

The New Berne Republican.

The REPUBLICAN is the official newspaper of the city of New Berne, publishing on the same and containing by authority.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1868.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Post office stamps on upper right hand corner. The mails will close daily as follows: For Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Wash. D. C., and all points South and West, at 4:30 P. M. For New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Wash. D. C., and all points South and West, at 4:30 P. M. For New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Wash. D. C., and all points South and West, at 4:30 P. M.

MARRIED.—On 1st inst., by Rev. C. L. Vase at the Presbyterian Church, Mr. J. J. Wolf to Miss Carrie McLacklan, daughter of A. McLacklan, Esq., both of this city.

MARRIED.—On the morning of Dec. 5th, at the M. E. Church, by Rev. R. A. Williams, Mr. Albert Powell to Miss Henrietta Holland, both of this city.

Nason & Foster, Insurance Agents.—See our advertisements of H. H. & Laidler Company, and Jas. Conner's Sons under the head of new advertisements.

REVIEWS.—No Mayor's Court yesterday. The police maintaining a masterly inactivity. The City Council will meet to-morrow evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

The Republican City Committee will meet on Tuesday night, for the purpose of making arrangements for the approaching Municipal Election.

As usual, plenty of evil, but no criminals, came before Justice Berry yesterday.

See the advertisement of H. Morgan on second page.

Examine the goods and prices of BAER & EPPLE'S, Pollok street.

ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Goldsboro Messenger that Mr. Wm. E. Morgan, of that town, Mail Agent on the A. & S. C. R. R., met with a painful accident in the vicinity of Beaufort, by falling from the side cover of a car, upon his head and face, and becoming considerably bruised.

FINAL SENTENCE.—Gus Holmes, tool-weld who had been convicted of the murder of Matthew King, in Edgecombe county, has been sentenced to be hung on Friday, January 1st, 1869. We should judge (to Holmes) an objectionable way of commencing the New Year.

GET THE BEST.—Home Manufacturer Ready-Made Clothing at BAER & EPPLE'S, Pollok street.

Our readers will please notice the advertisement of W. G. West.

EXCITE.—Quite a little affray occurred last evening between one of our citizens and Sergeant Colligan. For a little time matters looked serious but by the interposition of friends the matter was a trifle and quiet was restored. We could not learn the cause of the difficulty.

WHAT A FALL.—Call and see BAER & EPPLE'S, Pollok street.

KNOCK DOWNS.—Late last night two colored men, names unknown, got into a fight on the corner of South Front and Middle streets, and one, a powerful fellow, struck the other a severe blow with his fist and knocked him insensible, in which state he was carried off. We did not learn as to whether the assailant was arrested.

Geo. W. Nason, Jr. Gen'l. Ins. Agt.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.—Yesterday another scene of blood was enacted in our vicinity. Wingo Jones and Elijah James, two colored men, while at work in the woods in the neighborhood of the brick yard about four miles below this city, got into a dispute, and becoming warm, they came to blows, and Jones becoming enraged went to his house procured his gun, and delivered the contents into the body of James, who died in a few hours after from the effects thereof. Jones was arrested and is now in jail. An inquest will be held upon the body to-morrow by Coroner Young, when the facts in the case will probably be elicited. Mr. James, the murderer, was well known in this community and vicinity, being a Baptist preacher, and has always borne an excellent character. As soon as the particulars can be ascertained, we will give them to our readers.

Great reduction in the price of Photographs, at MORGAN'S GALLERY.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.—An election for officers in the different companies of the Fire Department will take place to-morrow (Monday) evening. The only real interest or excitement attending these elections is in the Steam Engine Company. There are two tickets in the field, Mr. Thos. Powers, heading both as Engineer, he of course will be elected. The contest will take place between Charles Hubbard Esq., and Mr. W. G. White, who are both candidates for Foreman. The claims of the two candidates have been thoroughly canvassed and Mr. Hubbard and his friends are very sanguine and feel sure of success. In the Atlantics we learn some little opposition will take place for the position of Foreman but we have heard no names mentioned. In the Golden Hook & Laidler Company, from what we learn, Mr. W. H. Phillips, will be re-elected as Engineer, as will the entire list of present officers with possibly a few minor exceptions. In the evening, and after the election, the Fire laddies will have a happy little time at their respective houses.
