, and the subsequent proceedings shall be as provided for action hereafter to be commenced.

EXISTING JUDGMENTS NOT DORMANT.
Sec. 4. Existing judgments and decrees not dormant may in like manner be entered on the execution docket, and the subsequent proceedings shall be as is prescribed for actions hereafter to be commenced, as far as shall be compatible with the previous proceedings, and no lien acquired before the ratification aforesaid shall be lost by any change of process, occasioned by this act.

DORMANT JUDGMENTS.
Sec. 5. Judgments or decrees which are dormant at the ratification aforesaid, may be revived or enforced in the manner herein provided.

ACTION COMMENCED AFTER THE RATIFICATION TO SECOND OLD DEBTS, &c.
Sec. 6. In all actions hereafter commenced, founded on such contracts as are provided for in an Ordinance respecting the Jurisdiction of the Courts of this State, ratified on the 14th day of August, 1868, summons shall be made returnable to the term of the Superior Court therein designated, and the subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the provisions of said act.

EXECUTIONS LEVIED ON PERSONAL PROPERTY.
Sec. 7. The late Sheriff of any County having in his hands any fiere facias execution, which has been levied on personal property of the defendants, which is unpaid shall proceed to sell the same now required by law, he shall pay over the proceeds after deducting his fees, and shall also make return of the writ to the Clerk of the Superior Court, of the county to any Court of which the writ is returnable, the proceeds to be paid by the Clerk to the parties entitled thereto.

EXECUTION SATISFIED.
Sec. 8. The said sheriffs shall in like manner return all executions in their hands which are satisfied, whether by a sale of property or otherwise, and shall pay over any proceeds thereof.

EXECUTIONS NOT LEVIED AT ALL, OR LEVIED ON REAL PROPERTY.
Sec. 9. As soon as the successors of the said late Sheriffs shall have qualified and given bonds as required by law, the said late Sheriffs shall deliver such date returns of writs of executions in their hands which have not been satisfied, and have not been levied at all, or which have been levied on property which has been sold, and a residue remains unsatisfied, or have been levied on real property which in whole or in part remains unsatisfied, with a return stating any residue of money in their hands, and the proceeds under the writ. The new Sheriffs shall proceed to act under such writs as if the same had been addressed and issued to them, and shall make return thereof to the next term of the Superior Court of the county, (or to any Court of which the writ is returnable). The late Sheriffs failing to make date returns of such writs delivered to him, shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars to any person grieved thereby, to be recovered on motion to the Court before which the writ is required to be returned. All proceeds of executions in part only satisfied, while in the hands of the late Sheriff failing to make date returns to the clerk of the Superior Court of the county, to any court of which the writ is returnable for the use of the parties entitled thereto under the penalties now provided by law in case of failure.

EXECUTIONS TO BE DOCKETED.
Sec. 10. The clerk of any Superior Court to which any execution shall be returned as is above prescribed shall at the request of any person interested therein, and on the payment of one dollar, enter such execution, on his execution docket, and the like process may be thereafter had thereon as is provided in similar cases on judgments recovered after the ratification of this act.

PENALTY ON SHERIFFS FOR FAILING TO RETURN.
Sec. 11. Any late Sheriff or other officer having executions in his hands, and failing to make due return thereof and to proceed as herein prescribed shall in each case forfeit and pay one hundred dollars to any person grieved by such failure, to be recovered on motion of the Court.

JUDGMENT NOT DORMANT, WHEN—
Sec. 12. No judgment shall be held to have become dormant by reason of any stay of execution thereon in obedience to any general or special orders issued by the General Assembly commanding the military District of which the State of North Carolina, formed a part, and the time during which execution was so stayed, shall not be counted in determining any question respecting a judgment being dormant.

ORDINANCE OF 14TH OF MARCH 1868, NOT AFFECTED.
Sec. 13. Nothing in this act contained shall affect or impair any right given by an ordinance of the General Assembly of this State, entitled "An Ordinance respecting the Jurisdiction of the Courts of this State," ratified the 14th day of March 1868, in the cases to which it is applicable.

Ratified the 14th day of August, A. D. 1868.

Important Article on the New Constitution.
ARTICLE IV.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.
Section 1. The distinction between actions at law and suits in equity, and the forms of all such actions and suits shall be abolished, and there shall be in this State but one mode of proceeding in the trial of every civil action, whether the same be for the protection of private rights or the redress of private wrongs which shall be designated a civil action; and every party against a person charged with a public offense, for the punishment of the same, shall be termed a criminal action, and the same shall be designated a criminal action. The provisions of the foregoing section shall apply to the trial of every civil action in the Superior Courts of this State.

