J. D. Myers, Washington, N. C.

The Right Rev. Bishop Gibbons will preach at the Catholic Church this evening at 7 o'clock.

NOTICE TO MAINTENANCE - We are now printing, and shall have for sale at this office, the following Blanks prepared and especially adapted to use under the new Civil Code.

Summons, Subpoena, Execution, Voucher, Special Sessions, Consent of Judgment over $50, Warrant - Assault and Battery, Warrant of Arrest, Criminal Warrant, Criminal Subpoena, Attachment for Witness, Heir Cognizance to Keep the Peace, Recognizance for Prisoner, Also, Witness and Juror Tickets, and Superior Court Clerk Books of all kinds.

THEFT - A frail but not fair youth, was arrested last evening charged with stealing a milk skin from Young's Market. He will be tried this morning before the Mayor.

REVIVAL - Madam Rumer says, an old speculation, re-camped and self-constituted, has made its appearance in our midst.

SUDDEN DEATH - Mr. James Woods, an old resident of New Berne, yesterday dropped suddenly dead on the street. We did not ascertain the cause of his death.

GET THE BEST - Home Manufacture. Ready Made Clothing at BAER & EPPLER'S, Pollok street.

FIRE ALARM BELL - This bell on the house of the Holden Book and Ladder Company, is sadly in need of repair. The striking gear is completely out of order, and needs fixing. We hope the Chief Engineer will call the attention of the City Council to the fact.

BANKRUPT SALE - On Saturday last, at noon, was sold under the hammer, the visible remnants of the Democratic party of New Berne: the Wig, Wagon and Flag poles on the common. Sheriff Davidson purchased both. We hope our city fathers will take immediate steps to secure the pole, and we earnestly desire to see the noble flag which bore the names of Grant and Colfax during the campaign, flung to the breeze from its top, in triumphant exultation at its glorious victory. It will be seen, by reference to our advertising columns, that the Seymour and Blair flag is to be sold to-morrow. - [Ed.]

LADIES ATTENTION - Dress Trimmings and Buttons at half prices at BAER & EPPLER'S, Pollok street.

Captain Wilson, Ed. Whitman and a colored man (name not given), went down the river gunning last Friday morning in W. H. Manly's yacht. The boat was last seen about noon of the same day off the mouth of Adam's creek, capsized and two were clinging to her bottom. The wind blowing very hard from the north-east and a very heavy sea running at the mouth of the creek. Events are essential of their safety. Effort was made for their rescue by the party bringing this report, which to our mind was a gross and criminal neglect of a common act of humanity. - [Ed.]
