

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1868.

Let our laws and Constitutions speak not of white men, not of red men, not of black men, not of men of any complexion; but, like the laws of God, the Ten Commandments and the Lord's Prayer, let them speak of the PEOPLE.—HORACE MAYNARD.

"Those who deny freedom to others, deserve it not for themselves, and under a just God cannot long retain it."—ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT: Ulysses S. Grant, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT: Schuyler Colfax, OF INDIANA.

ELECTORS AT LARGE: BYRON LAFLIN, of Pitt Co. JOS. W. HOLDEN, of Wake.

DISTRICT ELECTORS. 1st Dist.—Hiram E. Stille, of Beaufort. 2d Dist. Curtis H. Brogden, of Wayne. 3d Dist. A. H. Galloway, of New Hanover. 4th Dist. Jno. A. McDonald, of Chatham. 5th Dist. H. A. Badham, of Alamance. 6th Dist. Rufus Barringer, of Mecklenburg. 7th Dist. W. S. Pearson, of Burke.

FOR CONGRESS—2d DISTRICT. DAVID HEATON, OF CRAVEN.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE. AUG. S. SEYMOUR, of Craven. To the Republicans of North Carolina.

Fellow Citizens.—We bring you "tidings of great joy." The great States of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Nebraska have just voted for members of Congress and State officers, and the Republicans, after a most animated contest, have achieved a glorious victory.

We have carried Indiana by seven thousand, Pennsylvania by fifteen thousand, Ohio by twenty thousand and Nebraska by two thousand.

Grant heads the column, and his march is onward to victory as in times past, when he conquered for the nation at Shiloh, Vicksburg and Appomattox.—On his banner is inscribed those beautiful words, "Let us have peace!"—and millions of his countrymen are rallying around it.

This result in these States secures us the victory in November, if we are only true to ourselves.

Our opponents are beaten at the North, and here in the South they are dispirited and depressed. One gallant and united charge along the whole line on the 8d day of next month, and the day will be ours. The fruits of this victory will be peace, liberty and justice to all—a cessation of bitter party strife—a settled condition of affairs which will insure industry its reward, and lead to general prosperity and happiness among the whole people.

Bear in mind, fellow-citizens, the importance of the election of the third of next month. We must carry this State for Grant and Colfax, and elect all our members of Congress. We can do this by thirty thousand majority.

Impress upon the people the necessity of registering their names as voters. Let it be known also that there is but one day for voting. Let every Republican resolve that he will devote all his spare time to this work up to the evening of the election. And on the day of the election, let every Republican be at the polls early in the morning, with his vote ready to cast, and after he casts it let him work with others all day for the cause.

This is the way our friends won the day in the States mentioned, and we can do it here by similar efforts. Fellow-citizens, the election is near at hand. Let us improve the time. Let every man do his duty; and after the 3d of November the Republicans of North Carolina will swell the chorus with millions of others for GRANT and COLFAX, LIBERTY, and UNION.

C. L. HARRIS, Ch'mn. Rep. State Ex. Com. Raleigh, Oct. 14, 1868.

The man who votes any other than the regular Republican ticket votes against GRANT and COLFAX!

VOTERS! BEWARE OF ALL TICKETS PRINTED AT THE OFFICE OF THE JOURNAL OF LIES!

THE FORGED DEMOCRATIC CIRCULAR!

VILLAINY IN POLITICS.

That monstrous and infamous Democratic Circular again appeared in the Journal of Commerce on yesterday morning. It was headed with startling expressions in large type. The scoundrel who penned it, knew, of course, that during the infamous performance he was stamping himself as a liar and a villain. The name of the Circular at such a time as this, who will deliberately invent, concoct, and put forth such a mass of DELIBERATE AND UNMUTIGATED FALSEHOODS as we know to be contained in that forged Circular, from beginning to end, is a disgrace to the name of man.

When it is known, as it must be known by every man in our community, that the entire production, every word and sentence of it, is a DELIBERATE AND WILFULL FORGERY, and that no Republican or Union League had anything whatever to do with it, and that no Republican ever advocated or does now advocate or maintain any of the infamous sentiments contained therein, then the villainy of the desperado who invented it will stand out in bold relief.

We do not and will not attempt to hold many of the influential Democrats, hereabouts, responsible for this outrageous and brazen attempt to get up and stir up bitter feeling. The whole thing is certainly stamped with too much infamy and recklessness for many of the more considerate men of the opposition to have had anything to do with its conception. We call upon this class of men, however, to repudiate and disavow this act of desperation as it justly deserves. They owe it to themselves to put the stamp of utter condemnation upon the whole proceeding.

The charge that Republicans teach such doctrines as are contained in this forged circular is all false. The colored people all know this. Republicans want peace, order, and a good understanding between all races and men of all parties. They know, however, what their rights are, and these they intend to maintain fairly, but openly and boldly. All these infamous and knavish acts of misrepresentation and slander will only tend to make Republicans stand up the more firmly for the principles they are proud to espouse. We may yet be able to obtain the exact name of the scoundrel or scoundrels, who invented and framed this devilish production.

