New Bern Produce Market. REPORTED BY R. J. BROWN, 25 & 27 Peoples' Market. Dealer in Groceries and Provisions.

A SUGGESTION.—We would respectfully suggest that the old slab shanty on the corner of Broad and Middle Streets, used during the canvass as a Wig-Wain, by the Democratic party, be used once more by its old frequenters for the melancholy purpose of having a funeral sermon preached over the remains of the defunct Democratic party and its leaders and standard-bearers, Sevmour and Blair, whose light was put out by the Republican bushel, and that the shanty be then torn down, and the material of which it is built, distributed among the poor of the city for fire-wood. We would recommend those having it in charge, to act on our suggestion at once.

WHAT A FALL.—CARR and BAER & EPPLER, Pollok street. NEW BUILDING.—While on the outskirts of the town Wednesday we noticed a handsome dwelling-house recently erected opposite the National Cemetery for the use of the sexton of the same. The dwelling was built by Messrs. O'Brian and Boyle, and reflects much credit upon those gentlemen, both for its handsome appearance and apparent durability.
