Naturalized citizens are entitled to pr. tection in all their rights of citizenship, as though they were native-born; and no citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any foreign power for acts done or words spoken in this country; and if so arrested and imprisoned. it is the duty of the Government to interfere in his behalf. X. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war, there were none entitled to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and scamen who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise, and imperilled their lives in the service of the country; the bounties and pensions provided by the laws for these brave defenders of the nation are obligations never to be forgotten; the widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people -a sacred legacy, bequeathed to the nation's protecting care. XI. Foreign immigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development, and resources and increase of power to this Republic, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encour aged by a liberal and just policy. XII. This convention declares itself in sympathy with all oppressed peoples strug-gling for their rights. On motion of Carl Shurz, the following two planks were added by a unanimous vote:

Resolved, that we highly commend the spirit of magnanimity and forbearance with which men who have served in the rebellion -but who now frankly and honestly co-oper--but who now frankly and honestly co-oper-ate with us in restoring the peace of the coun-try and reconstructing the Southern State governmets upon the basis of Impartial Jus-vice and Equal Rights, are received back into the communion of the loyal people; and we favor the removal of the disqualifications and restrictions imposed upon the late rebels in the same measure as their spirit of loyalty will direct and as may be consistent with the will direct, and as may be consistent with the