WE HEAR THAT A SPURIOUS TICKET HAS BEEN PRINTED, and is or will be put in circulation. Look out! white and colored men! and do not be deceived. Recollect that the only reliable Ticket for GRANT and COLFAX, for this County, will be printed at the Republican Office.

THE PATRIOT'S GREAT DUTY.—We know the conviction is already deeply seated on the public mind that GRANT and COLFAX will be elected by a tremendous majority. Democrats share in this feeling just as well as Republicans. The moral certainty, however, of Republican success ought not to be the means of influencing a single Republican to remain away from the polls on election day. In as much as every Republican claims that republican principles and measures are right, and that General Grant's election will tend more than any other event to bring peace and prosperity to a long distracted land, it becomes a solemn duty to go to the polls and vote.

We put it to any Republican who may feel at all indignant on this subject, whether it may not be the cause of deep regret on his part, in after years, should he fail to be present and vote for General Grant.

In our judgment it will be one of the most agreeable and pleasant recollections of a man's life, hereafter, that at the critical hour in our nation's history, he threw his vote and support in favor of rescuing the country from further civil convulsion, anarchy, and all the attendant evils of repudiation.

Let every Republican, therefore, make it a matter of the gravest and highest duty to be at the polls on NEXT TUESDAY. As our cause is an elevated and a glorious one, worth struggling and laboring for, let it be one that above all things is worth voting for.

Next TUESDAY, Nov. 3rd, will be ELECTION day.

ADDRESS

To the Colored Voters of Craven County.

Brothers! Through the great political campaigns in which we were on trial before the whole civilized world, we should shoulder to shoulder, and vindicate our claim to be free, and have the rights and privileges pertaining to freemen.

Again we are to appear before the world, and especially before the American people to be judged of our fitness to become a part and parcel of the great National Jury, which shall count and decide the destinies of this great Republic.

How shall we appear? Shall we come as on former occasions, timidly, and stand by the Republican party which under God, gave us the liberty that we now have? Or shall we allow disreputable, ambitious men of our own race to split our ranks, and lead themselves to the use of the Democracy, enabling them to practice all sorts of tricks and fraud upon an unwary people; and if possible defeat or injure our white picket, and destroy our liberties.

Some of us deprecate the suggestion of Mr. A. Bass and his associates, because we sustain a near relation to him in the church. But all of us do protest against his course, and do most earnestly appeal to every colored man, and advise and counsel him to stand by the party and the regular nominations and vote the straight Republican ticket as being the proper and only safe course to pursue.

JOHN RANDOLPH, JR. GEO. B. WILLIS, J. R. GOOD, LEWIS H. BRYAN, ED. B. DUDLEY, GEO. S. FISHER, W. M. INGRAHAM, B. TUCKER, MOSES BRYAN, THOS. BATTLE, V. A. CRAWFORD, D. HEATH, C. D. PIERSON, W. H. JOHNSON, J. D. DUDLEY, E. H. HILL, FERNEY WEST, AARON BIDDLE, AMOS M. BROWN, FRANK LANE, ED. HAVENS, ROBT. SPIVEY, JACOB GRIMES, PHILIP LOBE, AMOS YORK, L. H. HANDEL, H. H. PARSONS, M. SMITH, J. H. HARRIS, J. A. ANDERSON, J. A. HARRIS, JAS. MUMFORD, and many others.

GET THE TRUE TICKET ONLY! We again warn our friends that they cannot be too careful as to the Republican Ticket, on election day. Our advice is, to have nothing whatever to do with a ticket printed at a Democratic office. The regular Republican Ticket will be gotten up at the Republican Printing Office, and every Republican is liable to be cheated by voting any other ballot.

WATCH YOUR TICKETS ON ELECTION DAY AS YOU WOULD WATCH YOUR LIBERTIES! Be sure to read the REPUBLICAN of Sunday next. Republicans! Secessionists you are, no better than the secessionists of 1861.

What right have Wade Hampton, Napoleon Butler Forrest, Pirate Semmes, et al. come to count themselves at the Presidential election at all? If they could have any other way, there would be no United States, and no President to elect.

United States bonds have gone up in London, in sympathy with their rise here. This shows in whom foreign creditors are willing to invest their money.

The recent elections have advanced the price of United States bonds and sent gold down. Is any further comment needed as to which policy will produce a better order of things, financial as well as political.

THE NEW BELL

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN

Under the name of the "New Bell" the Democratic party have been doing a great deal of mischief. The name of the "New Bell" is a misnomer, and the party who use it are unworthy of the name.

The principles adopted by the Democratic party are not such as will bring lasting peace to the nation. If successful, certain war will be the result. The Democratic party are not such as will bring lasting peace to the nation.
