Geo. W. Nason, Jr., Gen'l. Ins. Agt. REGISTER! REGISTER!!

You Cannot Vote Without Registering! The fact of your being registered at the last election, will do you good at the coming election. BEAR THIS IN MIND. No person can vote on the 15th of November unless he has registered before the 15th of October. The Board of Registrars will be in session at the Court House, New Berne, N. C., on the 15th of October, and will receive applications for registration until the 1st of November. A prompt and thorough registration will greatly facilitate the business of voting, and will contribute to the polling of a full vote.

DEMOCRATIC INTOLERANCE.—We learn from a reliable source, that a gentleman who has grown gray in the ranks and service of the Democratic party, on last Tuesday evening, at the Seymour and Blair Club, and the malice, in the presence of the whole Club, declared his intention of supporting Hon. David Heaton, the Republican candidate for Congress, in preference to the Democratic nominee. The gentleman gave good and fair reasons for his course of action, but with that same intolerant spirit that is manifested upon every occasion that an opportunity offers for its display, the remarks of the gentleman were received with insulting marks of disparagement. So it is, a man who has honor, manliness or principle enough to throw off the miserable narrow field of party spirit, and act in accordance with his own ideas of right and justice, is treated with insult, opprobrium and contumely. This miserable intolerant prescriptive policy is having the effect of driving many of their best men into our party, who would not otherwise have come.

THE CITY.—The city has been remarkably quiet for the last few days, nothing of a distinctly nature to distract its peace having occurred. Cotton and other country produce is beginning to come in "right smart," and our merchants and people generally are beginning to show smiling and cheerful faces. That is all with the exception of our Democratic friends, whose Physionomy every day becoming more and more elongated at the news and indications received from every part of the country, can't be so cast down, the suspense won't last much longer. Try to keep cool, keep your eyes on the laurels of Seymour and Forster Blair and Semmes.

THE NATIONAL SAVINGS BANK.—The October number of this interesting paper, published monthly in the interest of the National Bank's Savings & Trust Company, has been laid on our table by the Cashier of the Bank in this city, C. A. Nelson, Esq. It is full of items of interest showing the full progress of the institution. Call at the office of the Bank on Craven street and get a copy, and see for yourself how the colored people are prospering.

THE HOW MAD.—Monday was a miserable day—rain, damp, sickly,—just such a day for Wines, and how somebody must have had Tuesday morning's Journal of... What stirring appeals, what bitter, malignant feeling evidenced... they were mad. Evidently the whole family were affected. Local "becoming disgusting," "cheering news." "Where was the wretched eye repose." "Will the colored voters of the City tell us?" "Be careful." "Fitch in. Get your mad up. Its But is of no use. It won't do. Salt water you.

PAINTFUL ACCIDENT.—We learn that Mr. John Fowler, of the New Berne Turpentine Company, while driving up Craven street, last Tuesday evening, was violently thrown from his buggy at the corner of Johnson street, owing to the team colliding with the well curb at that point. The Major's collar bone was broken, and he received other painful, but not serious, injuries.

A WIFE DISAPPEARS.—A clipping from another paper appeared under the above head in the Journal of Commerce yesterday, and has a direct application to that paper of Tuesday. As in one column it ridiculed the torch light procession and meeting of Saturday night, and in the next appealed in strong terms to the Democratic voters of Craven to be up and doing, and begging of the nominated men to "pussy up," and contribute liberally to the "cause."

Friend Journal, your money man has too much sense to contribute funds to such a cause as the one you are now engaged in.— Why it is worse than the "Lost Cause," as it was not positively known until the expiration of two or three years that the "Lost Cause" was actually lost. But the one that you are now engaged in, is so hopelessly lost that the veriest fool can see it. Besides you haven't issued any bonds, for the payment of this money that you are begging. You don't offer any security, you can't get any money. The thing's gone up.

Nason & Foster, Insurance Agents. Why do Baer and Eppler sell Clothing so cheap? Because they manufacture their goods, and consequently save freight and the large profits made by wholesale clothing houses in the North.