Sec. 2. Three Commissioners shall be appointed by the General Assembly, who shall meet to prepare a code of law for North Carolina. The Governor shall have power to fill the vacancies in this commission, at the discretion of his first session after this constitution shall be adopted by the people, rules of practice and procedure in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, and the convention shall provide for the commissioners a reasonable compensation.

Sec. 3. The new commissioners shall also report to the General Assembly as soon as practicable, a code of law for North Carolina. The Governor shall have power to fill the vacancies in this commission, at the discretion of his first session after this constitution shall be adopted by the people, rules of practice and procedure in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, and the convention shall provide for the commissioners a reasonable compensation.

Sec. 4. The judicial power of the State shall be vested in a court for the trial of impeachments a Supreme Court, Superior Courts of Justice, and District and Special Courts.

Sec. 5. The Court for the trial of impeachments shall be composed of the members of the State and necessary to a quorum, and the judgment shall extend beyond removal from and disqualification to hold office, and the members of the Court shall be subject to removal and disqualification by law.

Sec. 6. The House of Representatives solely, shall have the power to impeach any civil officer, elected or appointed, who shall be convicted by the concurrence of two-thirds of the Senators present. When the Governor is impeached the Chief Justice shall preside at the trial.

Sec. 7. Treason against the State shall consist only in levying war against it or adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court. No treason shall be committed, unless the work of corruption of blood or forfeiture.

Sec. 8. The Superior Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and four Associate Justices.

Sec. 9. There shall be two terms of the Supreme Court held at the seat of government of the State in the year 1870, the first in March and the second in May, and the first Monday in June, and continuing as long as the public interest may require.

Sec. 10. The Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction to review, upon appeal, any decision of the courts below, upon any matter of law or legal interference; but no writ of habeas corpus shall be granted in any case, unless the court shall have power to issue any remedial writ necessary, to give effect to a general supervision and control over the inferior courts.

Sec. 11. The Superior Court shall have original jurisdiction to hear claims against the State, but its decisions shall be subject to review by the General Assembly, in the nature of execution shall issue thereon. They shall be reported to the next session of the General Assembly for its action.

Sec. 12. The State shall be divided into twelve judicial districts for each of which a judge shall be chosen, who shall hold a superior court in each county in said district, once in every year to continue for one year, unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

Sec. 13. Until altered by law the following shall be the districts:

First District—Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Chowan, Gates, Hertford, Bladen, Brunswick, Johnston, Wayne, Wilkes, Washington, Beaufort, Martin, Pitt, Edgecombe.

Second District—Craven, Carteret, Jones, Onslow, Green, Lenoir, Wayne, Wayne, Moore, Richmond, Anson, Montgomery, Stanly, Union.

Fourth District—Brunswick, New Hanover, Duplin, Columbus, Bladen, Sampson, Iredell.

Fifth District—Person, Orange, Chatham, Randolph, Guilford, Alamance, Caswell, Rockingham, Wayne, Forsythe, Stokes, Forsythe, Davidson, Rowan, Davie, Yadkin, Surry.

Sixth District—Stokes, Forsythe, Davidson, Rowan, Davie, Yadkin, Surry.

Seventh District—Catawba, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Lincoln, Cleveland, Rutherford, Polk.

Eighth District—Iredell, Burke, Caldwell, Wilkes, Alexander, &c.

Ninth District—Allegany, Ashe, Watauga, Mitchell, Yancey, Madison, Buncombe.

Tenth District—Henderson, Transylvania, Haywood, Macon, Jackson, Clay, Cherokee.

Sec. 14. Every judge of a Superior Court shall reside in his district while holding his office. The judges may exchange with each other with the consent of the Governor, and the Governor for good reasons which he shall report to the Legislature at its next session, may suspend any judge from the holding of one or more specified terms of said courts in lieu of the judge in whose district they are.

Sec. 15. The Superior Courts shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all civil actions, whereof exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to some other Court by law, and in which the amount in controversy may exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for one month.

Sec. 16. The Superior Courts shall have appellate jurisdiction of all issues of law or fact, determined by a Probate Judge or a Justice of the Peace, where the value of the property in controversy exceeds twenty-five dollars; and of matters of law in all cases.

