Frank P. Blair's War Policy.

o lay Taxes and Provide It is well enough to keep the war-like letter of Frank P. Blain before the people. Democratic papers have become frightened at the startling propositions it conbecome frightened at the startling propositions it contains, and hence they suppress it. They date not keep it before the eyes, even of their friends, and yet it is the real basis of the Democratic Platform. Being written of the qualified voters of this State with influence his vote in any elec-

Read, reflect, and then act at the polls.

Washington, June 20, 1868.

Dean Coloret:—In reply to your inquires I beg leave to say that I leavesto you to determine, onconsultation with my friends from Misspuri, whether my same shall be presented in the Democratic Convention, and to sedmit the following, as what I consider the real and only issue in this contest:

The reconstruction policy of the Radicals will be complete before the next election; the States so long excluded will have been admitted; negro suffrage as ablished and the carpet-baggers installed in their sears in both branches of Congress. There is no possibility of changing the political character of the Senate, even it the Democrats should elect their President, and a majority of the popular branch of Congress. We cannot, therefore, undo the Radical plan of reconstruction by Congressional action: the Senate will continue a bar to its repeal. Must we submit to it? How can it be overthrown? It can only be overthrown by the authority of the Executive, who will fall to do his duty if he allows the Constitution to perish under a series of Congressional enactments which are in palpable violation of its fundamental principles.

If the President elected by the Democracy enforces or permits others to enforce these reconstruction acts, the Radicals by the accession of twenty spurious Senators and fifty Representatives will control both branches of Congress, and his Administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr. Johnson.

There is BUT ONE WAY TO RESTORE THE GOVERNMENT AND THE CONSTITUTION AND THAT IS FOR THE PRESIDENT ELECT TO DECLARE THESE ACTS NULL AND VOID, COMPEL THE GOVERNMENTS, allow the white people TO REOR-THE GOVERNMENTS, allow the white people TO REOR-GANIZE THEIR OWN GOVERNMENTS, AND ELECT SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES—The Honse of Representatives will contain a majority of Democrats from the North, and they will admit the Representatives elected by the people To Reore.

The House of Representatives will contain a majority of Democrats from the North and they will admit the Representatives elected by the people of the South, and with co-operation of the President it will not be difficult TO COMPEL THE SENATE TO SUBMIT ONCE MORE TO THE obligations of the Constitution. It will not be able to withstand the public judgement, if distinctly invoked and clearly expressed on this fundamental issue, and it is the sure way to avoid all fu ture strife to put the issue plainly to the country.

I repeat THAT THIS IS THE REAL AND ONLY
QUESTION WHICH WE SHOULD ALLOW TO CONTROL US. Shall we submit to the usurpations by which the Government has been overthrown, or shall we exert ourselves for its full and complete restoration? It is idle to talk of bonds, greenbacks, gold, the public faith, and the public credit. What can a Democratic President do in regard to any of these, with a Congress in both branches controlled by the carpet baggers and their allies? He will be powerless to stop the supplies by which idle negroes are organized into political clubs. by which idle negroes are organized into political clubs by which an army is maintained to protect the vagabonds in their outrage upon the ballot. These, and things like these, eat up the revenue and resources of the Government and destroy its credit—make the dif-ference between gold and greenbacks. We must restore the Constitution before we can restore the finances.—

AND TO DO THIS WE MUST HAVE A PRESIDENT
WHO WILL EXECUTE THE WILL OF THE PEO.
PLE BY TRAMPLING UNDER DUST THE USURPATION OF CONGRESS, KNOWN AS THE RECONSTRUCTION ACTS I WISH TO STAND BEFORE THE CONVENTION UPON THIS ISSUE.—
BUT IT IS ONE WHICH EMBRACES EVERY THING ELSE THAT IS OF VALUE IN ITS LARGE THING ELSE THAT IS OF VALUE IN ITS LARGE AND COMPREHENSIVE RESULTS. It is the ONE THING THAT INCLUDES ALL THAT IS WORTH a contest, and without it there is nothing that give diguity, honor, or value to the struggle Your friend,

Comrades known in marches many, Comrades tried in dangers many, Comrades bound by memories many-Brothers ever let us be ! Wounds or sickness may divide us, Marching orders may divide us, But whatever fate betide us,

Brothers of the heart are we. Commendes however by Jaire the thearest, Tried when death was near and nearest, Bound we are by ties the dearest-Brothers ever more to be: And if spared, and growing older, Shoulder still in line with shoulder, And with hearts no thrill the colder, Brothers ever we shall be. By communion of the banner, Bettle-scarred, but victor banner, By the baptism of the banner, Brothers of one church are we!

Creed nor faction can divide us,

Race nor language can divide us,

Still, whatever fate betide us, Children of the Flag are we From the Atlantic Monthly for November.] THE HARVESTER

Dark is their bue to others' eye, And shattered is their plumy head; I only know for life they die, And live for others, dead.

To the Republicans of North Carolina.

Fellow- Citizens .- We bring you "tidings of great joy." The great States of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Nebraska have just voted for members of Congress and State officers, and the Repulslicans, after a most animated contest, have achieved a glorious victory.

We have carried Indiana by seven thousand, Pennsylvania by fifteen thouand, Ohio by twenty thousand and Ne-DIVIDENDS MADE ANNUALLY ON brask by two thousand.

Grant heads the column, and his march is onward to victory as in times past, when he conquered for the nation at Shiloh, Vicksburg and Appomattor .-On his banner is inscribed those beautiful words, "Let us have peace!"-and millions of his countrymen are rallying

This result in these States secures us the victory in November, if we are only true to ourselves.

Our opponents are beaten at the North, and here in the South they are dispirited and depressed. One gallant and united charge along the whole line on the 3d day of next month, and the day will be ours. The fruits of this victory will be peace, liberty and justice to all—a cessation of bitter party strife—a settled condition of affairs which will insure industry its reward, and lead to general prosperity and happiness among the whole people. Bear in mird, fellow-citizens, the importance of the election of the third of next month. We must carry this State for Grant and Colfax, and elect all our members of Congress. We can do this by thirty thousand majority

Impress upon the people the necessity of registering their names as voters, Let it be known also that there is but one day for voting. And on the day of the election, let every Republican be at the polls early in the morning, with his vote ready to cast, and after he casts it let him work with others all day for the

This is the way our friends won the day in the States mentioned, and we can do it here by similar efforts.

Fellow-citizens, the election is near at hand. Let us improve the time. Let every man do his duty; and after the 3d. of November the Republicans of North Carolina will swell the chorus with millions of others for GRANT and COL-FAX, LIBERTY, and UNION.
