Frank P. Blair's War Policy.

It is well enough to keep the war-like letter of FRANK P. BLAIR before the people. Democratic papers have become frightened at the startling propositions it contains, and hence they suppress it. They dare not keep it before the eyes, even of their friends, and yet it is the real basis of the Democratic Platform. Being written and placed before the Convention when it asset bled, it, and nothing else, secured Blair's nomination Read, reflect, and then act at the polls.

WASHINGTON, June 30, 1668.

DEAR COLONEL; In reply to your inquires I beg leave to say that I leave to you to determine, on consultation with my friends from Missouri, whether my name shall be presented to the Democratic Convention, and to submit the following, as what I consider the real and only issue in this contest:

The reconstruction policy of the Radicals will be complete before the next election; the States so long excluded will have been admitted; negro suffrage established and the carpet-baggers installed in their seats in both branches of Congress. There is no possibility of changing the political character of the Senate, even if the Democrats should elect their President, and a majority of the popular branch of Congress. We cannot, therefore, undo the Radical plan of reconstruction by Congressional action: the Senate will continue a bar to its repeal. Must we submit to it? How can it be overthrown? It can only be overthrown by the authority of the Executive, who will fail to do his duty if he allows the Constitution to perish under a series of Congressional enactments which are in palpable violation of its fundamental principles.

If the President elected by the Democrates sional enactments which are in paipable violation of its fundamental principles.

If the President elected by the Democracy enforces or permits others to enforce these reconstruction acts, the Radicals by the accession of twenty spurious Senators and fifty Representatives will control both branches of Congress, and his Administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr. Johnson.

There is BUT ONE WAY TO RESTORE THE GOVERNMENT AND THE CONSTITUTION AND THAT IS FOR THE PRESIDENT RECT TO DECLARE THESE ACTS NULL AND VOID, COMPEL THE ARMY TO UNDO ITS USURPATIONS AT THE

ARMY TO UNDO ITS USURPATIONS AT THE SOUTH, DISPERSE THE CARPET-BAG STATE GOVERNMENTS, allow the white people TO REORGANIZE THEIR OWN GOVERNMENTS, AND ELECT SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES.—
The House of Representatives will contain a majority of Democrats from the North, and they will admit the Representatives elected by the people of the South, and with co-operation of the President it will not be difficult TO COMPEL THE SENATE TO SUBMIT ONCE MORE TO THE obligations of the Constitution. It will not be able to withstand the public judgement, if distinctly invoked and clearly expressed on this fundadistinctly invoked and clearly expressed on this fundamental issue, and it is the sure way to avoid all fu ture strife to put the issue plainly to the country.

I repeat THAT THIS IS THE REAL AND ONLY QUESTION WHICH WE SHOULD ALLOW TO CON-TROL US. Shall we submit to the usurpations by which the Governm at has been overthrown, or shall we exert ourselves for its full and complete restoration? It is idle to talk of bonds, greenbacks, gold, the public faith, and the public credit. What can a Democratic procedure to in record to any of these with a Congress. President do in regard to any of these, with a Congress in both branches controlled by the carpet-baggers and their allies? He will be powerless to stop the supplies their allies? He will be powerless to stop the supplies by which idle negroes are organized into political clubs—by which an army is maintained to protect the vagabonds in their outrage upon the ballot. These, and things like these, eat up the revenue and resources of the Government and destroy its credit—make the difference between gold and greenbacks. We must restore the Constitution before we can restore the finances.—AND TO DO THIS WE MUST HAVE A PRESIDENT WHO WILL EXECUTE THE WHLL OF THE PEOPLE BY TRAMPLING UNDER DUST THE USURPATION OF CONGRESS, KNOWN AS THE RE-PLE BY TRAMPLING UNDER DUST THE USURPATION OF CONGRESS, KNOWN AS THE RECONSTRUCTION ACTS. I WISH TO STAND BEFORE THE CONVENTION UPON THIS ISSUE.—

BUT IT IS ONE WHICH EMBRACES EVERY THING ELSE THAT IS OF VALUE IN ITS LARGE
AND COMPREHENSIVE RESULTS. It is the ONE THING THAT INCLUDES ALL THAT IS WORTH a contest, and without it there is nothing that gives dignity, honor, or value to the struggle
Your friend,
FRANK P. BLAIR

OUR PLATFORM.

I. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress, as evinced by the adoption, in the majority of the States lately in rebellion, of constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all, and it is the duty of the Government to sustain those institutions and to prevent the people of such States from being re-admitted to a state of anarchy.

II. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South was demanded by every consideration of public safe-ty, of gratitude, and of justice, and must be matutained; while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.

III. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime; and the national baner. requires the payment of the public indebted-ness in the fittermost good faith to all creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

IV: It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

V. The national debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption; and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest there-or, whenever it can be honestly done. VI. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, par-tial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

VII. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for radical reform.

VIII. We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the accession to the Presidency of Andrew Johnson, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support; who has usurped high legislative and judicial functions; who has refused to execute the laws; who SMALLEST RATIO OF MORTALITY has used his high office to induce other officers to ignore and violate the laws; who has employed his executive powers to render insecure the property, the peace, liberty and life, of the citizen; who has abused the pardoning power; who has denounced the National Legislature as unconstitutional; who has persistently and corruptly resisted, by every means in his power, every proper attempt at the re-construction of the States lately in rebellion; who has perverted the public patronage ir to an engine of wholesale corruption; and who has been justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and properly pronounced guilty thereof by the votes of thirty-five Sen-

IX. The Doctrine of Great Britian and other European powers, that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States, as a relic of feudal times, not authorized by INSURERS RECEIVE THE LARGEST the laws of nations, and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to protection in all their rights of citizenship, as though they were native-born; and no citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any foreign power for acts done or words spoken in this country; and if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the Government to interfere in his behalf. DIVIDENDS MADE ANNUALLY ON X. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war, there were none entitled to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who, endured the hardships of campaign and cruise, and imperilled their lives in the service of the country; the bounties and pensions provided by the laws for these brave defenders of the nation are obligations never to be forgotten; the widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people -a sacred legacy, bequeathed to the nation's

xI. Foreign immigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development, and resources and increase of power to this Republic, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

XII. This convention declares itself in sympathy with all oppressed peoples struggling for their rights.

On motion of Carl Shurz, the following two planks were added by a unanimous vote:

Resolved, that we highly commend the spirit of magnanimity and forbearance with which men who have served in the rebellion but who now frankly and honestly co-operate with us in restoring the peace of the country and reconstructing the Somhern State governmets upon the basis of Impartial Justice and Equal Rights, are received back into the communion of the loyal people; and we favor the removal of the disqualifications and restrictions imposed upon the late rebels in the same measure as their spirit of loyalty REGULAR LIFE POLICIES AFTER will direct, and as may be consistent with the safety of the loyal people.

Resolved, That we recognize the great principles laid down in the immortal Declaration of Independenc as the true foundation of democratic government; and we bail with gladness every effort toward making these principles a living reality on every inch of American soll.

> WHAT THE AUTHOR SAYS .- Here is General Hampton's own construction of the mearing of this resolution, delivered at a mass-meeting of the Copperhead and rebel Democracy be-fore he left New York:

fore he left New York:

"We can have no relief until the Democratic party will come out and pledge itself that the selite people of the South shall vote. I want all to register an oath that when they do rote, their votes shall be counted.