Sec. 17. The clerks of the superior courts shall have the custody of the records of all suits, and of all letters testamentary and of administration, the appointment of guardians, the apprenticeship of orphans and the accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, and of such other matters as shall be prescribed by law. All issues of facts joined before them shall be transferred to the superior courts for trial, and appeals shall lie to the superior courts from their judgments in all matters of law.

Sec. 18. The parties to all suits in any court, the parties may waive the right to have the same determined by jury, in which case the finding of the Judge upon the facts shall be the final determination of the issue.

Sec. 19. The General Assembly shall provide for the establishment of Special Courts, for the trial of misdemeanors in cities and towns, where the same may be necessary.

Sec. 20. The Clerk of the Superior Court shall be appointed by the court and shall hold his office for eight years.

Sec. 21. A Clerk of the Superior Court for each county, shall be appointed by the qualified voters thereof at the time and in the manner prescribed by law, for the selection of members of the General Assembly.

Sec. 22. The District of the Superior Courts shall hold their offices for four years.

Sec. 23. The General Assembly shall prescribe and regulate the fees and charges of all officers of all courts provided for in this Article; but the fees of the Judges shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

Sec. 24. The laws of North Carolina, not repugnant to this Constitution, or to the Constitution and laws of the United States, shall be in force until lawfully altered.

Sec. 25. Actions at law, and suits in equity, pending when this constitution shall have taken effect shall be transferred to the courts having jurisdiction thereof, without prejudice by reason of the change, and all such actions and suits, commenced before the ratification of this act, shall be proceeded in, as if the same had been commenced after the ratification of this act, unless otherwise provided for by law.

Sec. 26. The Justices of the Supreme Court shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State, as is provided for the election of members of the General Assembly. They shall hold their offices for eight years; but the Judges of the Superior Courts elected at the first session of the General Assembly shall hold their offices for four years, and thereafter, under the superintendence of the Justices of the Supreme Court, be divided by lot into two equal classes, each of which shall hold office for four years, the other for eight years.

Sec. 27. The General Assembly may provide by law that the Judges of the Superior Courts, instead of being elected by the voters of the whole State, as is here provided for, shall be elected by the voters of their respective districts.

Sec. 28. The Superior Courts shall be, at all times, open for the transaction of all business within their jurisdiction, except the trial of issues of fact requiring a jury.

Sec. 29. A Solicitor shall be elected for each judicial district by the qualified voters thereof; and he shall hold his office for two years. In each township there shall be a Constable elected in like manner by the voters thereof, who shall hold his office for two years. There shall be no coroner in the county. The Clerk of the Superior Court for the county may appoint one for special cases. In case of a vacancy existing for any cause, in any of the offices created by this section, the Commissioners for the county may appoint one to hold office for the unexpired term.

Sec. 30. All vacancies occurring in the offices provided for in this Article of the Constitution, shall be filled by the appointment of the Governor, unless otherwise provided for, and the appointees shall hold their places until the next regular election.

Sec. 31. The officers elected at the first election held under this Constitution, shall hold their offices for the terms prescribed by law, respectively, and thereafter after the next regular election for members of the General Assembly, but their terms shall begin upon the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States.

Sec. 32. The several Justices of the peace shall have exclusive original jurisdiction, under such regulations as the General Assembly shall prescribe, of all civil actions founded on contract, wherein the sum demanded shall not exceed two hundred dollars, and wherein the title to real estate shall not be in controversy, and all criminal matters arising within their counties where the punishment cannot exceed a fine of fifty dollars, or imprisonment for one month. When an issue of fact shall be joined before a Justice, on demand of either party thereto, he should cause a jury of six men to be summoned, who shall try the same. The party against whom judgment shall be rendered in any civil action, shall appeal to the Superior Court from the decision of the Justice, and the appeal shall extend to the whole matter; but if the judgment shall extend to twenty-five dollars or less, then the case shall be in the appellate court, only upon matters of law. In all cases of a criminal nature, the party against whom judgment is given may appeal to the Superior Court, where the matter shall be heard and tried. In all cases brought before a Justice, he shall make a record of the proceedings, like the same with the Clerk of the Superior Court of his county.

Sec. 33. When the office of Justice of the Peace shall become vacant, either by the expiration of the term, or in case of the failure by the person elected to accept of the office, the voters of the district shall elect a Justice of the Peace to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Sec. 34. In case the office of clerk of a superior court shall become vacant, either by the expiration of the term, or in case of the failure by the person elected to accept of the office, the voters of the district shall elect a clerk to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.
